SHARE PURCHASE AGREEMENT

THIS SHARE PURCHASE AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), dated effective as of July 5, 2007, is entered into by and among InnerWorkings, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Purchaser"), Ecorporate Printers, Inc. a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and Katherine Handler, Jaren Leet, Robert Medearis, Hank Miller, Ted Muhs, Joe Preis, and Jan Sevcik (each individually, a "Seller" and collectively, the "Sellers").

RECITALS

A. Sellers own all of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company (such shares being referred to herein as the "Shares").

B. The Company is engaged in the business of selling and fulfilling sales of print and print-related items (the "Business").

C. Purchaser wishes to purchase from Sellers, and Sellers wish to sell to Purchaser, all of the Shares in the Company, upon the terms and subject to the conditions contained in this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual representations, warranties, covenants and agreements herein contained, Sellers and Purchaser agree as follows:

1. Sale and Purchase. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, at the Closing, Sellers shall sell, assign, transfer and deliver to Purchaser, and Purchaser shall purchase and acquire from Sellers, and take assignment and delivery from Sellers of, all of the Shares, free and clear of any liens, claims, or other encumbrances.

2. Purchase Price. The purchase price being paid by the Purchaser to the Sellers for the transfer and delivery of the Shares and the rights and benefits conferred under this Agreement, shall consist of a fixed amount ((a) and (b) below) and an Earn-Out Amount ((c) below), and shall be paid to and among the Sellers in such amounts and at such times as set forth below (the "Purchase Price"):

(a) The sum of Three Hundred Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars ($375,000), as adjusted pursuant to Section 3(a), shall be referred to as the "Fixed Purchase Price" and shall represent the entire amount owed to Jaren Leet and Ted Muhs ("Convertible Note Holders") and Jaren Leet, Ted Muhs, Robert Medearis, Hank Miller, and Joe Preis (the "Preferred Shareholders") in exchange for full payment for the Convertible Notes¹ and the Shares and any and all other claims that the Convertible Note Holders and/or the Preferred Shareholders may have against the

Company. Of that amount, Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000) shall be paid in the appropriate proportion to the Convertible Note Holders and Preferred Shareholders upon Closing by wire transfer of funds immediately available to such Convertible Note Holders and Preferred Shareholders. The appropriate amount and wire transfer instructions for each Convertible Note Holder and Preferred Shareholder is set forth in Exhibit 2(a).

(b) The remaining balance of One Hundred Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars ($175,000) of the Fixed Purchase Price owed the Preferred Shareholders shall be evidenced by a promissory note (the "Promissory Note"), in the form as set forth in Exhibit 2(b). The balance due on the Promissory Note, including principal and interest, shall be paid in the appropriate proportion to each of the Preferred Shareholders by wire transfer of funds immediately available to such Sellers. The appropriate amount and wire transfer instructions for each Preferred Shareholder shall be set forth in Exhibit 2(b), and wire transfer instructions shall be amended as necessary.

(c) In exchange for their respective shares of the Shares, Jan Sevcik and Katherine Handler (the "Non-Preferred Shareholders") shall be paid their respective portions of an aggregate sum not exceeding Six Hundred Thousand Dollars ($600,000), referred to herein as the "Earn-Out Amount." The payment of such amount shall be subject to and in accordance with the provisions of Section 4. In the event that any portion of Stage One of the Earn-Out is achieved, Katherine Handler will receive a portion of the Stage One Earn-Out payment equal to Forty Thousand Dollars ($40,000).

3. Purchase Price Adjustment.

(a) Estimated Liabilities

The Seller has prepared and delivered to Purchaser a certificate (the "Sellers' Liability Schedule") which contains the Sellers' good faith best estimate of the liabilities (the "Estimated Liabilities") of the Company. To the extent that the Estimated Liabilities are greater than Four Hundred Twenty Thousand Dollars ($420,000) (the "Maximum Closing Liabilities"), net of any accounts receivable, cash in banks, or prepaid expenses, the Fixed Purchase Price and the Promissory Note will be decreased dollar-for-dollar by the amount of such excess.

(b) Company's Actual Liabilities.

(i) As soon as practicable after the Closing, but not later than sixty (60) days following the Closing, Purchaser shall prepare and deliver to the Sellers' Representative (identified in Section 25), a written statement (the "Statement"), reflecting all adjustments being made by Purchaser to the Sellers' Liability Schedule and all of those liabilities of the Company as of the Closing Date (the "Actual Liabilities") and setting forth the amount, if any, by which the Actual Liabilities exceeds the Estimated Liabilities (such excess, the "Liability Excess") Purchaser shall prepare or coordinate the preparation of the Statement, the cost of which shall be borne by Purchaser. Sellers, Purchaser, and their respective accountants and other representatives shall fully cooperate with the other in the preparation and review of the Statement, including, without limitation, by providing access to accountant's work papers relevant to the Statement as well as the books and records related thereto.

