ARTICLES OF AMALGAMATION

- (1) The rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the common shares are as follows:

Payment of Dividends: The holders of the common shares shall be entitled to receive dividends if, as and when declared by the board of directors of the Corporation out of the assets of the Corporation properly applicable to the payment of dividends in such amounts and payable in such manner as the board of directors may from time to time determine. Subject to the rights of the holders of any other class of shares of the Corporation entitled to receive dividends in priority to or rateably with the holders of the common shares, the board of directors may in their sole discretion declare dividends on the common shares to the exclusion of any other class of shares of the Corporation.

- (b) Participation upon Liquidation, Dissolution or Winding-up: In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation or other distribution of assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding-up its affairs, the holders of the common shares shall, subject to the rights of the holders of any other class of shares of the Corporation entitled to receive the assets of the Corporation upon such a distribution in priority to or rateably with the holders of the common shares, be entitled to participate rateably in any distribution of the assets of the Corporation.

Voting Rights: The holders of the common shares shall be entitled to receive notice of and to attend all annual and special meetings of the shareholders of the Corporation and to 1 vote in respect of each common share held at all such meetings.

- (2) The rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Class A shares are as follows:

- (a) Payment of Dividends: The holders of the Class A shares shall be entitled to receive dividends if, as and when declared by the board of directors of the Corporation out of the assets of the Corporation properly applicable to the payment of dividends in such amounts and payable in such manner as the board of directors may from time to time determine. However, the holders of the Class A shares shall not be entitled in any financial year of the Corporation to receive dividends in excess of, and the board of directors shall not declare any dividends on the Class A shares in excess of, an amount per share equal to 6% of the Redemption Price (as hereinafter defined) per share. Subject to the rights of the holders of any other class of shares of the Corporation entitled to receive dividends in priority to or concurrently with the holders of the Class A shares, the board of directors may in its sole discretion declare dividends on the Class A shares to the exclusion of any other class of shares.

- (b) Participation upon Liquidation, Dissolution or Winding Up: In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation or other distribution of assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs, the holders of the Class A shares shall be entitled to receive from the assets of the Corporation a sum equivalent to the aggregate Redemption Amount (as hereinafter defined) of all Class A shares held by them respectively before any amount shall be paid or any assets of the Corporation distributed to the holders of any common shares or shares of any other class ranking junior to the Class A shares. After payment to the holders of the Class A shares of the amount so payable to them as above provided they shall not be entitled to share in any further distribution of assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs.
- (c) Redemption at Option of Holder: A holder of Class A shares shall be entitled to require the Corporation to redeem, subject to the requirements of the Canada Business Corporations Act as now enacted or as the same may from time to time be amended, re-enacted or replaced, at any time or times all or any of the Class A shares held by such holder by tendering to the Corporation at its registered office a share certificate or certificates representing the Class A shares which the holder desires to have the Corporation redeem together with a request in writing specifying (i) that the holder desires to have the Class A shares represented by such certificate or certificates redeemed by the Corporation and, if part only of the shares represented by such certificate or certificates is to be redeemed, the number thereof so to be redeemed and (ii) the business day (herein referred to as the "Redemption Date") on which the holder desires to have the Corporation redeem such Class A shares. The Redemption Date shall be not less than 30 days (or such shorter period to which the Corporation may consent) after the day on which the request in writing is given to the Corporation. Upon receipt of a share certificate or certificates representing the Class A shares which the holder desires to have the Corporation redeem together with such a request the Corporation shall on the Redemption Date redeem such Class A shares by paying to such holder the Redemption Amount (as hereinafter defined) for each such Class A share being redeemed. Such payment shall be made by cheque payable at par at any branch of the Corporation's bankers for the time being in Canada (or, with the consent of the holder, by the issuance to the holder of a promissory note of the Corporation payable upon demand without interest). If a part only of the shares represented by any certificate are redeemed a new certificate for the balance shall be issued at the expense of the Corporation. The said Class A shares shall be redeemed on the Redemption Date and from and after the Redemption Date the holder of such shares shall cease to be entitled to dividends and shall not be entitled to exercise any of the rights of a holder of Class A shares in respect thereof unless payment of the Redemption Amount is not made on the Redemption Date, in which event the rights of the holder of the said Class A shares shall remain unaffected.
- (d) Redemption by Corporation: The Corporation may, upon giving notice as hereinafter provided, redeem at any time the whole or from time to time any part of the then outstanding Class A shares from any one or more of the holders thereof as the board of directors of the Corporation may in its sole discretion determine on payment of an amount for each share to be redeemed equal to the quotient of the fair market value of such consideration, including any transfer of assets to the Corporation, as is received by the Corporation for the issuance of the Class A shares divided by 4,000, such quotient being herein referred to as the "Redemption Price", plus all declared and unpaid dividends thereon, the whole constituting and being herein referred to as the "Redemption Amount". Such fair market value shall be determined by the board of directors of the Corporation by resolution in accordance with generally accepted valuation principles.

