HSBC Bank Canada
HYPOTHEC ON MOVEABLE PROPERTY

I - Hypothec

1. For good and valuable consideration, the undersigned ("Customer") hereby grants to HSBC Bank Canada ("Bank") a hypothec on and a security interest in the following property ("hypothecated property"), for the sum of thirty-five million Dollars ($35,000,000), with interest at the rate of 25% per annum from the date hereof:

Description of Property' The universality of all of the movable property, rights and assets of the Customer, present and future, corporeal and incorporeal, of whatsoever nature and wheresoever situated.

2. The following property constitutes "hypothecated property" and, to the extent that it is not already specifically included in the property described in paragraph 1 or in section "A" of the attached schedule, is also charged by the hypothec and security interest constituted hereunder:
- (a) the proceeds of any sale, lease or other disposition of the property described in paragraph 1 or in section "A" of the attached schedule, any debt resulting from such sale, lease or other disposition, as well as any property acquired to replace the hypothecated property, the Customer not being hereby permitted to dispose of the hypothecated property in violation of the provisions hereof;
 - (b) any insurance or expropriation indemnity payable in respect of the hypothecated property;
 - (c) any rights attached to the hypothecated property, as well as the fruits and revenues produced thereby;
 - (d) where the hypothecated property includes shares or securities, all shares and securities issued in replacement of these shares or securities;
 - (e) all deeds, documents, registers, invoices and books of account evidencing the hypothecated property or relating thereto.

¹ If more space is required, use section "A" of the attached schedule.

IV - Covenants

1. The Customer shall inform the Bank without delay of any change in or to the Customer's name or to the veracity of the representations made in Article III.
2. The Customer shall pay, when due, all duties, taxes and charges relating to the hypothecated property and, unless otherwise agreed upon in writing by the Bank, any debt which could rank prior to the hypothec and security interest constituted hereunder. The Customer will furnish to the Bank, on demand, evidence that the payments described herein have been made.
3. The Customer shall insure the hypothecated property and keep it constantly insured for its full insurable value against damage caused by theft, fire and all other risks against which a prudent administrator would insure the hypothecated property. The Bank is hereby designated as the beneficiary of the indemnities payable under and in virtue of these policies and the Customer shall cause such designation to be inscribed in the policies. The Customer shall provide the Bank with a copy of each policy and, at least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration or cancellation of a policy, a copy of the renewal or replacement thereof.
4. The Customer shall do all things and sign all documents necessary for the hypothec and security interest constituted hereunder to have full effect and be constantly perfected and enforceable against third parties.
5. The Customer shall protect, use and adequately maintain the hypothecated property and exercise its activities in such a manner as to preserve its value. The Customer shall fully comply with all laws and regulations applicable to the operation of its enterprise and to the hypothecated property, including without limitation environmental laws and regulations.
6. The Customer shall keep all books, records and accounts that a prudent administrator would keep with respect to the hypothecated property and shall permit the Bank to examine and obtain copies of same.
7. The Customer shall keep the hypothecated property free of all real rights, hypothecs and security interests, save those to which the Bank has consented in writing.
8. The Customer shall not dispose of the hypothecated property or lease same, unless the Bank consents thereto in writing. However, the Customer may, if not in default hereunder, sell or lease its inventory in the ordinary course of carrying on its enterprise.

9. The Customer shall not change the use, destination or nature of the hypothecated property nor remove the hypothecated property from its present location, unless the Bank consents thereto in writing. If the Customer is a corporation, the Customer shall not amalgamate with another person nor commence winding-up proceedings, without the written consent of the Bank.
10. Where the hypothecated property includes inventory or accounts receivable, the Customer shall furnish to the Bank monthly a statement of the value of its inventory (calculated at the lesser of cost or market value) and a list of its accounts receivable indicating their amount and age.
11. The Customer shall furnish to the Bank all information reasonably required by it with respect to the hypothecated property or the Customer's compliance with the covenants and obligations contained herein. The Customer shall inform the Bank of any fact or event which could adversely affect the value of the hypothecated property or the financial condition of the Customer.
12. The Customer shall pay all costs related to this hypothec, including the costs incurred to perfect the rights of the Bank hereunder.
13. The Customer shall reimburse the Bank for all costs and expenses incurred by the Bank to exercise its rights or to fulfill the obligations of the Customer, with interest at the rate of interest applicable to the indebtedness owed to the Bank as described in the Facility Letter referred to in Article II, Section 1. The prime rate of the Bank is the annual rate it announces as its reference rate for determining the rate of interest on loans in Canadian dollars it makes in Canada. The hypothec and security interest created hereby also secure the reimbursement of such costs and expenses, and the payment of such interest.

V - Rights of the Bank

1. The Bank may inspect or appraise the hypothecated property from time to time at the Customer's expense and shall be permitted access to the premises where the hypothecated property is located and to the Customer's places of business for that purpose. The Customer shall also permit the Bank to examine and take copies of all books of account and documents relating to the hypothecated property.
2. The Bank may, without being bound to do so, fulfil any or all of the obligations of the Customer hereunder.

