The deposit shall be deemed to constitute full payment of the Class B Share or Shares to the holders thereof and from and after the date of the deposit such Class B Share or Shares shall be deemed to be no longer outstanding, and the holders thereof shall cease to be shareholders with respect to such Class B Share or Shares, and shall have no rights with respect thereto except the right to receive from the bank or trust company payment of the redemption price of such Class B Share or Shares without interest, upon the surrender of their certificates therefor.

(d) The rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions granted to or imposed upon the Class C Shares are as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise expressly provided by these Articles of Incorporation or expressly required by the California General Corporation Law, the holders of Class C Shares shall have no voting rights.

(B) The notice of redemption called for above shall be given, in writing, to each holder(s) of record, or his designate, of the Class E Shares to be redeemed by personal delivery or mail, postage prepaid, to the last-known address of the holder as shown on the records of the corporation. On or before the date fixed for such redemption, each holder, or his designate if in possession of the certificates, of any Class E Shares called for redemption shall surrender the certificate or certificates for such share or shares to the corporation at the place designated in the notice and shall thereupon be entitled to receive payment of the redemption price. If such notice of redemption shall have been duly given and if on the date fixed for redemption, funds necessary for the redemption shall be available therefor, then all rights with respect to such Class E Share or Shares so called for redemption, whether or not surrendered, shall terminate except for the rights of the holders to receive the redemption price, without interest, upon surrender of the certificate or certificates therefor.

(5) Without prejudice to the foregoing, if, on, after, or prior to any date fixed for any such redemption of any Class E Share or Shares this corporation deposits with any bank or trust company in the City of Los Angeles, State of California, as a trust fund, a sum sufficient to redeem on the date fixed for redemption thereof, the Class E Share or Shares called for redemption, with irrevocable instructions and authority to the bank or trust company to give the notice of redemption thereof if such notice shall not previously have been given by this corporation, or to complete the giving of such notice if theretofore commenced, and to pay, on and after the date fixed for redemption or prior thereto, the redemption price of the Class E Share or Shares to their respective holders upon the surrender of their share certificates, then from and after the date of the deposit (although prior to the date fixed for redemption), the Class E Share or Shares so called shall be deemed to be redeemed. The deposit shall be deemed to constitute full payment of the Class E Share or Shares to the holders thereof and from and after the date of the deposit such Class E Share or Shares shall be deemed to be no longer outstanding, and the holders thereof shall cease to be shareholders with respect to such Class E Share or Shares, and shall have no rights with respect thereto except the right to receive from the bank or trust company payment of the redemption price of such Class E Share or Shares without interest, upon the surrender of their certificates therefor.

SEVENTH: (a) The liability of the directors of the corporation for monetary damages shall be eliminated to the fullest extent permissible under California law.

(b) The corporation is authorized to indemnify agents (as defined in Section 317 of the Corporations Code) of the corporation to the fullest extent permissible under California law.
