The Court calls the Company' attention that activities from among types of activity registered under TEÁOR numbers, those bound to an authority permit may only be commenced and pursued in possession of a relevant separate permit. Such authority permit shall be submitted by the Company to the Court of Registration pursuant to Article 23, Section (3) of the Company Act (Ctv.) upon commencement of the activity bound to such permit.

The Company has paid HUF 8,000 in stamp duty and HUF 15,000 as cost reimbursement for publication.

The Court sends to the applicant 2 copies of the amended Deed of Foundation bearing the clause of the Court and 1 copy of the Company's new signature sample sheet with the instruction that the person(s) authorised to sign on behalf of the Company shall effect his/their signature(s) in a way identical to the signature sample.

No appeal is allowed against this resolution, however, if the data contained in this resolution violate the law, the state attorney and the person concerned by a disposition of the resolution may initiate proceedings against the Company concerning the relevant portion of the resolution before the responsible county court having geographical jurisdiction over the Company's registered seat claiming that the registration resolution be repealed.

Such procedure may be instituted within 30 days from publication of the registration resolution in the Company Journal ("Céglőzöny"). Failure to meet such deadline shall cause forfeiture of the right.
