Transfer Statement

On March 13, 2006, DNAPrint Genomics, Inc., a Utah corporation with a mailing address of 900 Cocconut Avenue, Sarasota, FL 34236, ("Debtor") entered into a Security Agreement (the "Security Agreement") with Dutchess Private Equities Fund, Ltd., a Cayman Islands exempted company with a mailing address of 50 Commonwealth Ave., Suite 2, Boston, MA 02116, ("Dutchess"), under which Debtor granted Dutchess a security interest in collateral, including but not limited to, all of Debtor's intellectual property assets, including the U.S. and foreign patents and patent applications identified in Exhibit A, and the registered U.S. trademarks identified in Exhibit B (collectively, the "Collateral").

On April 25, 2009, DNA Investors, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company with a mailing address of 10730 SE Kimberly Ct., Happy Valley, OR 97086, ("Secured Party") and Dutchess entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement, through which Secured Party obtained all of Dutchess's security interests in the Collateral.

Subsequent to April 25, 2009, Debtor defaulted under the Security Agreement, and Secured Party then exercised its post-default remedies with respect to the Collateral under Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code. By exercising those post-default remedies, DNA Diagnostics Center, Inc., an Ohio corporation with a mailing address of One DDC Way, Fairfield, OH 45014, ("Transferee") has acquired Secured Party's rights to all of Debtor's intellectual property assets and thereby obtained full ownership of those intellectual property assets, including those identified in Exhibits A and B.
