FIFTH. The personal liability of a director to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of duty as a director shall be limited to an amount equal to the amount of compensation received by the director for serving the corporation during the calendar year in which the violation occurred (and if the director received no such compensation from the corporation during the calendar year of the violation, such director shall have no liability to the corporation or its shareholders for breach of duty) if such breach did not:

- (A) involve a knowing and culpable violation of law by the director;
- (B) enable the director or an Associate, as defined in Section 33-840 of the Connecticut Business Corporation Act as in effect at the time of the violation, to receive an improper personal economic gain;
- (C) show a lack of good faith and a conscious disregard for the duty of the director to the corporation under circumstances in which the director was aware that his conduct or omission created an unjustifiable risk of serious injury to the corporation;

- (D) constitute a sustained and unexcused pattern of inattention that amounted to an abdication of the director's duty to the corporation; or
- (E) create liability under Section 33-757 of the Connecticut Business Corporation Act as in effect at the time of the violation.

Any repeal or modification of this Article Fifth shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

Nothing contained in this Article Fifth shall be construed to deny to the directors of the corporation any of the benefits provided by Section 33-756 of the Connecticut Business Corporation Act, as in effect at the time of the violation.

SIXTH. The corporation shall indemnify, to the fullest extent permitted by law, a director for liability, as defined in subdivision (5) of section 33-770 of the Connecticut Business Corporation Act, as amended by section 12 of Public Act 97-246, to any person for any action taken, or any failure to take any action, as a director, except liability that (a) involved a knowing and culpable violation of law by the director, (b) enabled the director or an Associate, as defined in section 33-840 of the Connecticut Business Corporation Act as in effect at the time of the violation, to receive an improper personal gain, (c) showed a lack of good faith and a conscious disregard for the duty of the director to the corporation under circumstances in which the director was aware that his conduct or omission created an unjustifiable risk of serious injury to the corporation; (d) constituted a sustained and unexcused pattern of inattention that amounted to an abdication of the director's duty to the corporation or (e) created liability under section 33-757 of the Connecticut Business Corporation Act as in effect at the time of the violation, provided that this Article Sixth shall not affect the indemnification of or advance of expenses to a director for any liability stemming from acts or omissions occurring prior to the effective date of this Certificate of Incorporation. The corporation shall advance funds to pay for or reimburse expenses in accordance with section 33-773 of the Connecticut Business Corporation Act, as amended by section 15 of Public Act 97-246, to the fullest extent permitted by law.

SEVENTH. The corporation shall indemnify and advance expenses under sections 33-770 to 33-778 of the Connecticut Business Corporation Act inclusive, as amended by sections 12 to 20, inclusive, of Public Act 97-246, and section 21 of Public Act 97-246, to an officer, employee or agent of the corporation who is a party to a proceeding because he is an officer, employee or agent of the corporation (1) to the same extent as a director, and (2) if he is an officer, employee or agent but not a director, to such further extent, consistent with public policy, as may be provided by contract, this certificate of incorporation, the by-laws or a resolution of the board of directors.

EIGHTH. Election of directors of the corporation, and acts of the corporation, shall be subject to the provisions of Section 5.8 of a certain Shareholders Agreement by and among Familymeds, Inc. (formerly known as The Arrow Holding Company) and its shareholders as it may exist from time to time.