- (e) Idem: In the case of redemption of Class A shares under the provisions of clause (d) hereof, the Corporation shall at least 21 days (or, if all of the holders of the Class A shares to be redeemed consent, such shorter period to which they may consent) before the date specified for redemption mail (or, with the consent of any particular holder, otherwise deliver) a notice in writing of the intention of the Corporation to redeem such Class A shares to each person who at the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to receive notice is a holder of Class A shares to be redeemed. Such notice shall (subject to the consent of any particular holder referred to above) be mailed by letter, postage prepaid, addressed to each such holder at the holder's address as it appears on the records of the Corporation or in the event of the address of any such holder not so appearing then to the last known address of such holder; provided, however, that accidental failure to give any such notice to one or more of such holders shall not affect the validity of such redemption. Such notice shall set out the Redemption Amount and the date on which redemption is to take place and if part only of the shares held by the person to whom it is addressed is to be redeemed the number thereof so to be redeemed. On or after the date so specified for redemption, the Corporation shall pay or cause to be paid to or to the order of the holders of the Class A shares to be redeemed the Redemption Amount thereof on presentation and surrender at the registered office of the Corporation or any other place designated in such notice of the certificates representing the Class A shares called for redemption. Such payment shall be made by cheque payable at par at any branch of the Corporation's bankers in Canada (or, with the consent of any particular holder, by the issuance to such holder of a promissory note of the Corporation payable upon demand without interest). If a part only of the shares represented by any certificate are redeemed a new certificate for the balance shall be issued at the expense of the Corporation. From and after the date specified for redemption in any such notice the holders of the Class A shares called for redemption shall cease to be entitled to dividends and shall not be entitled to exercise any of the rights of holders of Class A shares in respect thereof unless payment of the Redemption Amount is not made upon presentation of certificates in accordance with the foregoing provisions, in which case the rights of the holders of the said Class A shares shall remain unaffected. The Corporation shall have the right at any time after the mailing (or delivery, as the case may be) of notice of its intention to redeem any Class A shares to deposit the Redemption Amount of the shares so called for redemption or of such of the said shares represented by certificates as have not at the date of such deposit been surrendered by the holders thereof in connection with such redemption to a special account in any chartered bank or in any trust company in Canada, named in such notice, to be paid without interest to or to the order of the respective holders of such Class A shares called for redemption upon presentation and surrender to such bank or trust company of the certificates representing the same, and upon such deposit being made or upon the date specified for redemption in such notice, whichever is the later, the Class A shares in respect whereof such deposit shall have been made shall be redeemed and the rights of the holders thereof after such deposit or such redemption date, as the case may be, shall be limited to receiving, subject as hereinafter provided, without interest their proportionate part of the total Redemption Amount so deposited against presentation and surrender of the said certificates held by them respectively and any interest allowed on such deposit shall belong to the Corporation.

