Ladies and Gentlemen:

Reference is made to that certain Congress Financial Loan and Security Agreement, dated October 29, 1999, (the "Agreement"; together with all related agreements, documents and instruments, collectively, the "Agreements"), by and among Franklin Mint Company ("FMC"), Wachovia Bank, as successor by merger to Congress Financial Corporation (the "Lender"), and the other parties thereto, pursuant to which the Lender made loans and advances and provided other financial accommodations to FMC. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings assigned thereto in the Agreement.

This letter confirms that all amounts owed by FMC pursuant to the Agreements have previously been paid in full and all right, title and interest previously granted to the Lender pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Agreements in, to and under any and all of the properties and assets of FMC (including, without limitation, the patents set forth on the attached Exhibit A), have been terminated and released.

The Lender hereby authorizes FMC and its authorized representatives to file with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (the "PTO") any and all appropriate documentation in order to discharge any and all instruments previously recorded by the Lender against FMC at the PTO.
