AFFIDAVIT OF EXTRAORDINARY CONDITION

I, Jim Trevor, do hereby depose and state as follows:

1. I am the General Manager, US Commercial Operations and Vice President, Cardiac Surgery Sales Region for COBE Cardiovascular, Inc. located in Arvada, Colorado
2. I set forth the following facts based on personal knowledge:
3. A good faith effort was made to deliver the attached Certificate of Amendment of Certificate of Incorporation to the Delaware Secretary of State's office on a timely basis (to be effective on January 1, 2007 at 12:00 a.m. EDST). The timely delivery of such document was prevented by a series of two (2) blizzards that converged on the State of Colorado beginning Wednesday, December 20, 2006. In the absence of these severe weather conditions, the attached Certificate of Amendment would have been presented for filing in the office of the Delaware Secretary of State on a timely basis.
4. More specifically, a Certificate of Amendment of Certificate of Incorporation for COBE Cardiovascular, Inc., all in proper form for filing, was prepared for mailing on December 20, 2006. Because of the blizzard conditions in the Denver metropolitan area and throughout the State of Colorado, Governor Bill Owens verbally declared a Statewide Disaster Emergency on December 20, 2006. This verbal declaration was followed by an official Executive Order issued on December 27, 2006 implementing this Statewide Disaster Emergency. A second blizzard converged on the State of Colorado on December 28, 2006; and, on this same day, the Governor verbally declared a second Statewide Disaster Emergency. The second Executive Order invoking this Statewide Emergency Disaster was issued that same day, December 28, 2006. The Statewide Disaster Emergency order issued by the Governor is still effective and will not be retired until the last of the two Executive Orders expires. The December 28, 2006 Executive Order will not expire until January 27, 2007 (30 days after it was issued). The blizzard conditions impacting the State of Colorado caused the United States Post Office and other mail carriers to suspend delivery/carrier services beginning Thursday, December 21, 2006. This suspension of delivery services continued throughout the weekend comprising the dates of Saturday, December 23, 2006 and Sunday, December 24, 2006. All mail services were closed Monday, December 25, 2006 in honor of the Christmas holiday. Mail delivery in the Denver metropolitan area continued to be impacted with the backlog of holiday deliveries and a subsequent blizzard that surfaced on Wednesday, December 27, 2006. Absent the blizzard conditions and suspension of mail delivery/carrier services, the attached Certificate Amendment of Certificate of Incorporation would have been promptly submitted.
5. Pursuant to 6 Del.C. 15-105 (c)(6), I request that the Delaware Secretary of State establish the date and time of the good faith effort made to deliver the attached document as December 29, 2006 at 9 a.m. EST (contemporaneous with the filing of the Certificate of Amendment of Certificate of Incorporation) as the filing date and time of instrument.