- (f) Idem: If any taxing authority having jurisdiction makes or proposes to make an assessment or reassessment of tax on the basis that:
- (i) the fair market value of the consideration received by the Corporation for the issuance of the Class A shares differs from the aggregate fair market value of all such Class A shares as at the date of such issuance, or
 - (ii) any gift, benefit or advantage is or has been conferred on any person by reason of the issuance of or of the redemption or purchase for cancellation or otherwise of any Class A share, then the Redemption Price per Class A share shall be increased or decreased, as the case may be, to an amount such that the aggregate Redemption Price for all Class A shares equals the fair market value of the consideration that was received that:

is agreed upon by such taxing authority and either the Corporation or all the holders of Class A shares in settlement of such assessment or reassessment or proposed assessment or reassessment, serves as the basis for such assessment or reassessment against which no appeal is taken, or

- (v) is finally established by a court or tribunal of competent jurisdiction on appeal from such assessment or reassessment.

Such increase or decrease shall forthwith following the applicable event or circumstance be confirmed by the board of directors of the Corporation by resolution, and thereafter the Redemption Price per Class A share shall be deemed to be and always to have been the amount so confirmed.

- (g) Idem: If on or before July 1, 1999 the board of directors of the Corporation determines, based on information, including, without limitation, financial accounting information, not available to it at the date of the issuance of the Class

A shares that the fair market value of the consideration received by the Corporation for the issuance of the Class A shares differs from the aggregate fair market value for all such Class A shares as at the date of such issuance, then the Redemption Price per Class A share shall be increased or decreased, as the case may be, to an amount such that the aggregate Redemption Price for all Class A shares equals the fair market value of the consideration that was received, that is at that time determined by the board of directors of the Corporation by resolution, and thereafter the Redemption Price per Class A share shall be deemed to be and always to have been the amount so determined.

- (h) Idem: In the event that the Redemption Price per Class A share is increased pursuant to clause (f) or (g) hereof following a redemption or purchase for cancellation or otherwise of a Class A share, the Corporation shall pay to each holder of Class A shares whose shares were redeemed or purchased for cancellation or otherwise, by way of an increase in the Redemption Price of such Class A shares, an amount equal to the product of the increase per Class A share determined pursuant to clause (t) or (g) hereof multiplied by the number of shares of such holder so redeemed or purchased for cancellation or otherwise and an amount equal to 6% per annum of such increase, compounded annually, computed from the date of the redemption or purchase for cancellation or otherwise up to and including the date of such payment by the Corporation.
 - (i) Idem: In the event that the Redemption Price per Class A share is decreased pursuant to clause (t) or (g) hereof following a redemption or purchase for cancellation or otherwise of a Class A share, each person whose Class A share was redeemed or purchased for cancellation or otherwise shall be liable to pay to the Corporation, by way of a decrease in the Redemption Price of such Class A shares, an amount equal to the product of the decrease per Class A share determined pursuant to clause (t) or (g) hereof multiplied by the number of shares of such holder so redeemed or purchased for cancellation or otherwise and an amount equal to 6% per annum of such decrease, compounded annually, computed from the date of the redemption or purchase for cancellation or otherwise up to and including the date of such payment by each such person.
 - (j) Voting Rights: The holders of the Class A shares shall not be entitled to receive notice of or to attend any meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation and shall not be entitled to vote at any such meeting. The holders of the Class A shares shall, however, be entitled to notice of meetings of the shareholders called for the purpose of authorizing the dissolution of the Corporation or the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all the property of the Corporation other than in the ordinary course of business of the Corporation.
- (3) The rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Class B shares are as follows:
- (a) Payment of Dividends: The holders of the Class B shares shall be entitled to receive dividends if, as and when declared by the board of directors of the Corporation out of the assets of the Corporation properly applicable to the payment of dividends in such amounts and payable in such manner as the board of directors may from time to time determine. However, the holders of the Class B shares shall not be entitled in any financial year of the Corporation to receive dividends in excess of, and the board of directors shall not declare any dividends on the Class B shares in excess of, an amount per share equal to 6% of the Redemption Price (as hereinafter defined) per share. Subject to the rights of the holders of any other class of shares of the Corporation entitled to receive dividends in priority to or concurrently with the holders of the Class B shares, the board of directors may in its sole discretion declare dividends on the Class B shares to the exclusion of any other class of shares.

