Dear Sirs:

Re: Outstanding "Orphan Security" Registered Against the Assets of Nevada Bob's Golf Inc. (formerly known as Nevada Bob's Canada Inc.) ("NB Golf") and March Acquisition, Inc. (formerly known as Nevada Bob's Pro Shop, Inc.) ("MAI")

Please be advised that NB Golf and its wholly owned subsidiary, MAI are in the process of completing various business transactions which are expected to close imminently. Searches conducted in respect of these transactions have revealed that you continue to be registered holders of liens against the assets and intellectual property of NB Golf and MAI (or their predecessors). However, it is our understanding that all outstanding indebtedness to each of your companies was repaid in full in or about October 1999. In order to close the pending business transactions, we require each of your confirmations that there is no current indebtedness owed by either NB Golf or MAI, or their respective predecessors to you, and that you have no interest whatsoever in any of the assets, including without limitation, any intellectual property, of NB Golf or MAI or any of their respective affiliates or subsidiaries.

We also require your confirmation that you will take all necessary and immediate steps to discharge ~~all your expenses~~, any and all liens or other registrations recorded by you against the assets and intellectual property of NB Golf, MAI, their predecessors or any of their respective affiliates or subsidiaries.

Please provide your respective confirmations of the above noted matters by executing the acknowledgement below and faxing a copy of this letter to the attention of the undersigned at your earliest opportunity. Please return the original by courier as soon as possible.

If you have any questions with respect to the above, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned at your convenience.

Yours truly,