(ii) Within thirty (30) days after the delivery of the Statement to the Sellers' Representative, the Sellers' Representative may deliver written notice (the "Protest Notice") to Purchaser of any objections, which notice shall describe the nature of any such objection in reasonable detail, identify the specific items involved and the dollar amount of each such objection. The Sellers' Representative shall provide reasonable supporting documentation for each such objection concurrently with the delivery of the Protest Notice. The failure of the Sellers' Representative to deliver such Protest Notice within the prescribed time period will constitute Sellers' acceptance of the Statement. After the end of such thirty (30) day period, the Sellers' Representative may not introduce additional disagreements with respect to any item in the Statement.

(iii) If the Sellers' Representative timely delivers a Protest Notice to the Purchaser, then any dispute shall be resolved as follows:

(A) The Sellers' Representative and Purchaser shall promptly endeavor to negotiate in good faith in an attempt to agree upon the amount of the Actual Liabilities. In the event that a written agreement determining the amount of the Actual Liabilities has not been reached within ten (10) business days after the date of receipt by the Purchaser of the Protest Notice, the Sellers' Representative and the Purchaser shall each select one (1) reputable accounting firm. The two (2) accounting firms selected by the Sellers' Representative and Purchaser shall jointly choose a reputable accounting firm with whom neither the Purchaser and its principals, nor the Seller or its principals, have any relationship to adjudicate the determination of Actual Liabilities, which accounting firm shall serve as the arbiter for the dispute over the calculation of the Actual Liabilities (the "Arbiter"). Upon the selection of the Arbiter, each of the Purchaser's and the Sellers' Representative's determination of the items in dispute shall be submitted to the Arbiter.

(B) The Arbiter shall be directed to render a detailed written report that sets forth the resolution of all items in dispute and that contains a final copy of the Statement as promptly as practicable, and to resolve only those issues of dispute set forth in the Protest Notice. The Sellers' Representative and Purchaser shall each furnish to the Arbiter such work papers, schedules and other documents and information relating to the unresolved disputed issues as the Arbiter may reasonably request. The Arbiter shall establish the procedures it shall follow (including procedures regarding the presentation of materials supporting each party's position) giving due regard to the mutual intention of the Purchaser and Seller to resolve each of the disputed items and amounts as accurately, quickly, efficiently and inexpensively as possible. The resolution of the dispute and the calculation of the Actual Liabilities shall be final and binding upon each party hereto. The fees and expenses of the Arbiter shall be borne by the parties equally, except that they shall be borne exclusively by one party if such party's proposed adjustment for the disputed items made at the inception of the hearing is more than twice as far as the other's from the final determination of the disputed items by the Arbiter.

(iv) If, after the final determination of the Actual Liabilities, there is a Liability Excess, then the Purchaser shall be entitled to the amount of such Liability Excess which shall be paid as follows: (A) if the Liability Excess is less than $175,000, then Purchaser shall offset the amount of the Liability Excess against the principal amount of the Promissory Note; and (B) if the Liability Excess is greater than $175,000, then the Promissory Note shall be deemed paid and cancelled and Warranting Sellers (as defined in Section 6) agree, jointly and severally, to pay to Purchaser the remainder of such excess within ten (10) business days after the final determination of the Actual Liabilities.

4. Earn-Out. Provided that the Company achieves cumulative Net Profit during the three (3) years ending June 30, 2010 of at least $1,000,000, and provided that all Liability Excess payable under Section 3(b)(iv) has been paid, Purchaser will pay the Non-Preferred Shareholders $300,000 of the Earn-Out, i.e., Stage One of the Earn-Out. In addition, Purchaser will pay the Non-Preferred Shareholders $100,000 of additional Purchase Price for each year that the Company achieves annual Net Profit of at least $100,000 during any of the three (3) years ending June 30, 2010, i.e., Stage Two of the Earn-Out. If Net Profit during the three year period ending June 30, 2010 does not equal or exceed $1,000,000, but does equal or exceed $900,000 (nine hundred thousand dollars), the Purchaser shall pay the Non-Preferred Shareholders a Net Profit Earn-Out Payment in an amount equal to $300,000 prorated on a straight line basis based upon the amount by which the Net Profit for this three year period is greater than $900,000. For the avoidance of doubt, such Net Profit Earn-Out Payment shall equal (a) $300,000 times (b) a fraction, the numerator of which is the excess of the Net Profit over $900,000, and the denominator of which is $100,000). If Net Profit during any of the three years ending June 30, 2010 does not equal or exceed $100,000 but does equal or exceed $90,000, the Purchaser shall pay the Non Preferred Shareholders a Net Profit Earn-Out Payment in an amount equal to $100,000 prorated on a straight line basis based upon the amount by which the Net Profit for each year is greater than $90,000. (For the avoidance of doubt, such Net Profit Earn-Out Payment shall equal (a) $100,000 times (b) a fraction, the numerator of which is the excess of the Net Profit for each year over $90,000, and the denominator of which is $10,000).

