2. Grant of Security Interest. For valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, Debtor hereby grants to the Secured Party a security interest in all Collateral to secure all of the Obligations. The grant of this security interest is subject to the terms and conditions of a certain Subordination Agreement dated as of December 10, 2003, among the Debtor, the Secured Party and Wells Fargo Bank, N. A.

The granting of a security interest in Proceeds, and acceptance of Proceeds by the Secured Party, shall not constitute Secured Party's consent to, or authorization of, the sale, encumbrance, transfer, license, lease, or other disposition of Collateral, and the Debtor shall not sell, encumber, transfer, lease or otherwise dispose of any Collateral without the prior written consent of the Secured Party, except that tangible personal property that constitutes Collateral may be sold without such consent.

3. Debtor's Warranties, Representations and Obligations With Respect to the Collateral. Debtor hereby makes the following representations and warranties to the Secured Party, assumes the following obligations and agrees to perform the following acts, in addition to any other representations, warranties, obligations or duties contained herein or prescribed by the Iowa Uniform Commercial Code, all of which are incorporated herein by reference and as the same may be amended or supplemented hereafter:

A. The Collateral has been and will be bought, acquired, manufactured, used and accrued exclusively for business or commercial use and not for consumer use. Said Collateral is now and shall hereafter be kept only at the locations identified in Exhibit A to this Agreement, and any real estate or premises owned or leased by Debtor adjacent thereto. Debtor shall not remove the Collateral from said locations, without the prior written consent of the Secured Party. At all reasonable times, Debtor shall permit the Secured Party to inspect any of the Collateral.

B. Debtor is, or, to the extent that such Collateral is first acquired by the Debtor after the date of this Agreement, will at the time of Debtor's acquisition of the same be, and will throughout the term of this Agreement be, the sole and lawful owner of the Collateral free from all security interests, pledges, liens, encumbrances, claims and interests, except for any permitted encumbrances explicitly listed in Exhibit A to this Agreement. Except as to permitted encumbrances explicitly listed in Exhibit A to this Agreement, no financing statement covering, or purporting to cover, the Collateral or its proceeds is, or shall, while this Agreement remains outstanding, be on file in any public office. Upon demand, Debtor shall furnish further assurance of title. Debtor shall defend the Collateral against the claims and demands of all parties, other than any permitted encumbrances explicitly referenced in Exhibit A to this Agreement.

C. At the request of the Secured Party, Debtor agrees to execute any further instrument in form reasonably satisfactory to the Secured Party and to pay all filing and other costs necessary or desirable to perfect and continue the Secured Party's security interest in the Collateral. If the Collateral or any part of it is or becomes property for which a certificate of title is issuable under any federal laws or the laws of any state, Debtor will cause a statement of the Secured Party's security interest to be noted on the certificate of title. If possession of the Collateral or any document relating to the Collateral is necessary to perfect the Secured Party's security interest therein, then Debtor agrees to put the Secured Party into possession of said Collateral or document.

D. Debtor shall, in the use of the Collateral, comply with all necessary and appropriate local, state and federal ordinances, statutes and laws and, if required by law, will keep the Collateral duly licensed and registered. When reasonably requested to do so by the Secured Party, Debtor shall provide the Secured Party with proof of compliance with these requirements.

E. Debtor will maintain the Collateral in good condition and repair, and will not waste, destroy or substantially change the Collateral or any part of it, other than in the ordinary course of business. Except as the Secured Party otherwise agrees in writing, the Collateral shall remain personal property at all times and the Debtor will not affix any of the Collateral to any real property in any manner that would change its nature from that of personal property to real property or to a fixture.

F. Debtor will pay promptly when due all taxes and assessments upon the Collateral, or for its use or operation.

G. Debtor shall immediately notify the Secured Party in writing of any seizure of, levy upon, loss of possession of, destruction of or damage to the Collateral, or any part of the Collateral, and shall also immediately notify the Secured Party of the occurrence of any default under the terms of this Agreement. To the extent it obtains knowledge, Debtor shall also immediately notify the Secured Party of any event or facts that, would affect the perfection or priority of any security interest granted to the Secured party in this Agreement.

H. Upon closing, Debtor will promptly file the required financing statement with the Iowa Secretary of State, and provide Secured Party with proof of such filing. At Secured Party's request, Debtor will assist with additional filings, if any are appropriate or necessary.

I. Debtor shall at all times create and maintain accurate books and Records regarding the Collateral. The Debtor shall permit the Secured Party to examine all such Records and all supporting materials, data and information at reasonable times upon reasonable request of the Secured Party at the business premises of the Debtor, or at such other location as Secured Party may reasonably request.

4. Insurance; Risk of Loss. The risk of loss of the Collateral is on Debtor. Debtor shall maintain insurance coverage upon the Collateral against risks customarily insured against by Debtor, against risks customarily insured against by companies engaged in business similar to that of Debtor, and against all other risks reasonably requested by the Secured Creditor. Coverage shall be in such amounts as the Debtor reasonably determines is necessary in accordance with sound business practices. Debtor will insure the Collateral with companies licensed to do business in the State of Iowa in accordance with its past practices and consistent with standards in the industry in which Debtor is engaged. Upon request, Debtor shall furnish the Secured Party with proof of insurance. No insurance policy may be cancelled unless thirty (30) days' prior written notice is provided to the Secured Party.

