AGREEMENT OF MERGER entered into on July 1, 2004 by and among HEALTHTECH PUBLISHING COMPANY, INC., a Rhode Island corporation ("HPC"), NOVICOM, INC., a California corporation ("NVT" and individually or collectively with HPC the "disappearing corporations"), and CURANT COMMUNICATIONS, INC., a California corporation ("CCI" or the "surviving corporation"), as approved by the Board of Directors of each of said corporations:

1. Merger. The disappearing corporations shall be merged with and into the surviving corporation. The laws of the jurisdiction of incorporation of the disappearing corporations permit the merger of a business corporation of said jurisdictions with and into a business corporation of another jurisdiction. The separate existence of the disappearing corporations shall cease upon the effective date of the merger in accordance with the provisions of the laws of the jurisdictions of incorporation of the disappearing corporations.

2. Survivor. The surviving corporation shall continue its existence under the name CURANT COMMUNICATIONS, INC. pursuant to the provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of California.

3. Articles of Incorporation. The Articles of Incorporation of the surviving corporation upon the effective date of the merger in the State of California shall be the Articles of Incorporation of said surviving corporation and shall continue in full force and effect until amended and changed in the manner prescribed by the provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of California.

4. Bylaws. The bylaws of the surviving corporation upon the effective date of the merger in the State of California shall be the bylaws of said surviving corporation and shall continue in full force and effect until changed, altered or amended as therein provided and in the manner prescribed by the provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of California.

5. Directors and Officers. The directors and officers in office of the surviving corporation upon the effective date of the merger in the State of California shall continue to be the members of the Board of Directors and the officers of the surviving corporation, all of whom shall hold their directorships and offices until the election, choice, and qualification of their respective successors or until their tenure is otherwise terminated in accordance with the bylaws of the surviving corporation.

6. Issued and Outstanding Stock. The number of issued and outstanding shares of HPC is 100 shares, with no par value, all of which are of one class, are common shares and are entitled to vote. The number of issued and outstanding shares of NVI is 100 shares, with no par value, all of which are of one class, are common shares and are entitled to vote. The number of issued and outstanding shares of CCI is 2,000 shares, with no par value, all of which are of one class, are common shares and are entitled to vote.

7. Surrender and Cancellation of Stock. Each issued share of each of the disappearing corporations shall, upon the effective date of the merger, be canceled without consideration in exchange therefor. The issued shares of the surviving corporation shall not be converted or exchanged in any manner or any consideration be paid therefor, but each said share which is issued as of the effective date of the merger shall continue to represent one issued share of the surviving corporation.

8. Rights and Liabilities of Surviving Corporation. At and after the effective time of the merger, the surviving corporation shall succeed to and possess, without further act or deed, all of the estate, rights, privileges, powers, and franchises, both public and private, and all of the property, real, personal, and mixed, of each of the parties hereto; all debts due to each of the disappearing corporations or whatever account shall be vested in the surviving corporation; all claims, demands, property, rights, privileges, powers and franchises and every other interest of either of the parties hereto shall be as effectively the property of the surviving corporation as they were of the respective parties hereto; the title to any real estate vested by deed or otherwise in each of the disappearing corporations shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of the merger, but shall be vested in the surviving corporation; all rights of creditors and all liens upon any property of either of the parties hereto shall be preserved unimpaired, limited in lien to the property affected by such lien at the effective time of the merger; all debts, liabilities, and duties of the respective parties hereto shall thenceforth attach to the surviving corporation and may be enforced against it to the same extent as if such debts, liabilities, and duties had been incurred or contracted by it; and the surviving corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless the officers and directors of each of the parties hereto against all such debts, liabilities and duties and against all claims and demands arising out of the merger.

9. Necessary Actions. In the event that the merger herein provided for shall have been fully authorized in accordance with the provisions of the laws of the jurisdictions of incorporation of the disappearing corporations and in accordance with the provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of California, the disappearing corporations and the surviving corporation hereby agree that they will cause to be executed and filed and/or recorded any document or documents prescribed by the laws of the State of Rhode Island and of the State of California, and that they will cause to be performed all necessary acts therein and elsewhere to effectuate the merger.

Accordingly, the Board of Directors and the proper officers of each of the disappearing corporations and of the surviving corporation, respectively, are hereby authorized, empowered and directed to do any and all acts and things, and to make, execute, deliver, file, and/or record any and all instruments, papers and documents which shall be or become necessary, proper or convenient to carry out or put into effect any of the provisions of this Agreement of Merger or of the Merger herein provided for.

10. Submission to Shareholders. The Agreement of Merger herein made and adopted shall be submitted to the shareholders of each of the disappearing corporations and the surviving corporation for their adoption or rejection in the manner prescribed by the provisions of the Rhode Island Business Corporation Act and California General Corporation Law, as the case may be.

11. Service Of Process. The surviving corporation agrees that it may be served with process in the State of Rhode Island in any proceeding for enforcement of any obligation of HPC as well as for the enforcement of any obligation of the surviving corporation arising from the merger, including any suit or other proceeding to enforce the right of any shareholder as determined in appraisal proceedings pursuant to the provisions of the Rhode Island Business Corporation Act.

12. Effective Date. The merger herein provided for shall become effective on the successful filing of this agreement or such other appropriate certificates with the filing authorities of the jurisdictions of the State of California and Rhode Island.

13. Abandonment. Notwithstanding the full authorization of the merger herein provided for, the merger may be abandoned at any time prior to its effective date in the event that the Board of Directors of either of the disappearing corporations at any time prior to the effective date, whether before or after approval by the shareholders of either of the disappearing corporations.
