The above named Ohio corporation, does hereby certify that:

A meeting of the shareholders directors (non-profit amended articles only)

members was duly called and held on 4/15/2003

at which meeting a quorum was present in person or by proxy, based upon the quorum present, an affirmative vote was cast which entitled them to exercise 100 % as the voting power of the corporation.

In a writing signed by all of the shareholders directors (non-profit amended articles only) members who would be entitled to the notice of a meeting or such other proportion not less than a majority as the articles of regulations or bylaws permit.

Clause applies if amended box is checked.

Resolved, that the following amended articles of incorporations be and the same are hereby adopted to supercede and take the place of the existing articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto.

ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS TO AMENDED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF ADRENALINE PRODUCTS, INC.

ARTICLE TWO

The address of the principal office of the corporation is 21690 State Rte 243, Proctorville, Ohio 45669.

ARTICLE FOUR

The corporation is authorized to issue only one class of common stock. The par value of each share is $2.

The stated capital for the outstanding shares of stock is $1,280.00.

ARTICLE SIX

The corporation is a close corporation as set forth in the Close Corporation Agreement signed by all shareholders pursuant to Ohio Revised Code § 1701.591 and recorded in the minutes of the proceedings of the shareholders held on April 15, 2004. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by the stockholders rather than by a board of directors. Actions consented to by the stockholders shall be binding on the corporation. Actions taken with the full knowledge of all the stockholders shall be deemed consented to unless a stockholder objects to the action in a timely manner.

ARTICLE SEVEN

In case a stockholder desires to sell his or her shares of stock, he or she must first offer them for sale to the corporation, it being the intention to give it a preference in the purchase of the shares, and any attempted sale in violation of this provision is null and void.

A stockholder desiring to sell his or her stock shall file notice in writing of his or her intention with the secretary of the corporation, stating the terms of sale, and unless those terms are accepted by the corporation, to be determined by all stockholders entitled to vote excluding the selling stockholder, within thirty (30) days, it shall be deemed to have waived its privilege of purchasing. Provided, however, that the selling stockholder may only sell his or her stock at or above the price and terms first offered to the corporation as provided herein.

ARTICLE EIGHT

If all of the shares which a shareholder desires to dispose of are not purchased or retired by the corporation in accordance with the provisions of Article Seven, then the stock not so purchased or retired shall be offered to the remaining stockholders. Such offer shall be delivered to the remaining shareholders, stating the terms of sale, and indicating that unless those terms are accepted by any or all of the other stockholders within fifteen (15) days, they shall be deemed to have waived their privilege of purchasing and the stockholder will be at liberty to sell to anyone else.

ARTICLE NINE

Each shareholder of the corporation shall have the right to purchase, subscribe for, or receive a right or rights to purchase or subscribe for a pro rata portion of:

1. Any stock of any class that the corporation may issue or sell, whether or not exchangeable for any stock of the corporation of any class or classes, and whether or not of unissued shares authorized by the articles of incorporation filed or by amendment of the articles of incorporation or out of shares of stock of the corporation acquired by it after issuance and whether issued for cash, promissory notes, services, property, or other securities of the corporation; or

2. Any obligations that the corporation may issue or sell which is convertible into or exchangeable for any stock of the corporation of any class or classes, or to which is attached or pertinent any warrant or warrants or other instrument or instruments conferring on the holder the right to subscribe for or purchase from the corporation any share of its stock of any class or classes.

ARTICLE TEN

The stock of the corporation shall be redeemable at the option of, and at the discretion of the corporation, in whole or in part, at any time on thirty (30) day's notice. The redemption price shall be set by the corporation, to be determined by all stockholders entitled to vote excluding the stockholder whose shares are being redeemed, but in no event shall the redemption price be less than the par value of such shares plus the amount of corporate net income previously taxed but not distributed to the shareholder as a result of any pass-through tax treatment of the corporation under Subchapter S and Subchapter K of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. However, no redemption will be made when the corporation is insolvent or when the redemption would render the corporation insolvent, or would reduce the corporation's net assets below the aggregate amount payable to the holders of any shares having prior or equal rights to the assets of the corporation on involuntary dissolution.

The corporation must give notice of the redemption of any or all shares by call and written or printed notice. The notice of redemption must set forth all of the following:

1. The stockholders whose shares are being redeemed and the number of shares being redeemed from each such stockholder.
2. The redemption price of each stockholder whose shares are being redeemed.
3. The date fixed for redemption.
4. The place at which the shareholders may obtain payment of the redemption price on surrender of their share certificates.

A copy of the notice of redemption, postage prepaid, must be mailed to each holder of shares to be redeemed, of record as of the date of mailing or as of the record date fixed in accordance with the regulations, addressed to the holder, at his or her address appearing on the corporate books or given by him or her to the corporation for the purpose of notice, or if no such address appears or is given, at the place where the principal office of the corporation is located, not less than thirty (30) days before the date fixed for redemption.

The redemption payments may be made from any legally available source or fund.

On or before the date fixed for redemption, each holder of shares called for redemption shall surrender the certificate for the shares to the corporation at the place designated in the redemption notice and shall then be entitled to receive payment of the redemption price. If less than all of the shares represented by a surrendered certificate are redeemed, a new certificate shall be issued representing the unredeemed shares.