(a) For the purposes of this Section 4, the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below:

“Net Profit” shall mean, for any period, the earnings of the Company defined as gross revenue less cost of goods sold, merchant fees, marketing expenses, customer service expenses, administrative expenses, payroll and any other expenses of the Company as determined by the Purchaser in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”), and excluding from “Net Profit” for purposes of this calculation (i) income taxes (state, municipal, or federal), (ii) any inter-Seller charges among the Purchaser and its subsidiaries or affiliates (other than charges for expenses incurred on behalf of the Seller in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practices of the Seller); (iii) any depreciation and amortization deductions; (iv) any expenses specifically identified as incurred by the Company to integrate the Company’s software with the Purchasers operational software; and (v) base compensation paid to Jan Sevcik by the Company subsequent to the Closing Date; and (vi) expense for stock options granted to Sevcik pursuant to the terms of the Employment Agreement. Net Profit shall be reduced by $40,000 (forty thousand dollars) per year representing, rent, phone, and network administration expenses that will be absorbed by the Company as determined by the Company.

(b) Within ten (10) days following the close of the books of Company after June 30, 2008, 2009 and 2010 and in no event later than thirty (30) days following each of the such dates, the Purchaser shall provide to the Sellers' Representative a statement of the Net Profit for the fiscal year as applicable (the "Net Profit Statement"), detailing the Purchaser's calculation of the Company's Net Profit for such year. The Purchaser shall provide to the Sellers' Representative copies of such records and work papers created in connection with preparation of the Net Profit Statement that are reasonably required to support such Net Profit Statement. The Sellers' Representative and its representatives shall have the right to inspect Company's books and records during business hours upon reasonable prior notice and solely for purposes reasonably related to the determinations of Net Profit. Upon receipt of each such Net Profit Statement, the Sellers' Representative shall be entitled to object to the calculation of Net Profit by delivery to Purchaser of a notice of objection (a "Notice of Objection"). If the Sellers' Representative fails to deliver a Notice of Objection to Purchaser within twenty (20) days following receipt of the Net Profit Statement, the determination of Net Profit by the Purchaser as set forth in the Net Profit Statement shall be final and binding on the parties hereto.

(c) If the Sellers' Representative timely delivers a Notice of Objection to the Purchaser, then any dispute shall be resolved as follows:

(i) The Sellers' Representative and Purchaser shall promptly endeavor to negotiate in good faith in an attempt to agree upon the amount of the Net Profit. In the event that a written agreement determining the amount of the Net Profit has not been reached within ten (10) business days after the date of receipt by the Purchaser of Sellers' Notice of Objection, the Sellers' Representative and the Purchaser shall jointly choose one (1) reputable accounting firm with whom neither the Purchaser and its principals or any affiliate of any of them, nor the Sellers or their respective principals or any affiliate of any of them have any relationship to adjudicate the determination of the Net Profit, which accounting firm shall serve as the arbiter for the dispute over the calculation of Net Profit (the "Arbiter"). Upon the selection of the Arbiter, each of the Purchaser's and the Sellers' Representative's determination of the Net Profit shall be submitted to the Arbiter.

(ii) The Arbiter shall be directed to render a written report on the unresolved disputed issues with respect to the Net Profit as promptly as practicable, and to resolve only those issues of dispute set forth in the Notice of Objection. The Sellers' Representative and Purchaser shall each furnish to the Arbiter such work papers, schedules and other documents and information relating to the unresolved disputed issues as the Arbiter may reasonably request. The Arbiter shall establish the procedures it shall follow (including procedures regarding to the presentation of materials supporting each party's position) giving due regard to the mutual intention of the Purchaser and the Sellers' Representative to resolve each of the disputed items and amounts as accurately, quickly, efficiently and inexpensively as possible. The resolution of the dispute and the calculation of the Net Profit shall be final and binding upon each party hereto. The fees and expenses of the Arbiter shall be borne exclusively by the party whose proposal for the Net Profit is furthest from the final determination of the Net Profit by the Arbiter.

Each date on which the Net Profit is finally determined shall be referred to herein as a "Net Profit Settlement Date."

(b) Enforceability. This Agreement and each of the Transaction Documents to which such Seller is a party have been duly executed and delivered by such Seller and are the valid and binding obligation of such Seller and are enforceable against such Seller in accordance with their respective terms, except as enforcement may be limited by general principles of equity, whether applied in a court of law or a court of equity and by bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting creditors’ rights and remedies generally. (a) Competition. For a period of four (4) years following the Closing Date (the “Restricted Period”), he or she will not engage or participate as an owner, principal, partner, officer or director in any business which is competitive with the Business of the Company as conducted during the past year including, without limitation, such business that is conducted in any geographic area in which the Company’s Business is conducted (or contemplated to be conducted); provided, however, that ownership by a Seller, as a passive investment, of less than 1% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any corporation listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in an over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this Section 9.

During the Restricted Period, Seller will not, directly or indirectly, assist or encourage any other person in carrying out, directly or indirectly, any activity that would be prohibited by the provisions of this Section 9 if Seller himself/herself carried out such activity, either directly or indirectly, and further, Seller shall not, directly or indirectly, induce or assist any other person to carry out, directly or indirectly, any such activity.

