WARRANTIES AND REPRESENTATIONS

I, LAURENCE J. PINO, individually, and as former President of Debtor Telligenix Corporation, President of Envergent Corporation, President of Saris Technologies, Inc., President of Dynetech Management Corporation, as well as their affiliates, make the following statements under penalty of perjury:

1. Debtor Telligenix Corporation owns all of the items listed in Exhibit "A" and Exhibit "B" (the "Property").

2. The Property includes 95 shares of Saris Technologies, Inc. ("Saris").

3. Saris Technologies, Inc. is a technology development company that is responsible for developing web platforms for individuals who utilized the training programs of the Debtor, Dynetech, and related entities. Saris Technologies, Inc. continues to service these web platforms. Saris Technologies, Inc. owns the URLs epraisal.com and saristech.com. Saris Technologies, Inc. also owns seventy-nine percent (79%) of Epraisal.com, Inc.

4. Saris does not presently generate a profit or a positive cash flow; nor has Saris ever in the past generated a profit or a positive cash flow.

5. Saris does not presently make any distributions to its shareholders; nor has Saris ever in the past made any distributions to shareholders.

6. Saris has more liabilities than assets, and it is funded through outside capital contributions. In the absence of these capital contributions, Saris would not be able to fund its payroll or operating expenses, and it would have to be shut down.

7. On September 1, 2010, 23.75 shares of Saris stock (or 20% of Saris stock) were transferred to Damian Scott. Telligenix Corporation owns the other 80% of the outstanding shares of Saris.

8. Debtor Telligenix Corporation owns 100% of the outstanding shares of Emerald Corporation stock.

9. Emerald Capital Corporation has been dissolved, having terminated its business operations in 2004. Emerald Capital Corporation was intended to be a capital provider of services to developing companies.

10. The assets of Emerald Capital Corporation consist of the following: (1) International Acceptance Corp., which owns a small portfolio of bad debts, which are uncollectible; and (2) a website, the URL of which was transferred prior to the filing of Telligenix Corporation's bankruptcy petition.

11. Emerald Capital Corporation has never made any distributions to its shareholders. Emerald Corporation stock has no value today and will have no value in the foreseeable future.

12. There is no balance sheet for Emerald Capital Corporation.

13. I have performed a diligent search to determine whether the Debtor or any of its affiliates, in connection with offering a product or service, disclosed to an individual a policy prohibiting the transfer of personally identifiable information about individuals to persons not affiliated with the debtor, and to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, no such policy was in effect on October 8, 2009, the date of the commencement of the case.

14. The Database Records identified in Exhibit B consist of names, addresses, phone numbers, and/or e-mail addresses of approximately 1.7 million individuals (collected from mid-2000 through early 2009) who attended or showed an interest in the educational products offered by the Debtor. These individuals include potential customer prospects, and those who have engaged in business with the Debtor.

15. eVoyager Software (as identified in Exhibit B) is software that was developed in-house by the Debtor and related entities to manage live sales events. The software allows the registration of individuals for workshops and the subsequent transfer of information to a central database. The software is also able to track the booking of hotels through an event planning module.

16. I agree that property of the estate not being sold pursuant to the Motion to Sell Property of the Estate to an Insider, Subject to All Liens, Claims, Encumbrances, and Interests, Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363(b) ("Motion") may be stored at the warehouse located at 102 West Pines Avenue, Suite 10, Orlando, FL 32806 through January 31, 2011, regardless of who is the successful purchaser of the Property (as defined in the Motion), that the Trustee and/or her representatives will be allowed access to the warehouse during reasonable business hours, and that the bankruptcy estate will not be responsible for any storage, rent, or security costs for accessing the warehouse and the corporate office locations.

17. I agree that the sale of the Property shall not in any way extinguish or create a defense to any claims or causes of action held by the bankruptcy estate, and the bankruptcy estate shall retain any and all rights and causes of action to the same extent and degree as existed prior to the sale of the Property.

18. I have personal knowledge of the facts and representation contained herein. To the best of my knowledge, information and belief, the statements and representations herein are true, accurate, and correct.

19. I recognize that there is a limited amount of verifiable information regarding certain of the intangible assets being sold, and that the Trustee is relying on the statements, representations, and warranties contained herein in determining the value of those assets. I acknowledge that the Trustee's decision to sell the Property (as defined in the Motion), as well as the Court's approval of the proposed sale, is based on the statements, representations, and warranties contained herein. I understand that, given the limited amount of information that is obtainable from other sources, and based on my position as an insider of the Debtor, I am expected to be forthright and candid in providing information regarding the Property. I further acknowledge that, if the Trustee discovers evidence tending to show that any statement, representation, or warranty herein is inaccurate or incomplete, then the Court may rescind the sale in whole or in part.

I declare under penalty of perjury, 28 U.S.C. § 1746, that the foregoing is true and correct.
