The Debtor agrees to reimburse the Secured Party on demand for any payment made or any expense incurred by the Secured Party pursuant to the foregoing authorization. Until default the Debtor may have possession of the Collateral and use it in any lawful manner, and upon default the Secured Party shall have the immediate right to the possession of the Collateral.

Borrower hereby waives all right of homestead exemption in the Collateral, including that granted by §38-41-201.6, C.R.S., and waives any other statutory exemptions, including those granted by §13-54-102, C.R.S., insofar as such exemptions pertain to the Collateral described in this Security Agreement.

THE DEBTOR SHALL BE IN DEFAULT under this agreement upon the happening of any of the following events or conditions:

- (a) default in the payment or performance of any obligation, covenant or liability contained or referred to herein or in any note evidencing the same;
- (b) the making or furnishing of any warranty, representation or statement to the Secured Party by or on behalf of the Debtor which proves to have been false in any material respect when made or furnished;
- (c) loss, theft, damage, destruction, sale or encumbrance to or of any of the Collateral, or the making of any levy, seizure or attachment thereof or thereon;
- (d) death, change of name, dissolution, merger, termination of existence, insolvency, business failure, appointment of a receiver of any part of the property of, assignment for the benefit of creditors by, or the commencement of any proceeding under any bankruptcy or insolvency laws of, by or against the Debtor or any guarantor or surety for the Debtor.

UPON SUCH DEFAULT and at any time thereafter, or if it deems itself insecure, the Secured Party may declare all Obligations secured hereby immediately due and payable subject to any notice required by law or agreement, and shall have the remedies of a secured party under Article 9 of the Colorado Uniform Commercial Code. The Secured Party may require the Debtor to assemble the Collateral and deliver or make it available to the Secured Party at a place to be designated by the Secured Party which is reasonably convenient to both parties. Expenses of retaking, holding, preparing for sale, selling or the like shall, subject to any applicable limits set forth in the Colorado Uniform Consumer Credit Code, include the Secured Party's reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses (including the allocated fees and expenses of in-house counsel) and such portion of the Secured Party's overhead as it may in its reasonable judgment deem allocable to and includable in such expenses. Unless the Collateral is perishable or the Secured Party in good faith believes that the Collateral threatens to decline speedily in value or is of a type customarily sold on a recognized market, the Secured Party will give the Debtor reasonable notice of the time and place of any public sale thereof or of the time after which any private sale or any other intended disposition thereof is to be made. The requirements of reasonable notice shall be met if such notice is mailed, postage prepaid, to the address of the Debtor shown at the beginning of this Agreement at least ten days before the time of the sale or disposition. As respects crops covered by this Security Agreement, upon such default, it is agreed by the parties hereto that said crops are perishable or may decline speedily in value, and that the Secured Party may protect, cultivate, care for, harvest, or process said crops at the expense of the Debtor and may sell and dispose of said crops at private or public sale as the same mature or are harvested, at the price then available. [Where the Collateral is livestock, it is agreed that a commercially reasonable means of disposing of the Collateral shall include sale of such Collateral in the customary manner on the Denver, Colorado, livestock market or through a licensed livestock sales ring in Colorado. Sale of such livestock may be otherwise as permitted by law. It is expressly agreed also that it will not be necessary, after default and before the sale of any livestock Collateral, to collect said livestock or to have the same present at the place of sale.] In the event the Secured Party institutes legal proceedings to regain possession of the Collateral, Debtor knowingly and voluntarily waives his or her right to a hearing prior to losing possession of the Collateral by means of a court order, and agrees that the Secured Party may obtain an order for possession prior to hearing as provided in C.R.C.P. 104(d)(4).

No waiver by the Secured Party or any default shall operate as a waiver of any other default or of the same default on a future occasion. The taking of this security agreement shall not waive or impair any other security the Secured Party may have or hereafter acquire for the payment of the Obligations, nor shall the taking of any such additional security waive or impair this security agreement; but the Secured Party may resort to any security it may have in the order it may deem proper, and notwithstanding any Collateral Security, the Secured Party shall retain its rights of such against the Debtor.

All rights of the Secured Party hereunder shall inure to the benefit of the Secured Party's heirs, personal representatives, successors or assigns and all promises and duties of the Debtor shall bind the Debtor's heirs, personal representatives, successors or assigns. If there be more than one Debtor, their liabilities hereunder shall be joint and several.

Should any provision of this Security Agreement violate any federal, state or local law or ordinance, that provision shall be deemed amended so as to comply with such law or ordinance, and shall be construed in a manner so as to comply.
