Section 6.13 Intellectual Property Rights.

Schedule 6.13 contains a complete and correct list of the following assets and related matters: (i) all Patents, Marks, Copyrights and domain names owned or used (pursuant to license agreements or otherwise) by the Seller in connection with the Business, and in the case of any such Intellectual Property that is so owned, the jurisdictions in or by which such assets or any of them have been registered, filed or issued and (ii) to the extent not listed on Schedule 6.13, all contracts, agreements or understandings pursuant to which the Seller has authorized any Person to use any of the Intellectual Property which is so owned. The Seller owns, possesses or licenses and as of the Closing Date will own, possess or license, all right, title and interest in and to the items of Intellectual Property that are required to conduct the Business as now conducted without conflict with the rights of others. The Seller has the sole and exclusive right to use the Intellectual Property (including applications for any of the foregoing) owned or used in connection with the Business, and no one else has any rights with respect thereto. The consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will not alter or impair any such rights. The Seller has not received any written notice or claim, and is not aware of any threat of an action or claim, of misappropriation, violation or infringement or any claim challenging or questioning the validity or effectiveness of any of the items of such Intellectual Property, and there is no valid basis for any such claim. The Seller is not liable, nor has it made any contract or arrangement whereby it may become liable, to any Person for any royalty or other compensation for use of any of the items of such Intellectual Property. None of the items of such Intellectual Property are being infringed, misappropriated or violated by any Person. All of the items of such Intellectual Property have been duly maintained and have not lapsed, expired or been abandoned.
