- (h) The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement has been duly authorized by all necessary corporate or other action and do not contravene any law, rule, regulation or any judgment, decree or order of any tribunal or any agreement to which the Grantor is a party or by which any of its property is bound.

- (b) Upon the request of the Secured Party, the Grantor shall execute and deliver, and have recorded, any and all agreements, instruments, documents and papers as the Secured Party may request to evidence the Secured Party's security interest and lien in any of the IP Collateral (including, without limitation, filings of financing statements or other documents with the California Department of State, and recordal of this Agreement or other documents at the PTO, the Copyright Office or any similar office), and the Grantor hereby constitutes and appoints the Secured Party as its attorney-in-fact to execute and file all such writings for the foregoing purposes pursuant to Section 9 below; provided, however, the Secured Party's taking of such action shall not be a condition to the creation or perfection of the security interest created hereby. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Grantor authorizes the Secured Party to modify this Agreement, without the necessity of any further approval or signature from the Grantor, by amending EXHIBITS A, B or C to include any such additional property or rights described in Section 4(g), above.

6. Grantor's Rights to Enforce the IP Collateral: Prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Grantor shall have the exclusive right to sue for past, present and future infringement of the IP Collateral including the right to seek injunctions and/or money damages, in an effort by the Grantor to protect the IP Collateral against encroachment by third parties, provided, however:

- (a) The Grantor first provide the Secured Party with written notice of the Grantor's intention to so sue for enforcement of any IP Collateral.
- (b) Any money damages awarded or received by the Grantor on account of such suit (or the threat of such suit) shall constitute IP Collateral and shall be applied toward payment of the amounts owed to the Secured Party.

7. Secured Party's Actions to Protect the IP Collateral: In the event of (a) the Grantor's failure to cure any failure by the Grantor to perform any of the Grantor's obligations hereunder; and/or (b) the occurrence and continuance of any Event of Default, the Secured Party, acting in its own name or in that of the Grantor, may (but shall not be required to) act in the Grantor's place and stead and/or in the Secured Party's own right in connection therewith. In the event of any material infringement by a third party of any of the IP Collateral, the Grantor shall promptly notify the Secured Party of such infringement and shall take all reasonably necessary actions to obtain the cessation of such infringement and recover all damages resulting therefrom, including, after and during the continuance of an Event of Default, such action as the Secured Party deems reasonably necessary. If the Grantor shall fail to take such action within fourteen (14) calendar days after such notice is given to the Secured Party, the Secured Party may upon notice to the Grantor, but shall not be required to, itself take such action in the name of the Grantor, and the Grantor hereby appoints the Secured Party the true and lawful attorney-in-fact of the Grantor pursuant to Section 9 below to commence and pursue judicial proceedings in any court or before any other tribunal to enjoin and recover damages for such infringement, any such damages due to the Grantor, net of costs and attorneys' fees reasonably incurred, to be applied to the reduce the amounts owed by the Grantor to the Secured Party under the Loan Agreement or any other agreement between the Grantor and the Secured Party.

Any person may conclusively rely upon an affidavit of an officer of the Secured Party that an Event of Default has occurred and that the Secured Party is authorized to exercise such rights and remedies. The Secured Party shall give to the Grantor at least ten (10) days' prior written notice (which the Grantor agrees is "reasonable notification" under the Uniform Commercial Code) of the time and place of any public sale of the IP Collateral or of the time after which any private sale or any other intended disposition is to be made. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Grantor hereby waives any and all rights that it may have to judicial hearing in advance of the enforcement of any of the Secured Party's rights hereunder, including, without limitation, its rights following any Event of Default to take immediate possession of the IP Collateral and exercise its rights with respect thereto.

The Secured Party shall not be required to marshal any present or future security for including, but not limited to, this Agreement and the IP Collateral, or guaranties of repayment of any amounts owed to the Secured Party or any of them, or to resort to such security or guaranties in any particular order; and all of the rights hereunder and in respect of such security and guaranties shall be cumulative and in addition to all other rights, however existing or arising. To the extent that it lawfully may, the Grantor hereby agrees that it will not invoke any law relating to the marshalling of collateral which might cause delay in or impede the enforcement of the Secured Party's rights under this Agreement or any other instrument evidencing any of the amounts owed and any other obligations of the Grantor to the Secured Party or by which any of same is secured or guaranteed, and to the extent that it lawfully may, the Grantors hereby irrevocably waives the benefits of all such laws.

