- (e) Severability. Any term or provision of this Assignment which is held by a court of competent jurisdiction or other authority to be void, invalid or unenforceable shall, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability and shall not render void, invalid or unenforceable the remaining terms and provisions of this Assignment or affect the validity or enforceability of any of the terms or provisions of this Assignment in any other jurisdiction so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party. Upon such a determination, the parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Assignment so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated hereby be consummated as originally contemplated to the fullest extent possible.
- (f) Mutual Drafting. The parties hereto have been represented by counsel who have carefully negotiated the provisions hereof. As a consequence, the parties do not intend that the presumptions of any laws or rules relating to the interpretation of contracts against the drafter of any particular clause should be applied to this Assignment and therefore waive their effects. The provisions of this Assignment shall be interpreted in a reasonable manner to effect the intent of the parties.
- (g) Counterparts; Facsimile Signature. This Assignment may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be considered one and the same agreement and shall become effective when all counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other parties, it being understood that the parties need not sign the same counterpart.
