DECLARATION

Current PTO records show CCBT as assignee of the subject trademark. Thus, a chain of title will be established from CCBT to SunTrust Trustee, as shown below.

To simplify the following chain of title, as there are many corporations involved, the corporations and their relationships will be introduced first. National Commerce Bancorporation (NCBC) is a holding company and, as such, one of its subsidiaries is National Bank of Commerce (NBC). CCB Financial Corporation (CCBF) is a holding company and, as such, one of its subsidiaries is CCBT (current assignee of subject mark according to PTO). SunTrust Trustee is the owner of the subject mark.

On or about March 27, 2000, NCBC acquired CCBF. As a result, NCBC had now also acquired CCBT (holder of the mark) since it was a subsidiary of CCBF. The acquisition included the transfer of all assets, including intellectual property rights.

Thereafter, on July 5, 2000, CCBF merged with and into NCBC, leaving NCBC as the sole surviving corporation and CCBT (holder of the mark) as a subsidiary of NCBC. As evidence of this merger, two Articles of Merger are attached, one pursuant to North Carolina law and the other pursuant to Tennessee law. The merger included the transfer of all assets, including intellectual property rights. At this point, NCBC held NBC and CCBT (holder of the mark) as sole shareholder of both subsidiaries.

On April 25, 2001, NCBC changed its corporate name through a shareholder vote to National Commerce Financial Corporation (NCFC). Attached is a news release documenting the name change. Thus, NCFC now held NBC and CCBT (holder of the mark) as sole shareholder.

On December 31, 2001, CCBT (holder of the mark) merged with and into NBC, with the resulting corporation known as NBC (new holder of the mark). NCFC, as sole shareholder of both corporations to the merger, had approved the merger on both sides as evidenced by the attached Articles of Merger between NBC and CCBT at paragraph 4. The merger included the transfer of all assets, including intellectual property rights. At this point, NBC was the holder of the mark and a subsidiary of NCFC.

On October 1, 2004, NCFC merged with and into SunTrust Banks, Inc. (STI) leaving STI as the sole surviving entity, a Georgia corporation having its principal place of business at SunTrust Plaza, 303 Peachtree Street, Atlanta, Georgia 30308. The merger is documented in the attached news release entitled "SunTrust Completes National Commerce Financial Corporation Merger." Further, the acquisition is noted on the attached document with the heading "National Commerce Financial Co." The merger included the transfer of all assets, including intellectual property rights. As a result, STI now held NBC (holder of the mark) as a subsidiary. On May 17, 2005, STI was issued a trust license by the State of North Carolina as evidenced by the letter of such as attached hereto. Thus, SunTrust Trustee is the current owner of the registered mark.

Therefore, the chain of title as evidenced above has been established as to the transfer of the subject mark from CCBT to SunTrust Trustee. Thus, SunTrust Trustee now owns Registration No. 1,379,645. Also, current ownership of the subject mark has been established as of January 18, 2006, (merger of NCFC into STI occurring on October 1, 2004) the date the Section 8 Affidavit was signed.

The undersigned, being hereby warned that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under 18 U.S.C. Section 1001, and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any resulting registration, declares: (1) that she is properly authorized to execute this application on behalf of the applicant; (2) that she believes the applicant to be the owner of the mark sought to be registered, or, if the application is being filed as an "Intent to Use" application under 15 U.S.C. Section 1051(b), she believes the applicant to be entitled to use such mark in commerce; (3) that to the best of her knowledge and belief no other person, firm, corporation, or association has the right to use the mark in commerce, either in the identical form thereof or in such near resemblance thereto as to be likely, when used on or in connection with the goods/services of such other person, to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive; and (4) that all statements made of her own knowledge are true and all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true.

POWER OF ATTORNEY

Applicant hereby appoints RICHARD E. JENKINS, Esq., JEFFREY L. WILSON, Esq., ARLES A. TAYLOR, JR., Esq., GREGORY A. HUNT, Esq., BENTLEY J. OLIVE, Esq., DAVID M. SIGMON, Esq., and SCOTT C. MAYHEW, Esq., of JENKINS, WILSON, TAYLOR & HUNT, P.A., having offices at Suite 1200 University Tower, 3100 Tower Boulevard, Durham, North Carolina 27707, as Registrant's attorney with full power of substitution and revocation, to renew said trademark registration and to take any and all other actions with regard to this trademark and the trademark registration above set forth.

Executed this 25th day of September, 2006.

National Commerce Bancorporation Receives Shareholder Approval for Name Change to National Commerce Financial Corporation

Quarterly Dividend Declared

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 25 /PRNewswire/ --

National Commerce Bancorporation (Nasdaq: NCBC) today announced that it has changed its name to National Commerce Financial Corporation, after shareholders approved the change at its annual meeting held today. The new name is effective immediately; however, all of the company's subsidiaries, including National Bank of Commerce, Central Carolina Bank and Trust Company and First Market Bank will maintain their existing names.

Also, at today's regular meeting of the board of directors, the company declared a quarterly cash dividend of $.13 per share. The dividend is payable July 2, 2001, to shareholders of record June 8, 2001.

"Approval of the name change indicates shareholder support of management and the direction that the company is headed," said Ernest C. Roessler, president and chief executive officer. "While we maintain and expand our core banking business, our new name represents our diversified portfolio of businesses that enable us to offer financial products and services outside of traditional banking."

National Commerce Financial Corporation has $16.6 billion in assets and nearly 400 locations in nine Southeastern states. Headquartered in Memphis, Tenn., with its operations headquarters in Durham, N.C., NCBC is a sales and marketing organization that delivers select financial and consulting services through a national network of banking affiliates and non-banking affiliates.

Four former NCF Directors Join SunTrust Board of Directors

ATLANTA, Oct. 1 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- SunTrust Banks, Inc. (NYSE: STI) today announced the completion of its merger with National Commerce Financial Corporation (NCF), creating a combined financial services enterprise with combined assets of more than $152 billion, deposits of $101 billion, and more than 1,700 branches in fast-growing Southeast and Mid-Atlantic markets.

"Today marks an important legal and organizational milestone as we continue the work of combining our two companies," said L. Phillip Humann, SunTrust chairman, president and CEO. "But the closing of this transaction does not signal any immediate changes for the vast majority of NCF customers; they will continue to do business as they always have, with the same people they know and trust." Mr. Humann noted that conversion of NCF accounts, and the introduction of the SunTrust "brand" into former NCF markets, will not take place until 2005 and will be preceded by "extensive and timely customer communication."
