The Provident Bank and Precision Industrial Components LLC

Dear Mr. Lambert:

I am hoping that this letter finds you well and in the same position you were in as of November of 2006, which is the last time I contacted you for a release. Then, I was requesting a release of a UCC-1 filing on the assets of Franzus Company, LLC, which was an affiliate in the Kiam group of companies.

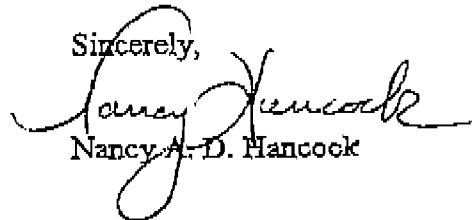

Today, I am faxing to you a request for release of the attached trademark assignments, naming your Bank's predecessor in interest, The Provident Bank, as assignee, and my client, Precision Industrial Components LLC (formerly known as CCIP LLC) or its predecessor, Precision Industrial Components Corporation, as assignor. Please see to the release of filing and provide me with confirmation as soon as possible. We are involved in a sale of assets of Precision Industrial Components LLC and need to clear Precision Industrial Components LLC's title to these marks as quickly as possible.

I am also by this letter requesting releases of any and all other copyright and trademark assignments, patent assignments, trade name assignments, fixture filings and other related evidences of encumbrance on the indebtedness that has been repaid.

Please do not hesitate to call me should you have any questions at (203) 330-2118. Many thanks.

With kind regards,

Sincerely,

Nancy A. D. Hancock