- (b) Participation upon Liquidation, Dissolution or Winding Up: In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation or other distribution of assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs, the holders of the Class B shares shall be entitled to receive from the assets of the Corporation a sum equivalent to the aggregate Redemption Amount (as hereinafter defined) of all Class B shares held by them respectively before any amount shall be paid or any assets of the Corporation distributed to the holders of any common shares or shares of any other class ranking junior to the Class B shares. After payment to the holders of the Class B shares of the amount so payable to them as above provided they shall not be entitled to share in any further distribution of assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs.
- (c) Redemption at Option of Holder: A holder of Class B shares shall be entitled to require the Corporation to redeem, subject to the requirements of the Canada Business Corporations Act as now enacted or as the same may from time to time be amended, re-enacted or replaced, at any time or times all or any of the Class B shares held by such holder by tendering to the Corporation at its registered office a share certificate or certificates representing the Class B shares which the holder desires to have the Corporation redeem together with a request in writing specifying (i) that the holder desires to have the Class B shares represented by such certificate or certificates redeemed by the Corporation and, if part only of the shares represented by such certificate or certificates is to be redeemed, the number thereof so to be redeemed and (ii) the business day (herein referred to as the "Redemption Date") on which the holder desires to have the Corporation redeem such Class B shares. The Redemption Date shall be not less than 30 days (or such shorter period to which the Corporation may consent) after the day on which the request in writing is given to the Corporation. Upon receipt of a share certificate or certificates representing the Class B shares which the holder desires to have the Corporation redeem together with such a request the Corporation shall on the Redemption Date redeem such Class B shares by paying to such holder the Redemption Amount (as hereinafter defined) for each such Class B share being redeemed. Such payment shall be made by cheque payable at par at any branch of the Corporation's bankers for the time being in Canada (or, with the consent of the holder, by the issuance to the holder of a promissory note of the Corporation payable upon demand without interest). If a part only of the shares represented by any certificate are redeemed a new certificate for the balance shall be issued at the expense of the Corporation. The said Class B shares shall be redeemed on the Redemption Date and from and after the Redemption Date the holder of such shares shall cease to be entitled to dividends and shall not be entitled to exercise any of the rights of a holder of Class B shares in respect thereof unless payment of the Redemption Amount is not made on the Redemption Date, in which event the rights of the holder of the said Class B shares shall remain unaffected.

