ARTICLE FOUR LIMITATION ON DIRECTOR LIABILITY

No director of the corporation shall be personally liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of the duty of care or any other duty as a director, except that such liability shall not be eliminated for:

- (i) any appropriation, in violation of the director's duties, of any business opportunity of the corporation;
- (ii) acts or omissions that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;
- (iii) liability under Section 14-2-832 (or any successor provision or redesignation thereof) of the Georgia Business Corporation Code (the "Code"); and
- (iv) any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

If at any time the Code shall have been amended to authorize the further elimination or limitation of the liability of a director, then the liability of each director of the corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Code, as so amended, without further action by the shareholders, unless the provisions of the Code, as amended, require further action by the shareholders.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing provisions of this Article Three shall not adversely affect the elimination or limitation of liability or alleged liability pursuant hereto of any director of the corporation for or with respect to any alleged act or omission of the director occurring prior to such a repeal or modification.

ARTICLE FIVE INDEMNIFICATION

The corporation may indemnify to the fullest extent permitted by the laws of the State of Georgia any person who has been made, or is threatened to be made, a party to an action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative, or otherwise (including an action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of the corporation), by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director or officer of the corporation, or serves or served at the request of the corporation as a director, or as an officer, or as a fiduciary of an employee benefit plan, of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise. In addition, the corporation may pay for or reimburse any expenses incurred by such persons who are parties to such proceedings, in advance of the final disposition of such proceedings, to the full extent permitted by the law.
