KONO BARÚ

2005 | SOUTH EASTERN AUSTRALIA
SHIRAZ

"This wine from down under expresses the deep concentration of the famous Barossa Valley. Silky texture of big grape tannins wrapped around boysenberry with brown sugar and vanilla."
-Richard Bruno, winemaker

From the tales of South Sea Pirates, comes the likes of the Kono Barú. Thought to be a crude pronunciation of the Latin cornu berru, which roughly translates to horned foot, these wild souls of reckless fortune, couldn't make heads or tails of a map, often leaving their fate to the sea. While many assumed them to be foolish, like the court jesters of the Royal Empires, beneath the absurd mask of a Kono Barú, lay clever wit and wisdom.
