2) The Board of Directors shall have authority, by resolution, to divide the preferred stock into series, to fix the number of shares of each such series and to determine the relative rights and preferences of the shares of any series so established to the fullest extent now or hereafter permitted by the Kentucky Business Corporation Act and to change the shares of one series that have been redeemed or reacquired into shares of another series. The authority of the Board of Directors to fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of the shares of any series shall include but shall not, except as restricted by law, be limited to the fixing and determination of the following:

5) Except as otherwise provided by a resolution or resolutions of the Board of Directors creating any series of preferred stock or by the Kentucky Business Corporation Act, the holders of shares of the common stock issued and outstanding shall have and possess the exclusive right to notice of stockholders' meetings and the exclusive power to vote.

C. No shareholder of the Corporation shall have any preemptive or preferential right to subscribe for or purchase unissued or treasury shares of any class of the Corporation, whether now or hereafter authorized, options or warrants to purchase shares of the Corporation, or any obligation convertible into shares of the Corporation or carrying options or warrants to purchase shares of the Corporation, issued or sold, other than such right, if any, and for such consideration as the Board of Directors may, in its discretion, from time to time determine; and the Board of Directors may issue shares (or sell treasury shares) of the Corporation, options or warrants to purchase shares, or obligations convertible into shares or carrying options or warrants to purchase shares to such persons, firms or corporations and for such consideration and upon such terms as the Board of Directors may, in its discretion, from time to time determine, without first offering such shares, options, warrants or obligations or any part thereof to the shareholders of the Corporation.

ARTICLE V

Except as provided in Section B of this Article V, the affirmative vote or consent of the holders of eighty percent (80%) of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation shall be required for (1) approval of any merger or consolidation to which the Corporation is a party, other than merger or consolidation with a subsidiary and (2) authorization of any sale or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the property and assets of the Corporation for which shareholder authorization is required under applicable law.

B. The provisions of Section A of this Article V shall not be applicable to any transaction if such transaction is approved by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors of the Corporation upon the affirmative vote of a majority in aggregate number thereof.

C. The affirmative vote or consent of the holders of eighty percent (80%) of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation shall be required for the amendment, alteration or repeal of this Article.

ARTICLE VI

The address of the registered office of the Corporation and the address of CT Corporation System, the registered agent of the Corporation, is Kentucky Home Life Building, Louisville, Kentucky 40202.

ARTICLE VII

The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed and conducted by a Board of Directors. The number of directors shall be three or such greater or lesser number as shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors from time to time; provided, the Board of Directors may only increase or decrease by thirty (30%) percent or less the number of directors last approved by the shareholders.

The Board of Directors of the Corporation, to the extent not prohibited by law, shall have the power to cause the Corporation to repurchase its own shares and shall have the power to make distributions, from time to time, to the Corporation's shareholders.

ARTICLE VIII

The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, including appeals, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer or employee of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer or employee of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a "fiduciary," as defined in Section 3(21)(A) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA") with regard to any employee benefit plan in which employees of the Corporation are participants because of such employment, whether or not the act or omission to act on the part of such person which is the basis of such action, suit or proceeding, occurred before or after the adoption of this Article, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement (if such settlement is determined to be reasonable as herein provided) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, unless it shall be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final, non-appealable order or judgment (whether in such action, suit, or proceeding or in another action brought for the purpose of determining whether the person should be indemnified) that the person seeking indemnification was guilty of gross negligence, fraud or willful misconduct. Provided that with respect to an action by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor such indemnification shall extend only as to expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred. This right of indemnification includes but is not limited to threatened, pending or completed actions, suits or proceedings, including appeals, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative under or pursuant to any federal, state or local law (statutory, regulatory or common law) relating to protection of the environment, including, without limitation, the Comprehensive Environmental Response Compensation and Liability Act, the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, the Clean Air Act, the Clean Water Act, the Toxic Substances Control Act, and the Emergency Planning and Community Right-To-Know Act, all as amended.

With respect to amounts paid in settlement of any action, suit or proceeding, it shall be determined by the Corporation whether such settlement is reasonable. Such determination shall be made (a) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who are not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (b) by the shareholders in the event such a quorum is not obtainable. In the event it is determined that the settlement is reasonable, such person shall be indemnified for such amounts paid, unless it shall be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, in a final, non-appealable order or judgment (whether in such action, suit or proceeding or in another action brought for the purpose of determining whether the person should be indemnified) that the person seeking indemnification was guilty of gross negligence, fraud or willful misconduct. A determination by the Corporation that a settlement is reasonable shall not be deemed to create a presumption that the person seeking indemnification was or was not guilty of gross negligence, fraud or willful misconduct. In the event the person seeking indemnification enters into a settlement other than one determined to be reasonable by the Corporation, his or her rights to indemnification hereunder shall be forfeited and any expenses advanced pursuant to the provisions hereof shall be immediately repaid to the Corporation.

Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred which are subject to indemnification hereunder shall be advanced by the Corporation prior to the final disposition of the action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of a written undertaking by or on behalf of the person seeking such indemnification with such security as the Board of Directors may require, to repay such amount if it shall be determined by a Court of competent jurisdiction in a final, non-appealable order or judgment (whether in such action, suit or proceeding or in another action brought for the purpose of determining whether the person should be indemnified) that such person was guilty of gross negligence, fraud or willful misconduct.

The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to, and not exclusive of any and all other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled by statute, agreement or otherwise, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person.

ARTICLE IX

Shareholders holding not less than one-fifth (1/5) of all shares entitled to vote on any matter to be presented at a meeting shall be entitled to call a special meeting of the shareholders by giving due and proper notice thereof as required by law. At any meeting called pursuant to this provision, a quorum of at least four-fifths (4/5) of the shares entitled to vote on any matter to be presented shall be required for the transaction of any business thereat.

The affirmative vote or consent of the holders of eighty percent (80%) of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation shall be required for the amendment, alteration or repeal of this Article.

THIRD: The effective time and date of these Articles of Restatement shall be 12:01 a.m. Tuesday, December, 1998
