RESTRAINING NOTICE TO JUDGMENT
DEBTOR

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

To: Members Only Licensing Group
205 West 39th Street, 5th Floor
New York, NY 10018

WHEREAS, in an action in the Supreme Court of New York, county of New York, between Kalow & Springut LLP as Plaintiff(s) and Members Only Licensing Group, as defendant(s) who are all the parties named in the action, a judgment was entered on June 17, 2010 in favor of Kalow & Springut LLP judgment creditor(s) and against Members Only Licensing Group, judgment debtor(s) in the amount of $ 76,629.08 of which $ 76,629.08 together with interest from 6/17/2010 remains due and unpaid.

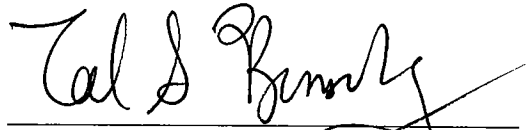

TAKE NOTICE that pursuant to CPLR §5222(b), which is set forth in full herein, you are hereby forbidden to make or suffer any sale, assignment, or transfer of, or any interference with any property in which you have an interest, except as therein provided.

Section 5222(b) Effect of restraint; prohibition of transfer; duration. A judgment debtor or obligor served with a restraining notice is forbidden to make or suffer any sale, assignment, transfer or interference with any property in which he or she has an interest, except as set forth in subdivisions (h) and (i) of this section, and except upon direction of the sheriff or pursuant to an order of the court, until the judgment or order is satisfied or vacated. A restraining notice served upon a person other than the judgment debtor or obligor is effective only if, at the time of service, he or she owes a debt to the judgment debtor or obligor or he or she is in the possession or custody of property in which he or she knows or has reason to believe the judgment debtor or obligor has an interest, or if the judgment creditor or support collection unit has stated in the notice that a specified debt is owed by the person served to the judgment debtor or obligor or that the judgment debtor or obligor has an interest in specified property in the possession or custody of the person served. All property in which the judgment debtor or obligor is known or believed to have an interest then in and thereafter coming into the possession or custody of such a person, including any specified in the notice, and all debts of such a person, including any specified in the notice, then due and thereafter coming due to the judgment debtor or obligor, shall be subject to the notice except as set forth in subdivisions (h) and (i) of this section. Such a person is forbidden to make or suffer any sale, assignment or transfer of, or any interference with, any such property, or pay over or otherwise dispose of any such debt, to any person other than the sheriff or the support collection unit, except as set forth in subdivisions (h) and (i) of this section, and except upon direction of the sheriff or pursuant to an order of the court, until the expiration of one year after the notice is served upon him or her, or until the judgment or order is satisfied or vacated, whichever event first occurs.

A judgment creditor or support collection unit which has specified personal property or debt in a restraining notice shall be liable to the owner of the property or the person to whom the debt is owed, if other than the judgment debtor or obligor, for any damages sustained by reason of the restraint. If a garnishee served with a restraining notice withholds the payment of money belonging or owed to the judgment debtor or obligor in an amount equal to twice the amount due on the judgment or order, the restraining notice is not effective as to other property or money.

TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that disobedience of this Restraining Notice is punishable as a contempt of court.
