Recitals

- A. The Assignor is the owner of the trade marks (the "Trade Marks") which are the subject of trade mark applications and trade marks registrations (the "Trade Mark Applications" and the "Trade Mark Registrations") in the United States of America. The Trade Marks, Trade Mark Applications and Trade Mark Registrations are more particularly described in Schedule 1 to this deed.
- B. The Assignee has acquired, by virtue of assignment, the entire right, title and interest in and to the Trade Marks, the Trade Mark Applications and the Trade Mark Registrations on the terms and conditions contained in this deed.

This deed witnesses

that in consideration of, among other things, the mutual promises contained in this deed, the parties agree:

Assignment

In consideration of the payment by the Assignee of good and valuable consideration, the Assignor confirms that the Assignee has, by virtue of an assignment, acquired:

- (a) the entire right, title and interest in and to the Trade Marks, the Trade Mark Applications and the Trade Mark Registrations together with all intellectual property rights residing in the Trade Marks including but not limited to copyright, free from all encumbrances;
- (b) all right, interest and title in and to any trade mark registration resulting from the Trade Mark Applications which the Assignor may subsequently obtain; and
- (c) all rights, if any, that the Assignor has to take actions against third parties for an infringement of the Trade Marks, the Trade Mark Applications or the Trade Mark Registrations or any other rights relating to the Trade Marks, whether or not such infringement took place prior to the date of this deed.