(b) Non-Solicitation of Business Relations. During the Restricted Period, Seller shall not, directly or indirectly, on his/her own behalf or in the service or on behalf of others: (a) solicit, divert or appropriate, or attempt to solicit, divert or appropriate any (i) account to whom the Company rendered services to within the two (2) year period prior to the date hereof; (ii) any supplier, licensor, licensee or other vendor (including, without limitation, other persons with whom the Company has contractual or other arrangements to provide services for the Company) who has been a supplier, licensor, licensee or other vendor the Company during the two (2) year period prior to date hereof in connection with a business that is competitive with the Company’s Business; or (iii) any prospective account to whom during the two (2) year period prior to the date of this Agreement the Company or any of its agents or representatives made a new business presentation or similar offering of services with respect to the rendering of services (“Pitch”); provided, however, a general mailing or an incidental contact shall not be deemed a Pitch; or (b) take any action to induce any supplier, licensor, licensee or other vendor of the Company from ceasing to do business with the Company or the Purchaser.

(c) Non-Solicitation of Employees. During the Restricted Period, Seller shall not, directly or indirectly, on his/her own or in the service or on behalf of others solicit, divert or hire, or attempt to solicit, divert or hire any Person then employed by the Company.

(d) Non-Disclosure of Confidential Information. As used in this Agreement, “Confidential Information,” shall mean any and all confidential and proprietary technical and non-technical information of the Company, including patent, copyright, trade secret, and proprietary information, techniques, sketches, drawings, models, inventions, know-how, processes, apparatus, equipment, algorithms, software programs, software source documents, and formulae related to the current, future and proposed products and services of the Company and the Company's suppliers and customers, and includes, without limitation, innovations, tangible and intangible property, Sellers' information concerning research, experimental work, development, design details and specifications, engineering, financial information, procurement requirements, purchasing manufacturing, customer lists, business forecasts, vendors, supplier agreements, sales, merchandising and marketing plans and information. During the Restricted Period, Seller shall hold and safeguard the Confidential Information in trust for the Company, and agrees that he/she shall not use, without the prior written consent of the Company, for Sellers own benefit or purposes or misappropriate or disclose or make available to any person for use outside the Company's organization at any time, for any reason, any of the Confidential Information or any copy, notes or item embodying Confidential Information, whether or not developed by Seller, except to the extent that such information (A) is or becomes generally available to the public or the industry other than as a result of a disclosure by Seller in violation of this Agreement or (B) is required to be disclosed pursuant to a court order or other legal process (provided Seller gives the Company and Purchaser notice of such obligation when Seller receives notice of such obligation and prior to any disclosure pursuant to such obligation affords the Company and Purchaser the opportunity and cooperates with them in any efforts by them to limit the scope of such obligation and/or to obtain confidential treatment of any material disclosed pursuant to such obligation).

(e) Acknowledgement. The Sellers acknowledge and agree that the covenants, obligations and restrictions set forth above in the Section are reasonable in scope and essential to the preservation of the Company's Business for the benefit of Purchaser and are fair in view of the fact that the Sellers, as stockholders of Company, profited from the Transaction and that enforcement of these restrictions will not cause Sellers any hardship, and because of Sellers' background and experience, will not in any manner preclude the Sellers from becoming gainfully employed.

(f) Information Regarding This Agreement. Each Seller shall make the terms and conditions of this Agreement known to any person or entity engaged in activities competitive with the Company's Business with which he or she becomes associated during the Restricted Period prior to his or her association with any such person or entity. The Company and Purchaser shall have the right to make the terms of this Agreement known to third persons.

(g) Remedies under this Section 9. Each Seller acknowledges and agrees that any breach by him or her of this Section 9 will cause the Company and Purchaser injury and damage for which the Company and Purchaser cannot be adequately compensated in monetary damages. Each Seller, therefore, expressly agrees that the Company or Purchaser shall be entitled to seek injunctive and/or other equitable relief to prevent any anticipatory or continuing breach of this Agreement, or any part hereof, and to secure its enforcement. Nothing herein shall be construed as a waiver by the Company or Purchaser of any right it may now have or hereafter acquire to monetary damages by reason of any injury to its property, business or reputation or otherwise arising out of any wrongful act or omission of the Seller hereunder. In addition, the Sellers shall indemnify and hold the Company and Purchaser and their directors and officers harmless from, all liability, damages, costs and expenses including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys fees, court costs and arbitration fees arising from the Seller's breach of any representation, warranty, or covenant contained in this Section 9 of this Agreement.

10. Indemnification.

(a) All representations, warranties, covenants and obligations in this Agreement shall survive the Closing and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. All representations and warranties shall continue in full force and effect for twelve (12) months after the date of this Agreement, and all covenants and other obligations in this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect until such covenants or obligations expire, are fully performed and satisfied, or otherwise indefinitely (except as limited by applicable law) in accordance with the respective terms of such covenants and obligations; provided, however, that the representations and warranties in Section 6(h) shall survive for the period of any applicable statute of limitations plus thirty (30) days. The right to indemnification based upon such representations, warranties, covenants and obligations shall not be affected by any investigation conducted by Purchaser with respect to, or any knowledge acquired at any time with respect to, the accuracy or inaccuracy of or compliance with any such representation, warranty, covenant or obligation.

