EXHIBIT B
ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
KIMBERLY-CLARK WORLDWIDE, INC.

ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation is Kimberly-Clark Worldwide, Inc.

ARTICLE II

The period of existence of the corporation shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE III

The corporation is authorized to engage in any lawful activity for which corporations may be organized under Chapter 180 of the Wisconsin Statutes.

ARTICLE IV

The aggregate number of shares which the corporation shall have authority to issue is One Thousand One Hundred (1,100) shares of stock consisting of One Thousand (1,000) shares of common stock, without par value (the "Common Stock") and One Hundred (100) shares of preferred stock, without par value (the "Series A Preferred Stock").

The respective preferences, limitations, designations and relative rights of the classes of stock which the Corporation is authorized to issue are as follows:

A. Series A Preferred Stock.

The rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions granted to and imposed on the Series A Preferred Stock are as set forth below in this Article IV(A):

(1) Dividend Provisions. The holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive cumulative cash dividends, out of any assets legally available therefor at the rate of 8.0% per annum of the Liquidation Preference (as defined herein) plus accumulated and unpaid dividends thereon from and including the date of issuance to and including the date of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation. Such dividends will accrue whether or not they have been declared and whether or not there are profits, surplus or other funds of the Corporation legally available for the payment of dividends. To the extent not paid on March 30, June 30, September 30 and December 30 of each year (the "Dividend Reference Dates"), all dividends which have accrued on each share of Series A Preferred Stock outstanding during any three-month period (or shorter period in the case of the initial Dividend Reference Date) shall be accumulated and shall remain accumulated dividends with respect to each such share of Series A Preferred Stock until paid. If at any time the Corporation pays less than the total amount of dividends then accrued with respect to the Series A Preferred Stock, such payment will be distributed ratably among the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock on the basis of the number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock owned by each such holder. The Corporation may not pay any dividend on shares of Common Stock if at the time of such payment there shall be any accumulated and unpaid dividends on the shares of Series A Preferred Stock. The holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to receive any dividends declared or paid on shares of Common Stock.

(2) Liquidation Preference.

(a) In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, either voluntary or involuntary, the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive for each outstanding share of Series A Preferred Stock, prior and in preference to any distribution of any of the assets of the Corporation to the holders of the Common Stock by reason of their ownership thereof, an amount equal to (i) one hundred eighty-nine thousand and five hundred ninety-five and 74/100 dollars ($189,595.74) (the "Liquidation Preference"), plus (ii) all accrued and unpaid dividends on such Series A Preferred Stock (as adjusted for any stock dividends, combinations, splits, recapitalizations and the like with respect to such shares) for each share of Series A Preferred Stock held by them. If upon the occurrence of such event, the assets and funds thus distributed among the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock shall be insufficient to permit the payment to such holders of the full aforesaid preferential amount, then the entire assets and funds of the Corporation legally available for distribution shall be distributed ratably among the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock in proportion to the amount of such stock owned by each such holder.

(b) Upon the completion of the distribution required by subparagraph (a) of this Section 2, the remaining assets of the Corporation available for distribution to stockholders shall be distributed among the holders of the Common Stock pro rata in proportion to the number of shares of Common Stock held by each such holder.

(c) (i) For purposes of this Section 2, a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation shall be deemed to be occasioned by, and to include, without limitation, a sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Corporation.

(ii) In any of such events, if the consideration received by the Corporation is other than cash, its value will be deemed its fair market value. Any securities received as consideration shall be valued as follows:

(A) Securities not subject to investment letter or other similar restrictions on free marketability shall be valued as follows:
(1) if traded on a securities exchange or through the Nasdaq National Market, the value shall be deemed to be the average of the closing prices of the securities on such exchange over the thirty (30) day period ending three (3) days prior to the closing; (2) if actively traded over-the-counter, the value shall be deemed to be the average of the closing bid of sale prices (whichever is applicable) over the thirty (30) day period ending three (3) days prior to the closing; and (3) if there is not active public market, the value shall be the fair market value thereof, as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

(B) Securities subject to investment letter or other restrictions on free marketability (other than restrictions arising solely by virtue of a stockholder's status as an affiliate or former affiliate) shall be valued in such a manner as to make an appropriate discount from the market value determined as above in (A)(1), (2) or (3) to reflect the approximate fair market value thereof, as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

(iii) In the event the requirements of this subsection 2(c) are not complied with, the Corporation shall either:

(A) cause such closing to be postponed until such time as the requirements of Section 2 have been complied with; or

(B) cancel such transaction, in which event the rights, preferences and privileges of holders of the Series A Preferred Stock shall revert to and be same as such rights, preferences and privileges existing immediately prior to the date of the first notices referred to in subsection 2(c)(v) hereof.

(iv) The Corporation shall give each holder of record of the Series A Preferred Stock written notice of such impending transaction no later than ten (10) days prior to the stockholder meeting called to approve such transaction, or ten (10) days prior to the closing of such transaction whichever notice date is earlier. The provisions of this subsection 2(c)(iv) may be waived upon the written consent of the holders of at least a majority of the then outstanding shares of Preferred Stock.
