REGARDING:
Section 8
Filing

SECTION 8 OF THE UNITED STATES TRADEMARKS ACT:

An affidavit or declaration of use is required during the sixth year after the date of registration.

Trademarks registered at the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) are subject to ongoing maintenance and renewal filings in order to remain registered. The reason for the requirements is that in return for the benefits of exclusivity granted by trademark registration, a registrant must use the mark in commerce or provide a legitimate reason for not doing so. The USPTO does not provide any reminder of the section 8 requirement beyond the information of the original Certificate of Registration and will CANCEL a trademark registration for non-compliance. Further, whether or not an owner receives any notice of cancellation, the marks that are not maintained or renewed will be shown as "DEAD" in any trademark search.

Trademark owners must be aware of the requirement to file a Section 8 Affidavit, Declaration of Use or Excusable Non-Use within the 6th year after the date of registration or within a grace period of 6 months after the end of that 6th year. The USTMS helps reduce the risk of loss of a trademark resulting from not making a timely maintenance or renewal filing with the USPTO. The USTMS monitors the approach of the operative dates, using our software, and notifies the listed registrant in sufficient time to act. If the grace period is missed, the trademark will be cancelled with no recourse to the owner other than the making of a new trademark application. USTMS is a private corporation that assists trademark owners in adhering to trademark compliance deadlines.

Your trademark will be cancelled by the USPTO if the Section 8 Affidavit or Declaration of Use is not filed within their deadlines.