(b) Each Warranting Seller, jointly and severally will indemnify and hold harmless Purchaser and its directors, officers, shareholders, employees, agents, subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, the "Purchaser Indemnified Persons"), and will reimburse the Purchaser Indemnified Persons for any loss, liability, claim, damage or expense (including costs of investigation and defense and reasonable attorney fees and expenses, but excluding consequential or incidental damages) (collectively, "Losses") arising from or in connection with: (i) any breach of any representation or warranty made by Sellers in this Agreement or the Schedules hereto, (ii) Taxes of the Company with respect to any period ending on or prior to the Closing Date; (iii) any breach of any covenant or obligation of the Sellers in this Agreement or the Schedules hereto; (iv) any claim by any person for brokerage or finder's fees or commissions or similar payments based upon any agreement or understanding alleged to have been made by any such person with any Seller or the Company (or any person acting on their behalf) in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; (v) any claim by any person for payment of any other expenses incurred by the Company prior to the Closing Date in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby; (vi) any Transfer Taxes imposed on the Purchaser or the Company other than by the State of Illinois, as a result of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and (vii) taxes of any person that the Company is liable for in a period ending on the Closing Date as a result of joint and several liability as a transferee or successor, by contract, or otherwise. The Sellers shall specifically not indemnify the Purchaser for the failure of the Company to obtain any net operating loss carryover or carryback under Section 172 of the Code, unless such failure, of itself, causes a breach of any other warranty.

(c) Purchaser will indemnify and hold harmless Sellers, and will reimburse Sellers for, any loss, liability, claim, damage or expense (including costs of investigation and defense and reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) arising from or in connection with: (i) any breach of any representation or warranty made by Purchaser in this Agreement or the Schedules hereto; (ii) any breach of any covenant or obligation of Purchaser in this Agreement or the Schedules hereto; or (iii) any claim by any person for brokerage or finder's fees or commissions or similar payments based upon any agreement or understanding alleged to have been made by any such person with Purchaser (or any person acting on their behalf) in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(d) The Warranting Sellers shall not be subject to any liability under this Section 10 and no indemnification claims shall be brought against the Warranting Sellers, absent fraud, with respect to breaches of any representations or warranties until all damages of the Purchaser Indemnified Person exceed an aggregate sum equal to ten thousand dollars ($10,000) (the "Indemnification Basket"), at which point the Warranting Sellers will be obligated to indemnify the Purchaser Indemnified Person from and against all damages in excess of the Indemnification Basket. The maximum aggregate liability of the Warranting Sellers for indemnity payments under Section 10 shall be an amount equal to the sum of three hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($375,000), plus the aggregate amount of any Earn-Out Amount paid to the Sellers; provided, that there shall be no limit on liability under this Section 10 for damages arising from or related to the representations and warranties contained in Section 5(a) (Authority), Section 6(h) (Taxes), and Section 6(l) (Title to Assets). No Seller shall have any liability for indemnity obligations based on a breach of the representations and warranties of another Seller under Section 5.

(e) Upon notice to the Sellers' Representative delivered within twelve (12) months following the date hereof, specifying in reasonable detail the basis therefore, Purchaser may set-off any amount to which it may be entitled under this Section 10 against the unpaid portion of the Purchase Price. The exercise of a right of set-off by Purchaser in good faith, whether or not ultimately determined to be justified, will not constitute a breach of Section 2 hereof. Neither the exercise of, nor the failure to exercise, such right of set-off will constitute an election of remedies or limit Purchaser in any manner in the enforcement of any other remedies that may be available to it.

(f) Indemnification Procedures.

- (i) An indemnified party hereunder (the "Claiming Party") shall give the indemnifying party and the Sellers' Representative, if different ("Indemnifying Party"), prompt written notice of any claim of a third party (a "Third Party Claim") as to which the Claiming Party proposes to demand indemnification hereunder, within 20 days after learning of such Third Party Claim (or within such shorter time as may be necessary to give the Indemnifying Party a reasonable opportunity to respond to such claim), together with a statement specifying the basis of such Third Party Claim. The Third Party Claim Notice shall (i) describe the claim in reasonable detail, and (ii) indicate the amount (estimated, if necessary, and to the extent feasible) of the damages that have been or may be suffered by the Claiming Party. The failure to give a Third Party Claim Notice to the Indemnifying Party shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of any liability hereunder unless the Indemnifying Party was prejudiced thereby under this Section 10, and then only to the extent of such prejudice. The Indemnifying Party must provide written notice to the Claiming Party that it is either (i) assuming responsibility for the Third Party Claim or (ii) disputing the claim for indemnification against it (the "Indemnification Notice"). The Indemnification Notice must be provided by the Indemnifying Party to the Claiming Party within 30 days after receipt of the Third Party Claims Notice or within such shorter time as may be necessary to give the Claiming Party a reasonable opportunity to respond to such Third Party Claim (such period is referred to herein as the "Indemnification Notice Period").

