RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF ADVICE COMPANY

FIRST: The name of the corporation is ADVICE COMPANY (the "Corporation").

SECOND: The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which a corporation may be organized under the General Corporation Law of California other than the banking business, the trust company business or the practice of a profession permitted to be incorporated by the California Corporations Code.

THIRD: The Corporation shall be authorized to issue a total of Seven Million (7,000,000) shares of which Five Million (5,000,000) shall be Common Shares and Two Million (2,000,000) shall be Preferred Shares, which may be issued in one or more series. The Board of Directors of the Corporation is authorized to fix the number of shares of any series of Preferred Shares and to determine the designation of any rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions granted to or imposed on any wholly unissued series of Preferred Shares and within the limits and restrictions stated in any resolutions of the Board of Directors originally fixing the number of shares constituting any series, to increase or decrease (but not below the number of shares of such series then outstanding) the number of shares of any such series subsequent to the issue of shares of that series.

FOURTH: The liability of directors of the Corporation for monetary damages shall be eliminated to the fullest extent permissible under the laws of the State of California. The Corporation is also authorized to provide indemnification of its agents (as such term is defined in Section 317 of the California Corporations Code), whether by by-law, agreement, vote of shareholders or of disinterested directors, or otherwise, in excess of the indemnification expressly permitted by Section 317 of the California Corporations Code for breach of duty to the Company and its shareholders, subject only to the applicable limits under such indemnification set forth in Section 204(a)(11) of the California Corporations Code.
