Trademark Assignment Agreement

This is a Trademark Assignment Agreement ("Agreement") between Camris Technologies Corporation, a Texas corporation ("Camris") and The Texas A&M University System ("System"). This Agreement is effective on the July 30, 2012 ("Effective Date"). Throughout this Agreement, "Party" means either Camris or System; "Parties" means Camris and System.

Recitals

- A. On July 10, 2012, shareholders representing 83% of the shares in Camris authorized the winding-up and dissolution of Camris.
- B. As part of this process, the System agreed to pay an invoice in the amount of $ 966 to Bracewell & Giuliani LLP, a law firm that Camris had hired to prosecute the AIP™ trademark.
- C. Additionally, the System has agreed to remunerate Camris for any other reasonable, demonstrable expenses that Camris had assumed to prosecute the AIP™ trademark.
- D. In exchange for System's agreement to pay the foregoing amounts, Camris agreed to assign to System ownership of the AIP™ trademark.
- E. Given that shareholders representing 83% of the shares in Camris have authorized the winding-up and dissolution of Camris and since Camris effectively ceased operations soon after it was formed, this trademark has no value to Camris.
- F. Moreover, System's remuneration of Camris for the prosecution of this mark enables Camris to return more funds to the shareholders upon dissolution.

Accordingly, in consideration of the premises and promises hereof and the consideration set forth herein the adequacy of which the Parties acknowledge, the Parties agree as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS

In addition to any other definitions specified herein, the Parties ascribe the following meanings to the following terms:

"AIP Trademark" means (i) the mark whether or not actually issued with USPTO application serial number 85382505 and (ii) any common law or other rights to or in the AIP mark including without limitation any potential rights in foreign countries in relation to water treatment services, equipment, and chemicals.

"AIP Trademark Prosecution Expenses" means the reasonable, demonstrable expenses that Camris incurred to prosecute the AIP Trademark.

2. ASSIGNMENT

Camris hereby irrevocably and forever assigns all rights to, interest in, and title to the AIP Trademark to the System, and System now accepts such assignment.

3. CONSIDERATION

In exchange for the assignment effectuated pursuant to this Agreement, the System agrees to pay on behalf of Camris the AIP Trademark Prosecution Expenses.

4. GENERAL PROVISIONS

4.1 Binding Effect. The Agreement is binding upon and inures to the benefit of the Parties hereto, their respective executors, administrators, heirs, permitted assigns, and permitted successors in interest.

4.2 Construction. Headings are included for convenience only and will not be used to construe the Agreement. Terms in the singular shall include terms in the plural and vice-versa.

4.3 Counterparts. The Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument. A Party may evidence its execution and delivery of the Agreement by transmission of a signed copy of the Agreement via facsimile or email.

4.4 Governing Law. The Agreement will be construed and enforced in accordance with laws of the U.S. and the State of Texas, without regard to choice of law and conflicts of law principles. The Parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Texas state and federal courts to adjudicate any dispute arising under or associated with this Agreement. Exclusive venue for any such litigation shall be in Brazos County, Texas if brought in state court and the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, Houston division if brought in federal court.

4.5 Modification. Any modification of the Agreement will be effective only if it is in writing and signed by duly authorized representatives of both Parties. No modification will be made by email communications.

4.6 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions will continue in full force and effect. The Parties shall replace any invalid or unenforceable provision with a valid provision that has substantially the same legal and economic effect as the invalid or unenforceable provision. The waiver of a breach of any provision of this Agreement by the other Party will not operate or be interpreted as a waiver of any other or later breach.

4.7 Waiver. Neither Party will be deemed to have waived any of its rights under the Agreement unless the waiver is in writing and signed by such Party. No delay or omission of a Party in exercising or enforcing a right or remedy under the Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof.

4.9 Sovereign Immunity. Nothing in the Agreement shall be deemed or treated as any waiver of System's sovereign immunity.

4.10 Entire Agreement. The Agreement and any of its exhibits constitute the entire Agreement between the Parties regarding the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous written or oral agreements, representations and understandings relative to such matters.

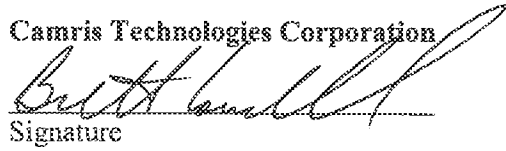

Each Party warrants and represents to the other that it has caused this Agreement to be signed by its duly authorized representative.