- (ii) If the Indemnifying Party provides an Indemnification Notice to the Claiming Party within the Indemnification Notice Period that it assumes responsibility for the Third Party Claim (or even if it disputes the claim), the Indemnifying Party shall have the right to assume and conduct the defense of such Third Party Claim at its or his own expense, provided, however, that in the event that the interests of the Claiming Party and the Indemnifying Party are, or may reasonably become, in conflict with or adverse to one another with respect to such Third Party Claim, the Claiming Party may retain its own counsel at the Indemnifying Party's expense with respect to such Third Party Claim, provided further, however, that such expense must be reasonable in the context of the dispute. In the event the Indemnifying Party assumes and conducts the defense on behalf of the Claiming Party, the Indemnifying Party shall, subject to Section 10(d), as applicable, be deemed to acknowledge that it is responsible to the Claiming Party for any damages as a result of such Third Party Claim, and may settle such Third Party Claim, but shall not, without the consent of the Claiming Party, agree to any settlement that does not include a provision whereby the plaintiff or claimant in the matter releases the Claiming Party from all liability with respect thereto or agree to any relief other than money damages (and a full release related thereto). If the Indemnifying Party does not assume the defense of such Third Party Claim in the manner provided above, or if after commencing or undertaking any such defense, fails to prosecute diligently or withdraws from such defense, the Claiming Party shall have the right to undertake the defense or settlement thereof, and the Claiming Party may defend against, or enter into any settlement with respect to, the matter in any manner the Claiming Party reasonably may deem appropriate. In the event that (x) a final judgment or order in favor of such third party in respect of such Third Party Claim is rendered against the Claiming Party, that is not subject to appeal or with respect to which the time to appeal has expired without an appeal having been made, or (y) such Third Party Claim is settled in accordance with this Section 10, resulting in liability on the part of the Claiming Party, then subject to the limitations set forth in Section 10(d), the Indemnifying Party shall pay the amount of such liability.
- (iii) In the event that the Indemnifying Party disputes the claim for indemnification against it and chooses not to assume and conduct the defense thereof, the Claiming Party shall have the right to conduct the defense and to compromise and settle such Third Party Claim, in any manner the Claiming Party may deem appropriate. Once such dispute has been finally resolved in favor of indemnification by the Indemnifying Party by arbitration, a court or other tribunal of competent jurisdiction, or by mutual agreement of the Claiming Party and Indemnifying Party, subject to the provisions of Section 10(d), the Indemnifying Party shall within 10 days of the date of such resolution or agreement, pay to the Claiming Party all damages paid or incurred by the Claiming Party in connection therewith.

- (iv) Any indemnity payment due and payable by an Indemnifying Party under this Agreement shall be net of any insurance proceeds received by the Claiming Party or any of their respective affiliates.
- (v) Except with respect to any loss that is the result of fraud, intentional misrepresentation or willful misconduct on the part of the other party or any of its affiliates, each of the parties hereto agrees that, from and after the Closing, his or its exclusive remedy with respect to any and all claims relating to breaches of representations and warranties of this Agreement shall be indemnification pursuant to Section 10; provided, however, that nothing in this provision shall limit any equitable remedy, including injunctions and specific performance, that a party may have pursuant to this Agreement.

11. Other Agreements and Covenants.

(a) General. The parties hereto agree in case at any time after the Closing any further action is necessary to carry out the purposes of this Agreement, each of the parties hereto will take such further action (including the execution and delivery of such further instruments and documents) as any other party hereto reasonably may request, all at the sole cost and expense of the requesting party (unless the requesting party is entitled to indemnification therefore under Section 10).

(b) Repayment of Loans. On the Closing Date, Purchaser shall pay, in full, the loan from Jan Sevcik to the Company not to exceed Seventy-One Thousand Four Hundred Ninety-Three Dollars ($71,493) and the loans from Jaren Leet ($13,250) and Ted Muhs ($13,250) of Twenty Six Thousand Five Hundred ($26,500) in the aggregate by wire transfer of funds immediately available from the Purchaser to Jaren Leet, Ted Muhs, and Jan Sevcik upon Closing. Such amounts shall be included in the Estimated Liabilities of the Company.

(c) Required Consents. To the extent that the consents and approvals set forth in Schedule 6(c) and Schedule 6(j) of the Disclosure Schedule are not obtained by Sellers prior to Closing, Purchaser, at its option, may nevertheless elect to proceed with the Closing, and Sellers will, during the sixty (60) day period commencing with the Closing Date, use reasonable efforts, at their own expense, to obtain such consents or approvals. Purchaser shall reasonably cooperate with Sellers to obtain such consents or approvals.

12. Tax Matters.

(a) Conduct of Business. After the effective date hereof, the Sellers shall not allow the Company to make or change any election with respect to Taxes, change any Tax accounting period, adopt or change any method of Tax accounting, file any amended Tax return, enter into a closing agreement with any taxing authority, surrender any right to claim a refund for Taxes, consent to an extension of the statute of limitations applicable to any Tax claim or assessment, or take any other similar action (or omit to take any action), if such election, change, amendment, agreement, settlement, surrender, consent or action or omission could have the effect of increasing the Tax liability of the Company after the Closing Date.

(b) FIRPTA Certificate. At Closing, the Sellers shall have delivered certificates from each Seller, duly completed and executed by such Seller pursuant to Section 1.1445-2(b)(2) of the Treasury Regulations, certifying that such Seller is not a “foreign person” within the meaning of Section 1445 of the Code.

