ARTICLE 7.

In furtherance, and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the board of directors is expressly authorized to make, amend, alter, change, add to or repeal bylaws of this corporation, without any action on the part of the shareholders. The bylaws made by the directors may be amended, altered, changed, added to or repealed by the shareholders. Any specific provision in the bylaws regarding amendment thereof shall be controlling.

ARTICLE 8.

A director of the corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director; provided, however, that this article shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director (a) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty (as defined in Section 14A:2-7(3) of the New Jersey Business Corporation Act) to the corporation or its shareholders; (b) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; or (c) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. This article shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for any act or omission occurring prior to the effective date of this article.

If the New Jersey Business Corporation Act is hereafter amended to authorize any further limitation of the liability of a director, then the liability of a director of the corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the New Jersey Business Corporation Act, as amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing provisions of this article by the shareholders of the corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE 9.

The corporation shall provide indemnification of (and advancement of expenses to) any and all persons whom it shall have the power to indemnify under said section from and against any and all of the expenses, liabilities or other matters referred to in or covered by said section, and the indemnification provided for herein shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled through bylaw provisions, agreements with such agents or persons, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, subject only to limits created by applicable New Jersey law (statutory or non-statutory).

FROM

(MON) 4. 2' 01 14:19/ST. 14:12/NO. 4862503095 P 5

Any repeal or modification of any of the foregoing provisions of this Article 8 shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director, officer, agent or other person existing at the time of, or increase the liability of any directors of this corporation with respect to any acts or omissions of such directors, officer or agent occurring prior to such repeal or modification.