- (d) Redemption by Corporation: The Corporation may, upon giving notice as hereinafter provided, redeem at any time the whole or from time to time any part of the then outstanding Class B shares from any one or more of the holders thereof as the board of directors of the Corporation may in its sole discretion determine on payment of an amount for each share to be redeemed equal to the quotient of the fair market value of such consideration, including any transfer of assets to the Corporation, as is received by the Corporation for the issuance of the Class B shares divided by 1,000, such quotient being herein referred to as the "Redemption Price", plus all declared and unpaid dividends thereon, the whole constituting and being herein referred to as the "Redemption Amount". Such fair market value shall be determined by the board of directors of the Corporation by resolution in accordance with generally accepted valuation principles.
- (e) Idem: In the case of redemption of Class B shares under the provisions of clause (d) hereof, the Corporation shall at least 21 days (or, if all of the holders of the Class B shares to be redeemed consent, such shorter period to which they may consent) before the date specified for redemption mail (or, with the consent of any particular holder, otherwise deliver) a notice in writing of the intention of the Corporation to redeem such Class B shares to each person who at the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to receive notice is a holder of Class B shares to be redeemed. Such notice shall (subject to the consent of any particular holder referred to above) be mailed by letter, postage prepaid, addressed to each such holder at the holder's address as it appears on the records of the Corporation or in the event of the address of any such holder not so appearing then to the last known address of such holder; provided, however, that accidental failure to give any such notice to one or more of such holders shall not affect the validity of such redemption. Such notice shall set out the Redemption Amount and the date on which redemption is to take place and if part only of the shares held by the person to whom it is addressed is to be redeemed the number thereof so to be redeemed. On or after the date so specified for redemption, the Corporation shall pay or cause to be paid to or to the order of the holders of the Class B shares to be redeemed the Redemption Amount thereof on presentation and surrender at the registered office of the Corporation or any other place designated in such notice of the certificates representing the Class B shares called for redemption. Such payment shall be made by cheque payable at par at any branch of the Corporation's bankers in Canada (or, with the consent of any particular holder, by the issuance to such holder of a promissory note of the Corporation payable upon demand without interest). If a part only of the shares represented by any certificate are redeemed a new certificate for the balance shall be issued at the expense of the Corporation. From and after the date specified for redemption in any such notice the holders of the Class B shares called for redemption shall cease to be entitled to dividends and shall not be entitled to exercise any of the rights of holders of Class B shares in respect thereof unless payment of the Redemption Amount is not made upon presentation of certificates in accordance with the foregoing provisions, in which case the rights of the holders of the said Class B shares shall remain unaffected. The Corporation shall have the right at any time after the mailing (or delivery, as the case may be) of notice of its intention to redeem any Class B shares to deposit the Redemption Amount of the shares so called for redemption or of such of the said shares represented by certificates as have not at the date of such deposit been surrendered by the holders thereof in connection with such redemption to a special account in any chartered bank or in any trust company in Canada, named in such notice, to be paid without interest to or to the order of the respective holders of such Class B shares called for redemption upon presentation and surrender to such bank or trust company of the certificates representing the same, and upon such deposit being made or upon the date specified for redemption in such notice, whichever is the later, the Class B shares in respect whereof such deposit shall have been made shall be redeemed and the rights of the holders thereof after such deposit or such redemption date, as the case may be, shall be limited to receiving, subject as hereinafter provided, without interest their proportionate part of the total Redemption Amount so deposited against presentation and surrender of the said certificates held by them respectively and any interest allowed on such deposit shall belong to the Corporation.

- (f) Idem: If any taxing authority having jurisdiction makes or proposes to make an assessment or reassessment of tax on the basis that:
- (i) the fair market value of the consideration received by the Corporation for the issuance of the Class B shares differs from the aggregate fair market value of all such Class B shares as at the date of such issuance, or
 - (ii) any gift, benefit or advantage is or has been conferred on any person by reason of the issuance of or of the redemption or purchase for cancellation or otherwise of any Class B share, then the Redemption Price per Class B share shall be increased or decreased, as the case may be, to an amount such that the aggregate Redemption Price for all Class B shares equals the fair market value of the consideration that was received that:

is agreed upon by such taxing authority and either the Corporation or all the holders of Class B shares in settlement of such assessment or reassessment or proposed assessment or reassessment, serves as the basis for such assessment or reassessment against which no appeal is taken, or

- (v) is finally established by a court or tribunal of competent jurisdiction on appeal from such assessment or reassessment.

Such increase or decrease shall forthwith following the applicable event or circumstance be confirmed by the board of directors of the Corporation by resolution, and thereafter the Redemption Price per Class B share shall be deemed to be and always to have been the amount so confirmed.

