INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY ASSIGNMENT

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY ASSIGNMENT AND LICENSE

THIS INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY ASSIGNMENT AND LICENSE (this "Assignment") dated as of the 1st day of November 2002, is entered into by and between Curtiss-Wright Flow Control Corporation, a New York corporation, Curtiss-Wright Flow Control (U.K.), Ltd., a corporation organized under the laws of England (collectively, the "Buyers" or "Assignees"), Tapco International, Inc., a Delaware corporation and Triten International Ltd., a corporation organized under the laws of England ("Sellers"), and Triten Corporation, a Texas corporation and the sole shareholder of each of the Sellers ("Triten"). Triten and Sellers shall be collectively referred to herein as "Assignors."

RECITALS

WHEREAS the Assignors named herein are the owners of the Intellectual Property Assets described herein;

WHEREAS, the Buyers and Sellers entered into the Asset Purchase Agreement dated of even date herewith ("APA") transferring to Buyers certain business assets owned by the Sellers as is further set forth in the APA; and

WHEREAS the Assignees are desirous of acquiring all right, title and interest in and to said Intellectual Property Assets as the successors to the Business of Sellers,

NOW THEREFORE the Parties execute this Assignment effective upon the Effective Date provided herein:

1. Effective Date

The "Effective Date" of this Assignment, by specific agreement of the Parties, and notwithstanding the latest date of execution shown herein, is December 1, 2002.

2. Definitions

All capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings assigned to such terms in the APA.

"Confidential Information" means the business, technical or other information, whether or not said information has been or is the subject of applications for or registrations of patent rights, trade secret rights, copyright rights, trademark rights or other intellectual property rights, including Trade Secrets, and improvements thereto, and further including any information relating to this Assignment, or the discussions or negotiations relating thereto, or the Intellectual Property Assets, to the extent such information (i) derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by, other persons who can obtain economic value from their disclosure or use; and (ii) is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain secrecy.

“Copyrights” means the (a) original works of authorship fixed in a tangible medium of expression, whether or not said works are yet described in copyright applications or issued copyright registrations, including the right to apply for copyright registrations in the U.S. and foreign countries and/or to claim any priority rights for such applications pursuant to U.S. laws, international conventions, international treaties, foreign laws, or otherwise; (b) copyright applications filed in the Territory or filed pursuant to international treaties designating the Territory, including any divisions, continuations or continuations-in-part of said copyright applications; and (c) copyright registrations granted in the Territory, including any reissuances, renewals or extensions of said copyright registrations.

“Intellectual Property Assets” means the Patents, Copyrights, Trademarks (specifically including the trade name “Tapco” but excluding the globe design), and Trade Secrets related to the Business (as further set forth in the Asset Purchase Agreement) in the Territory, the Parties specifically agreeing that the term Intellectual Property Assets also includes, but is not limited to, the properties enumerated in the following exhibits:

- Exhibit A - patent applications and issued/registered patents (also known as Letters Patent);
- Exhibit B - trademark applications and registered trademarks; and
- Exhibit C - unregistered trademarks and trade/business names.

“Party” means either Assignors or Assignees as the context herein shall indicate.

“Parties” means both Assignors and Assignees.

“Patents” means the (a) inventions conceived or partially or wholly reduced to practice, whether or not said inventions are yet described in patent applications or issued patents, including the right to apply for Letters Patent in the U.S. and foreign countries and/or to claim any priority rights for such applications pursuant to U.S. laws, international conventions, international treaties, foreign laws, or otherwise; (b) patent applications filed in the Territory or filed pursuant to international treaties designating the Territory, including any divisions, continuations or continuations-in-part of said patent applications; (c) Letters Patent granted in the Territory, including any reissuances or extensions of said Letters Patent; and (d) all patent license agreements.

“Territory(ies)” refers to any and all countries, states and territories anywhere in the world.

“Trademarks” means the (a) trademarks, service marks, trade names, and other designations of origin or goodwill, whether or not said marks, names, or designations are yet described in applications or issued registrations, including the right to apply for registrations in the U.S. and foreign countries and/or to claim any priority rights for such applications pursuant to U.S. laws, international conventions, international treaties, foreign laws, or otherwise; (b) trademark, service mark or trade name applications in the Territory, or applications for registration of other designations of origin in the Territory, including any divisions, continuations or continuations-in-part of said applications; and (c) trademark, service mark or trade name registrations in the Territory, or registrations of other designations of origin in the Territory, including any reissuances or extensions of said registrations.

“Trade Secrets” means business, technical or other information, whether or not said information has been or is the subject of applications for or registrations of patent rights, trade secret rights, copyright rights, trademark rights or other intellectual property rights, including formulas, patterns, compilations, programs, device information, methods, techniques, processes, development agreements, license agreements in intellectual properties other than Patents, accounting/financial information, economic information, competitive/strategic information, and improvements thereto, that (i) derive independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by, other persons who can obtain economic value from their disclosure or use; and (ii) are the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain secrecy.

3. Assignment

For good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is acknowledged, Assignors have agreed to assign and transfer, and hereby do assign and transfer, as of the Effective Date, unto Assignees, their successors and assigns, the entire right, title and interest in and to the Intellectual Property Assets, including any right, title or interest which has been, is or may be granted upon any of the foregoing, to be held and enjoyed as fully and exclusively as it would have been by Assignors had this Assignment not been made.

4. Implied License and Limited License for Globe Design

Assignors grant to Assignees a non-exclusive, royalty-free worldwide license to use any of the Patents, Trade Secrets, Copyrights, Trademarks or other intellectual property rights of Assignors that may be embodied in, or necessary to the use of, the Intellectual Property Assets, provided, however, that this license is limited to the use of only those rights reasonably necessary to fully exploit the rights granted in this Assignment.