3. Until the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Customer may collect all debts forming part of the hypothecated property until the Bank withdraws its authorization for the Customer to do so but the Customer must deposit all sums collected into its account at the Bank unless the Bank otherwise consents. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default or until the Bank withdraws its authorization, the Bank shall collect such debts and shall be entitled to a reasonable commission which it may deduct from amounts collected.
4. Where the hypothecated property includes shares or securities, the Bank may, without being bound to do so, cause itself or its nominee to be registered as the holder of these shares or securities and exercise any right attached thereto, including any right to vote and any right of conversion or redemption.
5. If the Bank has possession of the hypothecated property, it shall have no obligation to maintain the use for which the hypothecated property is normally intended nor to make it productive nor to continue its use or operation.
6. The Customer constitutes and appoints the Bank its irrevocable attorney, with power of substitution, in order to do any act and to sign any document necessary or useful to the exercise of the rights conferred on the Bank hereunder.
7. The rights conferred on the Bank under this article V may be exercised by the Bank before or after default by the Customer hereunder.

VI - Defaults and Recourses

1. The Customer shall be in default in each and every one of the following events:
 - (a) If any or all of the indebtedness or other obligations secured under this deed are not paid or performed when due;
 - (b) If any of the representations made in Article III is untrue;
 - (c) If the Customer does not fulfil any of its obligations hereunder;
 - (d) If the Customer is in default under any other contract or agreement between it and the Bank or under any other hypothec or security agreement affecting the hypothecated property;

- (e) If the Customer ceases to carry on its business, becomes insolvent or bankrupt; or
 - (f) If any or all of the hypothecated property is seized or is subject to a taking of possession by a creditor, a receiver or any other person performing similar functions.
2. Upon the Customer's default, the Bank may terminate any obligation it may have to grant credit or make advances to the Customer and declare exigible all obligations of the Customer which are not yet due. The Bank may also exercise all legally available recourses upon such default and may realize its hypothec and security interest in accordance with the hypothecary rights provided in the Civil Code of Quebec.
 3. In order to realize its hypothec and security interest, the Bank may use the premises where the hypothecated property and other property of the Customer are situated at the expense of the Customer. Where the hypothecated property includes debts or rights of action, the Bank may compromise or transact with the debtors of these debts or rights of action and may grant releases and discharges thereto. Where the hypothecated property includes inventory, the Bank may complete the manufacture of such inventory and do all things necessary or useful to its sale.

VII - Additional Hypothec

To secure the payment of interest not secured by the hypothec created at Article I and to further secure the performance of its obligations hereunder, the Customer hereby grants to the Bank a hypothec on and a security interest in the hypothecated property for an additional amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of the principal amount of the hypothec set forth in Article I.

VIII - General Provisions

1. The hypothec and security interest created hereby are in addition to and not in substitution for any other hypothec or security interest held by the Bank.
2. This hypothec and security interest are continuing security and shall subsist notwithstanding the payment from time to time, in whole or in part, of any of the obligations secured hereby.

3. In each case provided in paragraph 1 of Article VI, the Customer shall be in default by the mere lapse of time, without the necessity of any notice or demand.
4. If the word "Customer" designates more than one person, each such person shall be solidarily liable to the Bank for the fulfillment of the obligations provided herein.
5. Any sum collected by the Bank in the exercise of its rights may be held by the Bank, as hypothecated property, or may be applied to the payment of the obligations secured hereby, whether or not due. The Bank shall have the choice of how any such sum will be applied.
6. The exercise by the Bank of any recourse shall not preclude the Bank from exercising any other recourse provided hereunder or by law. All the recourses of the Bank are cumulative and not alternative. The failure of or forbearance by the Bank to exercise any recourse hereunder does not constitute a renunciation to the later exercise of such recourse. The Bank may exercise its recourses hereunder without being required to exercise any recourse against any other person liable for the payment of the obligations secured hereby or to realize any other security held for the payment of such obligations.
7. The Bank is only required to exercise reasonable care in the exercise of its rights and the performance of its obligations and, in any event, is only liable for its intentional fault or gross negligence.
8. The Bank may delegate the exercise of its rights or the performance of its obligations hereunder to another person. In that event, the Bank may furnish that person with any information it may have concerning the Customer or the hypothecated property.
9. "Dollars" or "$" means Canadian dollars, unless the context requires otherwise.
10. The rights of the Bank hereunder shall benefit any successor of the Bank, including any person resulting from the amalgamation of the Bank with any other person.
11. Any notice to the Customer may be given at the address indicated below or any other address communicated in writing by the Customer to the Bank.

12. This agreement shall be governed and interpreted by the law in force in the Province of Quebec.
13. The parties hereto have expressly required that this agreement and all related documents be drawn up in the English language. Les parties aux présentes ont expressément demandé que cette convention et tout document y afférent soient rédigés en langue anglaise.
