7. corporation, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director or officer of the corporation, or is or was serving while a director or officer of the corporation at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee, agent, fiduciary, or other representative of another corporation (for profit or not-for-profit), limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise, against all liabilities, expenses (including without limitation attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, excise taxes, and amounts paid in settlement in connection with the action or proceeding unless the act or failure to act by the person giving rise to the claim for indemnification is determined by a court to have constituted willful misconduct or recklessness. (c) Notwithstanding anything in this article 8 to the contrary, the corporation shall not be obligated to indemnify any person under article 8(a) or advance expenses under article 8(b) with respect to proceedings, claims, or actions commenced by a person, other than mandatory counterclaims and affirmative defenses.

(e) The duties of the corporation to indemnify and to advance expenses to a director or officer pursuant to this article 8 shall be in the nature of a contract between the corporation and each such person, and no amendment or repeal of any provision of this article 8 shall alter, to the detriment of the person, the right of the person to the advancement of expenses or indemnification related to a claim based on an act or failure to act that took place prior to the amendment or repeal or the termination of the service of the person as a director or officer, whichever is earlier.