Assignors grant to Assignees a limited license for a period of one year use of the globe design, as such design is present in pre-printed brochures and electronic software being transferred to Assignees as part of the Purchased Assets of the Business. After the termination of this twelve (12) month period, Assignees shall not use the globe design in any way.

5. Supplies and Signage.

As soon as practicable after the Closing, Assignees shall cause the Business to discontinue use of any stationery, purchase order forms, packaging or other similar paper goods or supplies, or advertising and promotional materials, product, training and service literature and materials, or computer programs or like materials (collectively, the “Supplies”) or signs, that state or otherwise indicate thereon that the Business is a subsidiary or unit of Assignors, or contain any trademarks, service marks, trade names or corporate or business names, in whole or in part not specifically assigned herein; provided, however, that Assignees (a) may use any Supplies included in the Purchased Assets that are labeled with such trademarks, service marks, trade names or corporate or business names for a reasonable period after the Closing (which in no event shall be later than 180 days following the Closing Date), (b) shall have up to nine months following the Closing to replace any signs that bear such trademarks, service marks, trade names or corporate or business names and (c) Assignees shall be entitled to ship any Inventory that is labeled with such trademarks, service marks, trade names or corporate or business names for a reasonable period after the Closing (which in no event shall be later than 180 days following the Closing Date). Assignees shall not reorder or produce any Supplies which state or otherwise indicate thereon that the Business is a subsidiary or unit of Assignors or contain any such trademarks, service marks, trade names or corporate or business names.

6. Perfection

Assignors agree, for themselves, their directors, officers, employees, and subcontractors, and for their successors and assigns, to execute and deliver without further consideration any further applications, declarations, affidavits, assignments and other documents, and to perform such other acts as they lawfully may, that may be deemed necessary, desirable or convenient by Assignees, their successors or assigns, to fully secure their interest in or to the Intellectual Property Assets or to obtain or maintain the Intellectual Property Assets in force in any and all countries, including doing all things necessary to obtain the approval of third parties necessary to effectuate the assignment of any license agreements (including patent license agreements) and development agreements, provided, however, that the Parties agree that the reasonable expenses of Assignors, if any, incurred in fulfilling this duty will be borne by Assignees.

7. Recordation

Assignors hereby authorize all U.S. and foreign governmental offices in which documents evidencing rights in the Intellectual Property Assets may reside to record this Assignment, any copy of this Assignment, and/or any information relating thereto, upon the request of the Assignees, so as to evidence this transfer of rights from Assignors to Assignees.

Assignors hereby authorize Assignees to make application for, and to receive registration for, intellectual property rights in the Intellectual Property Assets, including rights under U.S. and foreign laws relating to Patents, Copyrights, Trademarks, and Trade Secrets in their own names, or in Assignors' or another's name for the benefit of Assignees, at their election.

Assignors hereby authorize and request all U.S. and foreign governmental offices which may issue Letters Patent, trademark registrations, copyright registrations, or registrations of rights in trade secrets in the Intellectual Property Assets, wherever possible, to grant said Letters Patent and registrations directly to Assignees as the assignees of the entire right, title and interest therein.

8. Representations

Assignors represent and warrant that they have the full authority to enter into this Assignment and that the rights granted in the Intellectual Property Assets are free and clear of any encumbrances.

Assignors represent and warrant that they will have no remaining Intellectual Property Assets relating to the Business after the Closing Date.

9. Confidentiality

Any Confidential Information received by a party shall be retained in confidence and shall be used, disclosed, and copied solely for purposes of this Assignment.

The receiving party shall use the same degree of care to protect the Confidential Information it has received as it uses to protect its own confidential information, but no less than reasonable care, to prevent the unauthorized use, disclosure, or publication of the Confidential Information.

No party shall be bound by obligations restricting disclosure and use with respect to Confidential Information which (a) was known by the receiving party prior to disclosure; (b) was or becomes lawfully in the public domain prior to disclosure; (c) was disclosed to the receiving party by a third party provided such third party, or any other party from whom such third party receives such information, is not in breach of any confidentiality obligation; (d) is independently developed by the receiving party; or (e) is disclosed when such disclosure is compelled pursuant to legal proceedings, subject to the receiving party using reasonable efforts to provide prior notice to the disclosing party to allow it to seek protective or other court orders.

10. Miscellaneous

No party shall use the name of the other party in any advertising, public relations, or media release without the prior written consent of the other party.

Assignors shall have the right to delegate any duty or assign any right hereunder upon the prior written consent of Assignees; Assignees shall have the right to delegate any duty or assign any right granted hereunder upon the prior written consent of Assignors.

Except for the rights expressly granted pursuant to this Assignment, Assignors retain all of their Patent, Trade Secret, Copyright, Trademark and other intellectual property rights. Assignees shall enjoy the free and unrestrained right to use, enjoy and dispose of the Intellectual Property Assets without the consent of the Assignors and no part of this Assignment shall be construed so as to obligate Assignees to maintain the rights in the Intellectual Property Assets in force or to enforce such rights against third parties.

This Assignment constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all other agreements between the parties concerning the subject matter herein except as provided in the APA.

This Assignment shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas and the federal laws of the United States of America (U.S.A.). The exclusive venue for any disputes arising under or in respect of this Assignment shall be Houston, Texas, U.S.A.

11. Authority

Assignors represent that the representative executing this Assignment, as evidenced in the Execution section herein, has the express authority to execute this Assignment.

Assignees represent that the representative executing this Assignment, as evidenced in the Execution section herein, has the express authority to execute this Assignment.

12. Counterparts.

This Assignment may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same document.
