DECLARATION RELATIVE TO CHANGE OF NAME

Commissioner for Trademarks
2900 Crystal Drive
Arlington, VA 22202-3515

Madam:

The undersigned declares, under penalty of perjury, that the following is true and correct:

1. I, Brian Benson, am Secretary of Daymon Interactions Inc., a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware, having an office and place of business at 700 Fairfield Avenue, Stamford, Connecticut 06902-7526. I have held such office since at least as early as February 12, 2009 when the corporation now known as Daymon Interactions Inc. was known as Daymon Worldwide Demos, Inc.

2. It is my understanding that, on February 12, 2009, instructions were given to Amster Rothstein & Ebenstein LLP of 90 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10016, trademark counsel to the corporation then known as Daymon Worldwide Demos, Inc., to file an application to register the mark TRIPLE POINT for services in International Trademark Class 35 in the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Apparently, there was a miscommunication about the identification of the name of applicant with respect to whether there was a comma after the word "Demos." To my knowledge, Daymon Worldwide Demos Inc. never did have a comma after the word "Demos" as part of its corporate name, and as far as I am aware, there never was a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware which did have such a comma. It is further my understanding that the filing by our trademark counsel with the "," after "Demos" was done on our behalf and without any deceptive intent.

3. I am further aware that, on or about the second day of June, 2009. Daymon Worldwide Demos Inc. changed its name to Daymon Interactions, Inc. and that a Certificate of Change of Name with respect to that was filed with the Delaware Secretary of State on or about June 2, 2009.

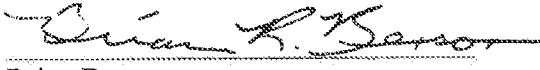

4. I am further aware that, on or about the 28th day of October 2009. a further change of name certificate was filed with the Delaware Secretary of State deleting the comma and changing the name of the corporation to "Daymon Interactions Inc."

5. I further understand that, when our trademark counsel was authorized to file a Statement Of Use with respect to the captioned mark that became that U.S. service mark registration, such trademark counsel was not advised of either of the name changes from Daymon Worldwide Demos Inc. to Daymon Interactions, Inc. or of the subsequent change to Daymon Interactions Inc. The failure to advise our trademark counsel of those name changes was made without deceptive intent by the proprietor of the current registration.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.

Executed on: 8/25/, 2010
Stamford, Connecticut

Brian Benson, currently and at all times relevant stated in this Declaration the Secretary of Daymon Worldwide Demos Inc. and of Daymon Interactions, Inc. and of Daymon Interactions Inc.

DECLARATION RELATIVE TO CHANGE OF NAME

Commissioner for Trademarks
2900 Crystal Drive
Arlington, VA 22202-3515

Madam:

Philip H. Gottfried has declared under penalty of perjury, that the following is true to the best of his knowledge, information and belief:

1. I am now, and at all relevant times recited in this declaration have been, a partner in Amster Rothstein & Ebenstein LLP, 90 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10016, trademark counsel to the proprietor of the above-identified registration.

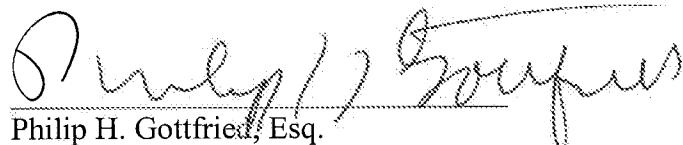

2. On or about February 12, 2009, on behalf of Amster Rothstein & Ebenstein LLP's client, then named Daymon Worldwide Demos Inc., we filed an application to register the mark TRIPLE POINT in the United States Patent and Trademark Office in International Class 35, application serial No. 77/669,164. Apparently, there was a miscommunication with our client and we were unaware at the time that in fact the true and correct name of the client was at that time Daymon Worldwide Demos Inc. The inclusion by us of the “,” after “Demos” in identification of the applicant was through inadvertence and done without deceptive intent.

3. On or about January 28, 2010, upon receipt of instructions from our client to do so, Amster Rothstein & Ebenstein LLP caused a Statement Of Use and an appropriate specimen of use to be filed in the United States Patent and Trademark Office with respect to the '164 application which resulted in the issuance of the captioned registration. At that time, through inadvertence and without deceptive intent, we prepared and filed the Statement Of Use in the name of Daymon Worldwide Demos, Inc., being unaware at that time that there had been subsequent name changes, first to Daymon Interactions, Inc. and subsequently to Daymon Interactions Inc.

4. To the best of my knowledge, information and belief, the erroneous inclusion of the “,” in the identification of the original applicant and the filing of the Statement of Use in the incorrect name of the corporation that is currently known as Daymon Interactions Inc., was done through inadvertence and without any deceptive intent and was merely a misdesignation of the corporate name of the original applicant and current owner of the subject registration.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.
