This Trademark Assignment ("Trademark Assignment") is entered into as of January 26, 2015 (the "Effective Date"), by and between Tekna Solutions Inc. ("Assignor"), and Stryker Corporation, acting through its Medical Division, a Michigan corporation ("Assignee"). This Assignment is made pursuant to and in connection with the transfer of the Purchased Assets to Assignee pursuant to a certain Product Line Purchase Agreement among Assignor and Assignee dated as of the date of this Trademark Assignment (the "Purchase Agreement"). Capitalized terms not otherwise defined in this Agreement have the meanings ascribed to them in the Purchase Agreement.

Assignor is the owner of certain ideas, inventions, discoveries, improvements, technology concepts, designs, programs, works of authorship, know-how, trade secrets, business plans, customer lists or information, financial data, or other confidential or otherwise proprietary information, whether patentable or unpatentable, that relate to the Product Line and associated instruments and methods and that, as of the Effective Date have been created, discovered, acquired, conceived, reduced to practice or developed by Assignor ("Proprietary Information"). Assignor also owns certain copyrights, trademarks, services marks, trade dress, trade secrets, patent applications, patents, continuations, continuations-in-part, divisionals, substitutes, renewals, reissues or reexamination resulting therefrom, and other forms of intellectual property protection or proprietary rights available anywhere in the world, arising out of or otherwise associated with Assignor's Proprietary Information, including, but not limited to, the intellectual property identified in the table below (collectively, "Intellectual Property Rights").

Assignor has used in interstate commerce trademarks, services marks, and trade dress included in the Intellectual Property Rights in its business in connection with the Product Line and associated instruments and methods, and is the owner of common law trademark rights and other rights and interests in and to the use of the trademarks, services marks, and trade dress included in the Intellectual Property Rights (collectively, the "Trademark Rights").

For good and valuable consideration provided in connection with the sale and purchase of assets pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, the sufficiency and receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the Assignor hereby sells, assigns, and transfers to Assignee, its successors and assigns, its entire right, title and interest in and to the Trademark Rights, including but not limited to the trademark application identified below, together with the portion of all of the business to which the mark pertains, as detailed in the Purchase Agreement, which is ongoing and existing, and any business that may pertain to the mark, and together with the goodwill associated therewith. Assignor further assigns to Assignee, its successors and assigns, the entire right, title, and interest in and to all claims for damages by reason of past infringement of any such Trademark Rights, together with the right to sue for, collect, and retain the proceeds for any past, present, and future infringement of any Trademark Rights.
