Re: Baldwin Piano, Fifth Third Bank
Release of Security Agreement

Dear Sir or Madam:

This office represents Gibson Guitar Corp., and we are attempting to assist them in securing a release from Fifth Third Bank related to a commercial loan. Gibson Guitar Corp. is the successor-in-interest to Baldwin Piano, Inc. We understand that Fifth Third Bank and Baldwin Piano entered into a commercial loan that included a security agreement. The security agreement is understood to have conveyed security interests to certain items of intellectual property from Baldwin Piano to Fifth Third Bank.

We believe that the agreement has been paid in full and are seeking to obtain the release. However, the problem that we have found is a lack of specific information about the particular loan. We do not have a specific loan number for the agreement. However, we do know the approximate date of the agreement as being June 15, 1989. This information was located at the United States Patent and Trademark Office. We have also conducted an extensive search of UCC filings across the United States, and have obtained numerous filings made by Fifth Third that appear to be near the June 15, 1989 date. We thought that perhaps for this initial letter, the filing in Ohio might be sufficient. However, we can provide you with more information on the other states' UCC filings if you believe that might be helpful.

For Ohio, we located an original filing on July 6, 1989, with a filing number of AB19661. We also located a partial release on November 8, 1990, with a filing number of 993353, and an amendment of the same date, filing number 993353.

We are hopeful that with this information you can locate the relevant file and determine if a release was ever completed by Fifth Third Bank. If so we would request a copy. If you determine that a release was not completed, we have taken the liberty of enclosing a release for your review.

Thank you for any assistance you can provide, it is greatly appreciated. If you have any questions, or would like us to provide additional information about the UCC filings in the other states, please feel free to contact the undersigned.

Cordially,