5. Intentionally Omitted.

6. Debtor's Warranties, Representations and Obligations With Respect to the Debtor. Debtor hereby makes the following representations and warranties to the Secured Party, assumes the following obligations and agrees to perform the following acts:

A. The Debtor's exact legal name is as set forth in the first paragraph of this Agreement.

B. The Debtor is an Iowa corporation, and has duly filed articles of incorporation with the Iowa Secretary of State. Its Chief Executive Office is located in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

D. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and of the Obligations are within the legal powers of the Debtor, have been duly authorized by all necessary actions of the Debtor and the Debtor's members, stockholders, directors and/or officers, and do not contravene the organizational documents of the Debtor or any indenture, agreement or undertaking to which the Debtor is a party or by which it is bound.

7. Costs and Expenses. Debtor agrees to pay the reasonable expenses, whether incurred in or out of court, and whether incurred before or after default, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees and costs, which the Secured Party reasonably incurs in connection with the satisfaction of the Obligations, or the administration, supervision, preservation, protection of or the realization upon any Collateral.

8. Secured Party's Rights and Remedies – Generally. The Secured Party shall have all the rights and remedies granted a secured party under the Iowa Uniform Commercial Code, as amended or supplemented hereafter, and, in addition thereto, all the rights and remedies granted under the terms of this Agreement or any other Agreement by which the Debtor is bound. The Secured Party may exercise any or all of its rights and remedies separately, cumulatively, successively or simultaneously.

9. Default. In addition to the other events of default set forth in this Agreement, Debtor shall be in default of this Agreement upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

A. Failure to make a payment to the Secured Party as required by the terms of this Agreement or the terms of any of the Obligations;

C. The occurrence of any other default under the terms of any of the Obligations;

D. Material loss, theft, damage or destruction to all or any part of the Collateral, which is not repaired or replaced to the reasonable satisfaction of the Secured Party within a reasonable time, not to exceed ninety (90) days of the occurrence thereof, or for which adequate insurance proceeds payable to the Secured Party are not received by the Secured Party within such reasonable period;

E. The voluntary or involuntary transfer of any right, title or interest of Debtor in all or any part of the Collateral other than in the ordinary course of business, or the creation of a security interest or other voluntary or involuntary encumbrance thereon; other than a security interest to the Creditors referred to in Exhibit A.

F. By or to the Debtor or any other party liable upon any of the Obligations: (i) dissolution, winding up of the affairs of, complete or partial liquidation, transfer of the voting stock of (in whole or in part), suspension of business, termination of existence, insolvency in any sense, failure to generally pay debts as they become due; (ii) appointment of, or taking possession by, a receiver, trustee, assignee, bailee, creditor or other custodian of substantially all of the property of Debtor, if such appointment or taking is not terminated, dismissed, vacated or released within thirty (30) days after such appointment or taking; (iii) commencement of any kind of voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy, insolvency, or dissolution proceeding by or against the Debtor if such proceeding is not dismissed within thirty (30) days after its filing or commencement; or (iv) attachment, trustee process, lien, levy or similar action or any combination thereof against any substantial portion of the property of, or if such attachment, trustee process, lien and levy are not wholly terminated and released within thirty (30) days after their respective occurrence;

10. Consequences of Default.

A. Upon the occurrence of a default under the terms of this Agreement, and at any time thereafter while such default continues: (i) the Secured Party may declare all amounts outstanding under the terms of any, some or all of the Obligations to be immediately due and payable; (ii) the Secured Party may pursue any remedy available at law (including, but not limited to, those remedies available under the Iowa Uniform Commercial Code), or in equity, to collect, enforce, or satisfy any Obligations then owing, whether by acceleration or otherwise; (iii) the Secured Party may take possession of the Collateral, and, without being liable for trespass or breach of peace, may enter upon any premises where Collateral may be situated and take possession and remove all or any part of said Collateral; (iv) the Secured Party may require Debtor to assemble the Collateral and make it available to Secured Party at a place to be designated by the Secured Party which is reasonably convenient to both parties, and it is agreed that Debtor's place of business at 615 Fifth St. S.E., Cedar Rapids, Iowa is a convenient location for such purpose and that the Secured Party may elect to store such Collateral at Debtor's place of business pending further disposition of it; and (v) in addition, to any other remedies that it may have, the Secured Party may: (a) file suit and obtain judgment, and, in connection with any action, Secured Party may seek any ancillary remedies provided by law or in equity, including levy of attachment and garnishment, and appointment of a receiver; (b) take possession of any Collateral if not already in its possession without demand and without legal process; and (c) with or without taking possession, sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of Collateral at a public or private sale, or otherwise, in accordance with the provisions of Iowa Uniform Commercial Code.

Secured Party may, but shall have no obligation to, clean up, repair or otherwise prepare the Collateral for sale, lease or other disposition, and any failure to do so will not be considered to adversely impact the commercial reasonableness of any sale or other disposition of the Collateral. Secured Party may comply with any applicable requirements of law in connection with a disposition of Collateral and such compliance will not be considered to adversely affect the commercial reasonableness of any sale or other disposition of Collateral. Secured Party may sell Collateral without giving any warranties as to the same and may specifically disclaim any warranties of title or the like. Failure to give or disclaimer of any warranties shall not be considered to adversely affect the commercial reasonableness of any sale or other disposition of Collateral. F. If any of the provision of this Agreement is found to be void, invalid, ineffective or unenforceable by a court or panel of arbitrators, or any governmental body, of competent jurisdiction, the other provisions shall continue in full force and effect, and Debtor shall continue to be liable under this Agreement to that extent.

G. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of, shall be binding upon, the heirs, successors and assigns of each of the parties hereto, and shall also bind all parties who become bound as a debtor under this Agreement. However, Secured Party does not consent to any assignment by Debtor. Secured Party may assign its rights and interests under this Agreement, in whole or in part, at any time or from time to time.