- (g) Idem: If on or before July 1, 1999 the board of directors of the Corporation determines, based on information, including, without limitation, financial accounting information, not available to it at the date of the issuance of the Class B shares that the fair market value of the consideration received by the Corporation for the issuance of the Class B shares differs from the aggregate fair market value for all such Class B shares as at the date of such issuance, then the Redemption Price per Class B share shall be increased or decreased, as the case may be, to an amount such that the aggregate Redemption Price for all Class B shares equals the fair market value of the consideration that was received, that is at that time determined by the board of directors of the Corporation by resolution, and thereafter the Redemption Price per Class B share shall be deemed to be and always to have been the amount so determined.
- (h) Idem: In the event that the Redemption Price per Class B share is increased pursuant to clause (t) or (g) hereof following a redemption or purchase for cancellation or otherwise of a Class B share, the Corporation shall pay to each holder of Class B shares whose shares were redeemed or purchased for cancellation or otherwise, by way of an increase in the Redemption Price of such Class B shares, an amount equal to the product of the increase per Class B share determined pursuant to clause (1) or (g) hereof multiplied by the number of shares of such holder so redeemed or purchased for cancellation or otherwise and an amount equal to 6% per annum of such increase, compounded annually, computed from the date of the redemption or purchase for cancellation or otherwise up to and including the date of such payment by the Corporation.
- (i) Idem: In the event that the Redemption Price per Class B share is decreased pursuant to clause (t) or (g) hereof following a redemption or purchase for cancellation or otherwise of a Class B share, each person whose Class B share was redeemed or purchased for cancellation or otherwise shall be liable to pay to the Corporation, by way of a decrease in the Redemption Price of such Class B shares, an amount equal to the product of the decrease per Class B share determined pursuant to clause (0 or (g) hereof multiplied by the number of shares of such holder so redeemed or purchased for cancellation or otherwise and an amount equal to 6% per annum of such decrease, compounded annually, computed from the date of the redemption or purchase for cancellation or otherwise up to and including the date of such payment by each such person.
- (j) Voting Rights: The holders of the Class B shares shall not be entitled to receive notice of or to attend any meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation and shall not be entitled to vote at any such meeting. The holders of the Class B shares shall, however, be entitled to notice of meetings of the shareholders called for the purpose of authorizing the dissolution of the Corporation or the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all the property of the Corporation other than in the ordinary course of business of the Corporation.

(4) The rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Class C shares are as follows:

- (a) Payment of Dividends: The holders of the Class C shares shall be entitled to receive dividends if, as and when declared by the board of directors of the Corporation out of the assets of the Corporation properly applicable to the payment of dividends in such amounts and payable in such manner as the board of directors may from time to time determine. However, the holders of the Class C shall not be entitled in any financial year of the Corporation to receive dividends in excess of, and the board of directors shall not declare any dividends on the Class C shares in excess of, an amount per share equal to 5% of the Redemption Price (as defined herein) per share. Subject to the rights of holders of any other class of shares of the Corporation entitled to receive dividends in priority to or concurrently with the holders of the Class C shares, the board of directors may at its sole discretion declare dividends on the Class C shares to the exclusion of any other class of shares.
- (b) Participation upon Liquidation, Dissolution or Winding Up: In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation or other distribution of assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs, subject to the holders of the Class A and Class B shares of the Corporation having received from the assets of the Corporation the full redemption amount of all such Class A and Class B shares, the holders of the Class C shares shall be entitled to receive from the assets of the Corporation a sum equivalent to the aggregate Redemption Amount (as hereinafter defined) of all Class C shares held by them. After payment to the holders of the Class C shares of the amount so payable to them as above provided they shall not be entitled to share in any further distribution of assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs.

Upon receipt of a share certificate or certificates representing the Class C shares which the holder desires to have the Corporation redeem together with such a request the Corporation shall on the Redemption Date redeem such Class C shares by paying to such holder the Redemption Amount (as hereinafter defined) for each such Class C share being redeemed. Such payment shall be made by cheque payable at par at any branch of the Corporation's bankers for the time being in Canada or, if all of the holders of the Class C shares consent, by the distribution of assets of the Corporation or by any other means. - (e) Idem: In the case of redemption of Class C shares under the provisions of clause (1)(d) hereof, the Corporation shall at least 21 days (or, if all of the holders of the Class C shares to be redeemed consent, such shorter period to which they may consent) before the date specified for redemption mail (or, with the consent of any particular holder, otherwise deliver) a notice in writing of the intention of the Corporation to redeem such Class C shares to each person who at the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to receive notice is a holder of Class C shares to be redeemed. Such notice shall set out the Redemption Amount and the date on which redemption is to take place and if part only of the shares held by the person to whom it is addressed is to be redeemed the number thereof so to be redeemed. On or after the date so specified for redemption, the Corporation shall pay or cause to be paid to or to the order of the holders of the
