1. Special Covenants With Respect to Intellectual Property.

(a) The Company shall not enter into any agreement, including any license agreement, which is inconsistent with the Company's obligations under this Agreement without the Secured Party's prior written consent.

(b) The Company shall not, unless the Company shall reasonably and in good faith determine (and notice of such determination shall have been delivered to the Secured Party) that any of the Patents is of negligible economic value to the Company, do any act, or omit to do any act, whereby any of the Patents may lapse or become abandoned or dedicated to the public or unenforceable.

(c) The Company shall not, and the Company shall not permit any of its licensees to, unless the Company shall reasonably and in good faith determine (and provide notice of such determination to the Secured Party) that any of the Trademarks is of negligible economic value to the Company:

(i) Fail to continue to use any of the Trademarks in order to maintain all of the Trademarks in full force free of any claim of abandonment for non-use;

(ii) Fail to maintain the quality of products and services offered under the Trademarks;

(iii) Fail to employ all of the Trademarks registered with any federal or state or foreign authority with an appropriate notice of such registration;

(iv) Adopt or use any other Trademark which is confusingly similar or a colorable imitation of any of the Trademarks;

(v) Use any of the Trademarks registered with any federal or state or foreign authority except for the uses for which such registration or application for registration has been made; or

(vi) Do or permit any act or knowingly omit to do any act whereby any of the Trademarks may lapse or become invalid or unenforceable.

(d) The Company shall not, unless the Company shall reasonably and in good faith determine (and provide notice of such determination to the Secured Party) that any of the Copyrights or any of the trade secrets is of negligible economic value to the Company, do or permit any act or knowingly omit to do any act whereby any of the Copyrights or any of the trade secrets may lapse or become invalid or unenforceable or placed in the public domain except upon the expiration of an unrenovable term of a registration thereof.

(e) The Company shall notify the Secured Party immediately upon obtaining knowledge that any application or registration relating to any material item of the Intellectual Property may become abandoned or dedicated to the public or placed in the public domain or invalid or unenforceable, or of any adverse determination or development (including the institution of, or any such determination or development in, any proceeding in the United States Patent and Trademark Office, the United States Copyright Office or any foreign counterpart thereof or any court), regarding the Company's ownership of any of the Intellectual Property, its right to register the same or to keep and maintain and enforce the same.

(f) Promptly upon the filings of an application for the registration of any Intellectual Property with the United States Patent and Trademark Office, the United States Copyright Office or any similar office or agency in any other country the Company shall promptly inform the Secured Party. Upon the request of the Secured Party, the Company shall execute and deliver any and all agreements, instruments and documents as the Secured Party may reasonably request to evidence the Secured Party's security interest in such Intellectual Property and the goodwill of the Company relating thereto or represented thereby.

(g) The Company shall take all necessary steps to maintain and pursue any application (and to obtain the relevant registration) filed with respect to, and maintain the registration of, the Intellectual Property (except to the extent that dedication, abandonment or invalidation is permitted under sections 10(b), (c) or (d)).

2. License of Intellectual Property. The Company hereby grants to the Secured Party, effective upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, the nonexclusive right and license to use all Intellectual Property owned or used by the Company that relate to the Collateral, together with any goodwill associated therewith, all to the extent necessary to enable the Secured Party, to use, possess and realize on the Collateral and to enable any successor or assign to enjoy the benefits of the Collateral. This right and license shall inure to the benefit of all successors, assigns and transferees of the Secured Party and its successors, assigns and transferees, whether by voluntary conveyance, operation of law, assignment, transfer, foreclosure, deed in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise. Such right and license is granted free of charge, without requirement that any monetary payment whatsoever be made to the Company.
