Michael Stamer,

Court File No.: 34-CV-14-619

Plaintiff,

vs.

Canopy Co.,

ORDER FOR SEIZURE AND DELIVERY OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Defendant.

This matter came before the Court on December 16, 2014 pursuant to the Plaintiff's motion for an order requesting possession of certain personal property owned by the Defendant, in which the Plaintiff claims a security interest. The Plaintiff is represented by Jason Lina, Attorney at Law, 215 Atlantic Avenue, P.O. Box 527, Morris, Minnesota 56267. The Defendant is represented by Amy Swedberg, Attorney at Law, 3300 Wells Fargo Center, 90 South Seventh Street, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55402.

Limited to the motion currently before the Court, it was undisputed at the Motion Hearing that the Defendant's payments on the Promissory Note are overdue and in default on their indebtedness to the Plaintiff, all as set forth in the Plaintiff's verified Complaint and the Affidavits of Michael Stamer. It is further undisputed that the Plaintiff has a validly perfected lien on the personal property specified in the Security Agreement attached to the Plaintiff's Complaint.

Based upon the Plaintiff's verified Complaint, the Court finds that the Plaintiff has established a probability of success on the merits of the Plaintiff's claim, entitling the Plaintiff to possession of the property in which it claims a security interest. The aforementioned property is located at the Defendant's premises in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Based upon the files, records, and proceedings, the Court makes the following:

ORDER

1. The items of personal property to be seized are as follows:

(a) All of the intellectual property of the Company, including, without limitation, any and all intellectual property related to the Sensus case.

2. Upon the filing of a bond in the amount of $240,000.00 by the Plaintiff, the Sheriff of Kandiyohi County or the Sheriff of any county of this State where the property may be located shall take immediate possession of all the items of personal property in which the Plaintiff holds a security interest, as hereinabove described, located at the Defendant's premises and deliver all the personal property to the Plaintiff.

3. Upon obtaining possession the Plaintiff is authorized to immediately sell or otherwise dispose of the property in a commercially reasonable manner and to apply the net proceeds of such disposition to the indebtedness claim. Any such sale or disposition of the property shall be in accordance with Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code. The Plaintiff is authorized to hold a liquidation sale in such location that the Plaintiff may determine to be in the best interest of a proper sale, including the Defendant's premises.

4. The Defendant, the Defendant's agents, and/or the Defendant's employees are hereby required to deliver the property to the sheriff of Kandiyohi County or the sheriff of any other county where the property may be located or disclose its location. If delivery is not made or the location is not disclosed, the Defendant must appear before the Court to give testimony as to the location of the property and to show cause why an Order should not be entered finding the Defendant in contempt of court for failure to deliver the property or to disclose its location.

5. If the Defendant refuses a public demand made by the sheriff of Kandiyohi County or the sheriff of any other county where the property may be located for delivery of any property concealed in a building or elsewhere, or there is no response to a public demand, the sheriff may cause the building or enclosure to be broken open and shall take the property therefrom and deliver it to the Plaintiff.

6. The Defendant shall not dispose of any collateral.

7. Until such time as the sheriff of Kandiyohi County or the sheriff of any other county where the property may be located takes possession of the property that is the subject of this action, the Defendant may not in any way use, sell, dispose of, hide, conceal, or otherwise encumber, secrete or harm such property in any way whatsoever.

BY THE COURT:

D.M. Spilsoth
Judge of District Court