(c) Tax Returns. The Sellers shall cause the Company to prepare and timely file all Tax Returns of the Company due on or prior to the Closing Date, on a basis consistent with existing procedures and practices and accounting methods with respect to the treatment of specific items on the returns and reports, unless such treatment does not have sufficient legal support to avoid the imposition of penalties, fines, or similar amounts. In the event Sellers are determined to be liable under this Agreement for Taxes due in connection with any Tax Return filed after the Closing Date, Sellers shall pay the amount of such liability to the Company within three (3) business days after receipt of a written request, therefore, or at least three (3) business days prior to the filing of such returns, whichever is later.

(d) Cooperation. Purchaser and Sellers shall provide each other with such assistance as may reasonably be requested by the others in connection with the preparation of any return or report of Taxes, any audit or other examination by any taxing authority, or any judicial or administrative proceedings relating to liabilities for Taxes. Such assistance shall include making employees available on a mutually convenient basis to provide additional information or explanation of material provided hereunder and shall include providing copies of relevant Tax Returns and supporting material. The Sellers shall provide the Purchaser with any information that Purchaser requests to allow Purchaser to comply with Code Section 6043A or any other information reporting requirements under the Code or other applicable law.

(e) Tax Contests. If any governmental body or authority issues to the Company (i) a written notice of its intent to audit, examine or conduct another proceeding with respect to Taxes or Tax Returns of the Company for periods ending prior to the Closing Date or (ii) a written notice of deficiency, a written notice of reassessment, a written proposed adjustment, a written assertion of claim or written demand concerning Taxes or Tax Returns for periods beginning on or prior to the Closing Date, Purchaser or the Company shall notify Sellers of its receipt of such communication from the governmental body or authority within thirty (30) business days after receiving such notice of deficiency, reassessment, adjustment or assertion of claim or demand. No failure or delay of Purchaser or the Company in the performance of the foregoing shall reduce or otherwise affect the obligations or liabilities of Sellers pursuant to this Agreement, except to the extent that such failure or delay shall preclude the Company from defending against any liability or claim for Taxes that the Sellers are obligated to pay hereunder. The Purchaser and the Company shall control any examination, investigation, audit, or other proceeding in respect of any Tax Return or Taxes of the Company (a "Tax Contest"); provided, that (i) the Sellers shall have the right to participate in any such Tax Contest to the extent it relates to a Tax Return for a period ending on or prior to the Closing Date and (ii) Purchaser and the Company shall not settle or otherwise resolve any Tax Contest (or any issue raised in such Tax Contest) if such settlement or other resolution relates to Taxes for which the Sellers are liable under this Agreement without the permission of the Sellers (which will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed). At the request of Sellers, Purchaser and the Company shall resolve and settle any issue related to Taxes for any period ending before the Closing Date on terms acceptable to Sellers and the applicable taxing authority provided that (i) the Sellers shall have paid to the Company or the Purchaser prior to entering into the settlement or other resolution all Taxes (and other amounts) that the Sellers are liable for under this Agreement as a result of such settlement or other resolution, and (ii) the settlement or other resolution could not result in the Purchaser or the Company or any of their affiliates paying any Taxes (or other amounts) that the Sellers are not required to fully indemnify the Purchaser or the Company for under the Agreement. If there is an adjustment to any Tax Return which creates a deficiency in any Taxes for which Sellers are liable under this Agreement, Sellers shall pay to Purchaser the amount of such deficiency in Taxes within ten (10) days of the action by any Tax authority that is final or, if not final, is acquiesced in by Sellers during the course of any audit or any proceeding relating to Taxes.

(f) Transfer Taxes. All federal, state, local, foreign transfer, sales, use or similar Taxes ("Transfer Taxes") applicable to, imposed upon or arising out of the transfer of the Shares or any other transaction contemplated by this Agreement shall be paid by the Sellers, except for those arising under the tax laws of the State of Illinois.

(g) Proration of Taxes. For purposes of determining the Taxes that relate to periods ending on or before the Closing Date (or the portions of any period beginning before and ending after the Closing Date (a "Straddle Period")), the parties agree to use the following rules:

- (i) Taxes in the form of interest, penalties, additions to tax or other additional amounts that relate to Taxes for any period ending on the Closing Date (or portion of any Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date) shall be treated as occurring in a period ending on the Closing Date (or the portion of the Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date) whether such items are incurred, accrued, assessed or similarly charged on, before or after the Closing Date; provided, that any such interest, penalties, etc. caused directly by delay or inaction of Company or Purchaser after the Closing Date shall be the responsibility of Purchaser;
- (ii) Taxes (other than Transfer Taxes) that are payable with respect to any Straddle Period, the portion of any such Tax that is attributable to the portion of the Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date shall be:

(A) In the case of Taxes measured by, or imposed on, net income or any other Taxes resulting from, or imposed on, sales, receipts, uses, transfers or assignments of property or other assets, payments or accruals to other persons (including, without limitation, wages), or any other similar transaction or transactions, the amount that would be payable for the portion of the Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date if the Company or any subsidiary filed a separate Tax Return with respect to such Taxes or Taxes solely for the portion of the Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date; and

(B) In the case of all other Taxes, an amount equal to the amount of Taxes for the entire Straddle Period multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the number of calendar days in the portion of the period ending on the Closing Date and the denominator of which is the number of calendar days in the entire Straddle Period. For purposes of clause (A), any item determined on an annual or periodic basis (including amortization and depreciation deductions and the affects of graduated rates) shall be allocated to the portion of the Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date based on the relative number of days in such portion of the Straddle Period as compared to the number of days in the entire Straddle Period.