- (b) The within grant of a power of attorney, being coupled with an interest, shall be irrevocable until this Agreement is terminated by a duly authorized officer of the Secured Party.
- (c) The Secured Party shall not be obligated to do any of the acts or to exercise any of the powers authorized by Section 9(a), but if the Secured Party elects to do any such act or to exercise any of such powers, it shall not be accountable for more than it actually receives as a result of such exercise of power, and shall not be responsible to the Grantor for any act or omission to act except for any act or omission to act as to which there is a final determination made in a judicial proceeding (in which proceeding the Secured Party has had an opportunity to be heard) which determination includes a specific finding that the subject act or omission to act had been grossly negligent or in actual bad faith.

10. Secured Party's Rights: Any use by the Secured Party of the IP Collateral as authorized hereunder in connection with the exercise of the Secured Party's rights and remedies under this Agreement and under the Loan Agreement, shall be at least coextensive with the Grantor's rights thereunder and with respect thereto and without any liability for royalties or other related charges.

11. Further Assurances: The Grantor shall, at the Grantor's sole expense, do, make, execute and deliver all such additional and further acts, things, deeds, assurances, and instruments, in each case in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Secured Party, relating to the creation, validity, or perfection of the security interests and assignments provided for in this Agreement the Uniform Commercial Code or other laws of the United States or the State of California or of any other countries or states as the Secured Party may from time to time reasonably request, and shall take all such other action as the Secured Party may reasonably require to more completely vest in and assure to the Secured Party its rights hereunder or in any of the IP Collateral, and the Grantor hereby irrevocably authorizes the Secured Party or its designee, at the Grantor's expense, to execute such documents, and file such financing statements with respect thereto with or without the Grantor's signature, as the Secured Party may deem appropriate; provided that the Secured Party shall deliver to the Grantor copies of all such financing statements and shall terminate at the Secured Party's expense all such filings made in error. In fulfilling its responsibility for the prosecution, defense, enforcement or any other necessary or desirable actions in connection with the IP Collateral, the Grantor shall hold the Secured Party and its affiliates and their respective officers, directors, managers, members, shareholders and representatives harmless from any and all costs, damages, liabilities and expenses that may be incurred by any of them in connection with the Secured Party's interest in the IP Collateral or any other action or failure to act in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

Waivers: Except for notices specifically provided for herein, the Grantor hereby expressly waives demand, notice, protest, notice of acceptance of this Agreement, notice of loans made, credit extended, collateral received or delivered or other action taken in reliance hereon and all other demands and notices of any description. With respect both to the amounts owed to the Secured Party and any of the IP Collateral, the Grantor assents to any extension or postponement of the time of payment or any other indulgence, to any substitution of any party or person primarily or secondarily liable, to the acceptance of partial payment thereon and the settlement, compromising or adjusting of any thereof, all in such manner and at such time or times as the Secured Party may deem advisable. The Secured Party shall not have any duty as to the protection of the IP Collateral or any income thereon, nor as to the preservation or rights against prior parties, nor as to the preservation of any rights pertaining thereto. The Secured Party may exercise its rights with respect to the IP Collateral without resorting or regard to other collateral or sources of reimbursement for liability. The Secured Party shall not be deemed to have waived any of its rights unless such waiver be in writing and signed by the Secured Party. No delay or omission on the part of the Secured Party in exercising any right shall operate as a waiver of any right on any future occasion. All rights and remedies of the Secured Party with respect to the amounts owed to the Secured Party and/or the IP Collateral, whether evidenced hereby or by any other instrument or papers, shall be cumulative and may be exercised singularly or concurrently.

13. Releases: The Grantor and the Secured Party may from time to time agree in writing to the release of certain of the IP Collateral from the security interest created hereby.
