LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY AGREEMENT
OF
NATIONAL-STANDARD, LLC

This Limited Liability Company Agreement of National-Standard, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Company"), is adopted as of the 31st day of March, 2005, by its sole member Heico Holding, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Member" and "Manager").

1. Formation of Company. The Member is the sole member of the Company which was formed pursuant to the provisions of the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act (the "Act"), and the rights and liabilities of the Member shall be as provided in the Act, except as herein otherwise provided. No Member or Manager of the Company shall be obligated personally for any debts, obligations or liabilities of the Company solely by reason of being a Member or acting as a Manager of the Company.

2. Name. The Company shall be conducted under the name of National-Standard, LLC, or such other name as the Manager may from time to time select.

3. Principal Place of Business. The principal place of business of the Company shall be at such place or places as from time to time may be determined by the Manager.

4. Registered Agent and Office. The registered address of the Company in Delaware shall be Corporation Trust Center, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, Delaware 19801. The registered agent at that address is The Corporation Trust Company.

5. Term of the Company. The Company shall commence on the date hereof and shall continue until termination pursuant to Section 11 hereof.

6. Purposes of the Company. The purposes of the Company are to conduct any lawful act or activity for which limited liability companies may be organized under the Act.

7. Capital Contributions and Ownership Interests.

7.1 Ownership Interest. The Member owns a one hundred percent (100%) ownership interest in the Company. Ownership interests may be represented by certificates in form determined by the Member. The ownership interests constitute securities subject to Article VIII of the Uniform Commercial Code as in effect in the applicable jurisdictions.

7.2 Capital Accounts. The Company shall maintain a capital account for the Member which shall be increased by the fair market value of properties contributed by the Member and the Member's share of Company profits, and shall be decreased by the fair market value of distributions to the Member and the Member's share of Company losses.

8. Distributions and Allocations.

8.1 Distributions. Distributions shall be made in the amounts and at the times determined by the Manager.

8.2 Allocations. Company profits and losses, and Company taxable income and loss, shall be allocated to the Member.

9. Books of Account, Accounting and Reports, Fiscal Year, Tax Returns, and Tax Election.

9.1 Books of Account. The Company shall maintain or cause to be maintained at all times true and proper books, records, reports and accounts in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied, in which shall be entered fully and accurately all transactions of the Company and the Member shall have access thereto at all reasonable times. The Company shall keep vouchers, statements, receipted bills and invoices and all other records in connection with the Company's business.

9.2 Accounting and Reports. As soon as reasonably practicable after the end of the Company's fiscal year, in sufficient time to permit the timely filing of income tax returns, the Company shall cause to be prepared and furnished to the Member financial statements for the Company for the year then ending and such other information as may be required by the Internal Revenue Code, and any applicable state or local income tax laws. The financial statements of the Company need not be audited.

9.3 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Company shall end on the 31st day of December in each year.

9.4 Banking. All funds of the Company received from any and all sources shall be deposited in such separate checking and/or savings account or accounts as shall be determined by the Manager.

9.5 Tax Returns. The Manager shall be the Tax Matters Partner and shall provide for the preparation and filing of all necessary tax returns or other filings required under any governmental authority.

10. Management and Duties.

10.1 Management. Except as provided herein, the full, exclusive and complete discretion in the management and control of the business and affairs of the Company for the purpose herein stated shall be vested in a Manager. The Manager shall be considered a "manager" as that term is used in the Act. The Manager shall have full authority to bind the Company by execution of documents, instruments, agreements, contracts or otherwise to any obligation not inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement. The Manager may be removed and replaced at any time in the sole discretion of the Member.

10.2 Officers. The Manager may delegate its management responsibility to one or more officers, including a President, one or more Vice Presidents, Treasurer and Secretary, and such other officers as it deems necessary, each of whom shall serve such term as determined by the Manager. Each such officer shall have the duties assigned him by the Manager in its sole discretion. The initial officers of the Company shall be as set forth on Exhibit A attached hereto.

11. Dissolution of the Company.

11.1 Events Resulting in Dissolution. The decision of the sole Member to dissolve shall result in an immediate dissolution of the Company.

11.2 Liquidation. In the event of the dissolution of the Company for any reason, the Manager shall commence to wind up the affairs of the Company and to liquidate its assets. The Member shall continue to be allocated profits and losses during the period of liquidation. Any property distributed in kind in liquidation shall be valued and treated as though the property were sold and the cash proceeds were distributed.

11.3 Distribution of Liquidation Proceeds. Upon liquidation, the assets of the Company shall be used and distributed in the following order: (a) to pay or provide for the payment of all debts and liabilities of the Company to creditors other than the Member and all expenses of liquidation; (b) to pay or provide for the payment pro rata of all debts and liabilities of the Company to the Member; and (c) to be distributed to the Member.

11.4 Liquidation Accounting. Within a reasonable time after the date the assets have been distributed in liquidation, the Manager shall cause to be prepared a statement which shall set forth the assets and the liabilities of the Company as of the date of complete liquidation and the Member's distributions made pursuant to Paragraph 11.3 hereof.

11.5 Termination. Upon the completion of liquidation of the Company and the distribution of all Company assets, the Company shall terminate.

12. Indemnification and Insurance.

12.1 Each person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he, or a person of whom he is the legal representative, is or was a Member, Manager or officer of the Company or is or was a Member, Manager or officer of the Company who is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager, director, officer, employee or agent of another limited liability company, or of a Corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, may be indemnified and held harmless by the Company to the fullest extent authorized by the laws of Delaware as the same now or may hereafter exist (but, in the case of any change, only to the extent that such change authorizes the Company to provide broader indemnification rights than said law permitted the Company to provide prior to such change) against all costs, charges, expenses, liabilities and losses (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection therewith and such eligibility for indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a Member, Manager or officer and shall inure to the benefit of his heirs, executors and administrators. The provisions relating to indemnification in Paragraph 12 hereof may include the right to be paid by the Company the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition upon receipt by the Company of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such Member, Manager or officer, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined that the Member, Manager or officer is not entitled to be indemnified under Paragraph 12 hereof or otherwise. The Company may, by action of its Manager, provide indemnification to employees and agents of the Company with the same scope and effect as the foregoing indemnification of the Member, Manager and officers.

12.2 A person shall only be entitled to indemnification if the person acted in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

12.3 The provisions relating to indemnification and the payment of expenses incurred in defending a proceeding in advance of its final disposition conferred in Paragraph 12 hereof shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the Certificate of Formation, other agreement, decision of the Manager, vote of Member or otherwise.

12.4 The Company may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and the Member, Manager and officers of the Company against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under Delaware law.

12.5 To the extent that the Member or Manager or officer of the Company is by reason of such position, or a position with another entity at the request of the Company, a witness in any proceeding, he may be indemnified against all costs and expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him or on his behalf in connection therewith.

12.6 Any amendment, repeal or modification of any provision of this Paragraph by the Member or Manager shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a Member, Manager or officer of the Company existing at the time of such amendment, repeal or modification.

13. Amendments. This Agreement may be amended at any time and from time to time only in writing and with the approval of the Member.
