RELEASE OF SECURITY INTEREST

JELD-WEN, inc. as successor through merger to GDI Company, Inc. ("Secured Party"), hereby releases its security interest in the trademark CW CONTRACTOR'S WAREHOUSE which is the subject of United States Patent and Trademark Office ("USPTO" Registration No. 1753027) the Certificate of Registration for which is attached as Schedule A. The security interest was created by an agreement executed by Grossman's, Inc. in favor of Congress Financial Corporation (New England), a predecessor in interest of the Secured Party, on May 2, 1996 and recorded with the USPTO on September 11, 1997, in Reel/Frame 1632/0361. The subsequent assignment from Congress Financial Corporation to CGI Company, Inc. (now JELD-WEN the "Secured Party") was recorded with the USPTO on November 17, 1997, in Reel/Frame 1658/0246. This Release of Security Interest releases that interest which was granted to GDI Company Inc. pursuant to the assignment recorded in Reel/Frame 1658/0246.

GROSSMAN'S GETS $3.1 MILLION, 3 DIRECTORS FROM JELD-WEN

CANTON Bloomberg News

CANTON - Grossman's Inc. said it received $3.1 million in funding from GDI Co . Inc., though it still plans to file for bankruptcy protection.

GDI is a subsidiary of JELD-WEN Inc., owned by Richard Wendt, Grossman's largest shareholder.

Grossman's, a building supply retailer operating 41 Contractors' Warehouse and Mr. 2nd's Bargain Outlet stores, said in early February it was short of cash and considering bankruptcy.

It plans to file for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection in the "near future," having met with creditors to arrange discounted payments for outstanding debts, the company said yesterday.

Klamath Falls, Oregon-based JELD-WEN named three associates to Grossman's board, which elected Seymour Kroll as president and chief executive officer. Kroll, 67, replaces David Ferrari, the president of Argus Corp., a firm which supplies interim management to financially distressed companies.

Kroll has been a management consultant to manufacturers, distributors and dealers in the building materials industry for more than 20 years, Grossman's said.

Four members of Grossman's board resigned: John Grey, Maurice Grossman, Leo Kahn and Samuel Witt III. The board was reduced to seven members from eight, including the three new members, Richard Wendt, Theodore Schnormeier and Larry Wetter, the company said.

Grossman's reshuffles board, gets financing

STEFF GELSTON

Building supplies retailer Grossman's Inc. - facing a severe cash crisis - yesterday nailed down $3.1 million in funds from one of its suppliers as it reshuffled its board of directors.

The struggling Canton-based chain also confirmed its previously announced intent to file for Chapter 11 bankruptcy court protection from its creditors.

"We won't be filing for several weeks," said Grossman's controller Steve Shapiro. "We will wait until we are ready to go to court with a very organized program so we can come out of Chapter 11 as soon as possible."

Grossman's said in January it faced a liquidity crisis and was mulling a bankruptcy filing. Last month one of its largest suppliers, Jeld-Wen Inc., stepped forward with an offer of financing in return for a 50 percent stake in the company.

Jeld-Wen, through its subsidiary GDI Co., yesterday offered the company $3.1 million to help fund its business operations.

"This is very positive news from the standpoint that we can start ordering goods and start getting back into business," said Shapiro.

Congress Financial Corp., the company's current lender, also agreed to loan Grossman's an additional $10 million after Jen-Weld offered a letter of credit to cover its future debts.

Four Grossman's directors -- John Grey, Maurice Grossman, Leo Kahn and Samuel Witt III -- resigned to make way for nominees from Jeld-Wen, including Jeld-Wen co-founder and chairman Richard Wendt. Wendt is the largest shareholder in Grossman's. Shapiro said the resignations were a "mutual decision." The board was trimmed from eight to seven members.

Grossman's chief financial officer and executive vice president Michael Shea also resigned yesterday to take a job with another company. And the company named its fourth chief executive in six months yesterday. Seymour Kroll, one of Grossman's new directors and president of the Sugar Creek Window & Door Co., was named president and chief executive of Grossman's, replacing David Ferrari of Argus Corp., a firm that supplies temporary management to distressed companies.

Grossman's operates 41 Contractors' Warehouse and Mr. 2nd's Bargain Outlet stores. Stock in the company slid 6 cents to close at 22 cents.

Grossman's files for bankruptcy

STEFF GELSTON

Grossman's Inc. filed for bankruptcy yesterday as the struggling seller of building supplies sought protection from its creditors due to a cash shortage, officials said.

The Canton-based company also said it negotiated $50 million in financing, subject to bankruptcy court approval, with GDI Co., an affiliate of Jeld-Wen Inc., a door and window supplier to Grossman's.

Jeld-Wen is a division of Wenco Industries, which is owned by Grossman's largest shareholder, Richard Wendt.

Grossman's said the financing would allow the company to pay its 1,600 workers and improve inventory levels at its 15 Contractors Warehouse and 28 Mr. 2nd's Bargain Outlet stores nationwide.

"This will allow us to pursue a successful reorganization under Chapter 11," said Grossman's president and chief executive Seymour Kroll.

Grossman's said GDI will acquire the company's existing $27 million loan and advance funds for business operations during the bankruptcy proceedings.

Subsidiaries GRS Holding Co. Inc. and GRS Realty Co. Inc. also filed for Chapter 11 protection in U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware.

Grossman's controller Steve Shapiro said the company did not have a list of assets and liabilities but said its largest creditor is Georgia Pacific.

Grossman's - which experienced significant cash shortages back in January - indicated at that time it might file for bankruptcy.

The company has posted losses in four of the last five quarters. Last year it closed 60 stores and fired 1,600 workers.

BUSINESS BRIEFCASE

GROSSMAN'S

Canton-based Grossman's Inc. received approval from federal bankruptcy court to use a $50 million loan from GDI Co. to pay for operations at its building-supply stores. GDI will assume a loan from Grossman's pre-bankruptcy lender, Congress Financial Corp., yesterday's court order stipulates. GDI, a subsidiary of Jeld-Wen Inc., will also acquire Congress' interests in Grossman's real estate and other assets. Grossman's sought Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection April 7.