(h) Tax Treatment of Certain Items. The parties agree (and shall file all Tax Returns consistently with such agreement) that:

- (i) all indemnification payments under this Agreement shall be treated as adjustments to the Purchase Price for all relevant Tax purposes; and
- (ii) all payments of the Net Profit Earnout Payments shall be treated as payments of additional Purchase Price (except to the extent such payments are treated as interest under Code section 483 or similar provision of the Code) for all relevant Tax purposes.

13. Conduct of Business During Earn-Out Periods.

(a) Conduct of Business. During the period ending June 30, 2010 Purchaser shall (i) continue to operate the Business either indirectly through the Company or directly by Purchaser, and (ii) cause the Company to, and shall permit Sevcik, as its General Manager, to continue to operate the Business in a manner consistent with the Company's past practices and with his duties and responsibilities set forth in the Employment Agreement, but subject to the limitations set forth in this Agreement or the Employment Agreement.

(b) No Other Limitations. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, except as expressly set forth in this Section 13, or as required by the Purchaser's implied contractual covenant of good faith and fair dealing, this Agreement shall impose no restrictions on the operation of the Business or the Company by the Purchaser after the Closing or on the operations, business or activities of the Purchaser after the Closing; provided, however, that the Purchaser shall not act in an arbitrary or commercially unreasonable manner in the conduct or operation of the Business if such action would be reasonably likely to materially interfere with the achievement of the Net Profit targets set forth in Section 4. Without limiting the foregoing, each of the Sellers acknowledges and agrees that after the Closing, (i) the Company will operate under the name "InnerWorkings," (ii) all financial statements, billing matters, payment of accounts payables, collections of accounts receivables, bank accounts, credit facilities and other financial operations or activities of the Business will be consolidated with the Purchaser, (iii) the Company will transition to using the Purchaser's operational and financial technology, and in connection with such transition, Purchaser shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to insure that no material deterioration in the timeliness and accuracy of order processing, job tracking, billing, collections or the availability of budgeted operating capital results from such transition, and (iv) the Purchaser may, in its sole discretion, dissolve or terminate the Company and operate the Business as a division of the Purchaser.

14. Fees and Expenses. Except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement, the Sellers, on the one hand, and Purchaser, on the other hand, will each bear their own costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, and the Sellers shall pay any legal, accounting or other costs or expenses incurred by the Company in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby provided, however, Purchaser shall be solely responsible for the fees payable to any accounting firm that conducts an audit of the Company at the request of Purchaser.

15. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois, without regard to the conflicts of law rules thereof.

16. Assignment. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns, but will not be assignable or delegable by the Sellers, on the one hand, or the Purchaser, on the other hand, without the prior written consent of the other parties hereto, provided, however, that the Purchaser shall be entitled to assign its rights and benefits hereto, without the consent of the Sellers (a) to an affiliate of the Purchaser so long as the affiliate assumes the Purchaser's rights hereunder and (b) in connection with a sale of all or substantially all of such Purchaser's assets so long as the assignee assumes the Purchaser's obligations hereunder; provided, further, however, no such assignment shall limit the Purchaser's obligations hereunder which shall remain primary together with any such assignee.

17. Amendments and Waiver. This Agreement, or any provision hereof, may be amended or waived; provided that any such amendment or waiver will be binding on the parties hereto only if such amendment or waiver is set forth in a writing executed by the party or parties to be bound by such amendment or waiver. The waiver by any party hereto of a breach of any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any other breach of this Agreement or any of the documents, agreements and instruments executed in connection herewith or contemplated hereby.

18. Counterparts and Facsimiles. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall have the force and effect of an original and such counterparts together shall constitute one and the same instrument. A facsimile signature shall be acceptable as an original for all purposes.

19. Notices. All notices, consents and other communications to be sent or given hereunder by any of the parties shall in every case be in writing and shall be deemed properly served if (a) delivered personally, (b) delivered by a recognized overnight courier service, or (c) sent by facsimile transmission with a confirmation copy sent by overnight courier, in each case, to the parties at the addresses and facsimile numbers as set forth below or at such other addresses and facsimile numbers as may be furnished in writing:

exclusive agent (the "Sellers' Representative"), to act on behalf of such Seller in connection with, and incident to the transactions contemplated hereby. In such capacity, the Sellers' Representative shall have the sole and exclusive power and authority to perform all actions required or permitted to be performed by the Sellers' Representative on behalf of Sellers under this Agreement.

A decision, act, consent or instruction of the Sellers' Representative shall constitute a decision, act, consent or instruction from all of Sellers and shall be final, binding and conclusive upon each Seller. Purchaser may rely upon any such decision, act, consent or instruction of the Sellers' Representative as being the decision, act, consent or instruction of every such Seller. Purchaser is hereby relieved from any liability to any persons for any acts done by them in accordance with such decision, act, consent or instruction of the Sellers' Representative.
