CORRECTION OF NAME OF OWNER

Rapid Pathogen Screening, Inc. filed a US trademark application, Serial Number 76/664,198, for the mark "RPS" on August 4, 2006.

At the time, the official company name was Rapid Pathogen Screening, Inc., as evidenced by the attached official change of name document dated August 2, 2005. The official company name was never RPS Inc.

"RPS Inc" was used as an abbreviation of the full company name, Rapid Pathogen Screening, Inc. The parties that filed the trademark application for "RPS" were not aware that the official company name must be used on these filings and instead used the abbreviation. Consequently, the applicant (now registrant) was mistakenly listed as RPS Inc. for the application.

Since the company name has been Rapid Pathogen Screening, Inc. since before the date of filing of the application and the name has never changed since the filing, the name of the registrant should be listed as "Rapid Pathogen Screening, Inc."
