TRADEMARK ASSIGNMENT NUNC PRO TUNC

1. I, Sasha Muir, Manager of butter LONDON, LLC, a Washington limited liability company ("Assignee") founder and former Manager and CEO of butter LONDON, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company at all relevant times ("Assignor"), have personal knowledge of the facts described below of the assignment by Assignor to Assignee of the trademarks referred to below, and the application therefore, and make the following statements to the best of my knowledge in this capacity.

2. Assignor was the owner of the trademark subject to the registration listed in Schedule A (collectively, the "Mark") as of March 28, 2006; the Mark was used by Assignor in connection with the goods covered by those registrations at that time.

3. Assignee acquired the Mark, associated business, common law rights and all the appurtenant goodwill thereto from Assignor on March 28, 2006.

4. Assignor thereafter ceased to exist as a limited liability company, as Assignee had taken over Assignor's business as successor in interest.

5. As of March 28, 2006, Assignee was and is the owner in fact of the Mark. 6. Assignor has made no other assignment or transfer of the Mark to any other third party other than Assignee, and as of March 28, 2006 the Mark remain the assets of the Assignee.

7. In consideration of the foregoing and for good and valuable consideration, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, Assignor confirms nunc pro tunc the assignment to Assignee as of March 28, 2006, all its right, title, and interest in and to the Mark, together with the goodwill symbolized by the Mark and all business relating thereto.
