Please be advised that the Pennsylvania Department of Education has no problem with the use of the company name "National Federation of Collegiate Club Sports Leagues, LLC." This organization is changing the name from "National Club Baseball Association, LLC" to broaden its activities. The purpose of the company is to organize college level sports clubs throughout North America. No educational component is involved in the business of the company.

The National Federation of Collegiate Club Sports Leagues, LLC is not authorized to operate as a school; it is not authorized to award credit or to offer education leading to a degree; and it may not advertise as though it is or it represents a specific college or university or seminary.
