The Appraisal Right

1. The appraisal right can be vested.

According to the Commercial Code, this Company can vest the appraisal right in the appointed officers and/or staffs in compliance with the special resolution decided by the general meeting of shareholders.

2. Qualified person(s) whom the appraisal right can be vested.

The appraisal right can be vested to the officer(s) and staff(s) who has contributed or would be able to contribute to establishment, management and/or technical renovation of corporation; or the appointed officer(s) and/or staff(s) who is listed in Clause 84, subsection 6-1 of Enforcement Decree of the Securities and Exchange Act, but shall not include:

Registered No.	332024

- 1) Shareholder(s) who owns 10/100 of the total number of issued shares except shares without voting right;
- 2) A person who practically exercises one's influence over Company's main management affairs such as nomination or dismissal of Director(s) or Auditor(s); or
- 3) The spouse and/or a lineal ascendant [descendant] of person(s) who is listed in 1) and 2) above.

3. The classes and the number of shares which can be issued or transferred according to exercise of the appraisal right.

The shares which would be delivered according to exercise of the appraisal right (These shares mean the estimated standard of the difference between the exercise price of the appraisal right and the market value when this difference is delivered as the treasury stock.) are registered common stocks or registered preferred stocks.

4. Term for exercise of the appraisal right

The appraisal right shall be exercised within five (5) years after the lapse of three (3) years from the day of the general meeting of shareholders in which the appraisal right is vested.

5. By resolution of the Board of Directors, the appraisal of right can be revoked.

According to the resolution of the Board of Directors, vesting of the appraisal right can be revoked, if:

- 1) the officer(s) and/or staff(s) concerned voluntarily retires or resigns within three (3) years from the day on which the appraisal right has been vested in him/her;
- 2) the officer(s) and/or staff(s) concerned intentionally or negligently causes damage to the Company;
- 1) the appraisal right cannot be exercised due to the insolvency or dissolution of the Company; or
- 2) the ground(s) for revocation provided by the agreement for grant of the appraisal right occurs.
