RE-TRANSMITTAL OF ASSIGNMENT DOCUMENT

Assignment Division
Box Assignments
North Tower Building
2800 Crystal Drive
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

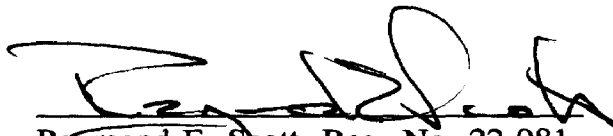

This is in response to the Notice of Non-Recordation of Document dated March 1, 1999 concerning the referenced registration. Applicant submitted an Assignment with the Certificates of Name Change attached. Please note that the Certificate of Name Change is part of the Assignment and is indicated on the Assignment as being attached. On the Assignment Recordal Sheet we indicated that the interest being conveyed was an Assignment and Certificate of Change of Name. Consequently, the Assignment Division examined the documents and found them non-recordable in view of the fact that a separate coversheet must accompany each transaction. However, upon reviewing the first paragraph of the Assignment document you will note that the Certificates of Name Change were incorporated into the Assignment as an attachment and thus there are not two separate transactions.

Enclosed herewith are the original Assignment, a new Recordation Form Cover Sheet (citing Document ID No. 100878603), and the original defective Recordation Form Cover Sheet, together with a return Post Card.

Because the recordal fee was submitted on November 4, 1998 no additional fees are being submitted herewith. It can be observed that the original defective Recordation Form

Cover Sheet includes indicia representing an acknowledgment that the recordal fee was received. In view of the above-mentioned, we respectfully request that you record the attached Assignment document as originally presented to the Patent and Trademark Office. Favorable and prompt consideration is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,

Raymond E. Scott, Reg. No. 22,981
