IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE

REQUEST FOR CORRECTION OF REGISTRATIONS

On or about July 29, 2016, the undersigned filed with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office evidence of the merger of Fox Chase Bank, a Pennsylvania banking corporation, with and into Univest Bank and Trust Co., also a Pennsylvania banking corporation. Such filing related to 12 different U.S. Trademark Registrations.

Unfortunately, in completing the online form for this filing, as embodied in the Trademark Assignment Cover Sheet attached as Exhibit A hereto, the undersigned inadvertently and unintentionally indicated that the “Receiving Party” – Univest Bank and Trust Co. – was a United States Chartered Bank. This was incorrect. The “Bank Plan of Merger” submitted with such filing clearly indicates that Univest Bank and Trust Co. is a Pennsylvania-chartered bank.

On behalf of the Registrant, the undersigned respectfully requests that Registrant’s jurisdiction be corrected in 10 of the 12 registrations covered by the prior filing. (Two of the original 12 registrations – Reg. No. 3874482, for the mark “SAVE AMERICA”, and Reg. No. 3905407, for the mark “WHERE AMERICA SAVES” – have passed the deadline for filing a Declaration Under Section 8, and the Registrant has no intention of making such filings during the applicable grace periods.)

In particular, each of the 10 registrations in question should be corrected to indicate that the Registrant, Univest Bank and Trust Co., is a Pennsylvania corporation. (The Registrant is actually a Pennsylvania banking corporation, but that is NOT one of the options available in the drop-down menu in the online Electronic Trademark Assignment System (“ETAS”).)

Section 7(h) of the Trademark Act provides that, “[w]hen a mistake has been made in a registration and a showing has been made that such mistake occurred in good faith through the fault of the applicant, the Director is authorized to issue a certificate of correction or, in his discretion, a new certificate upon the payment of the prescribed fee: Provided, That the correction does not involve such changes in the registration as to require republication of the mark". See also TMEP Section 1609.10(b).

Section 1609.10(b) of the Trademark Manual of Examining Procedure (the "TMEP") adds: "The owner of the registration must file a written request specifying the error, explaining how the error occurred, and showing that it occurred in good faith." "[T]he owner of a registration cannot correct a mistake if the changes would require republication of the mark", and "a correction cannot be made if it would materially alter the mark, or broaden the identification of goods/services". However, "a registration can be corrected to cure an inadvertent error in the manner in which the owner's name is set forth". Section 1609.10(b) of the TMEP includes a cross-reference to TMEP Section 1201.02(c) "for examples of correctable and non-correctable errors in identifying the owner of an application or registration".

Although TMEP Section 1201.02(c) refers primarily to trademark applications, TMEP Section 1609.10(b) provides that the reasoning of Section 1201.02(c) applies equally to trademark registrations. The Registrant respectfully submits that the change that it is requesting is permitted by and fully consistent with TMEP § 1201.02(c) which provides that, "[i]f the party applying to register the mark is in fact the owner of the mark, but there is a mistake in the manner in which the name of the applicant is set out in the application, the mistake may be corrected by amendment." As an example of the type of mistakes permitted to be corrected, TMEP § 1201.02(c)(5) provides:

- (3) Clerical errors such as the mistaken addition or omission of "The" or "Inc." in the applicant's name may be corrected by amendment.

See also TMEP § 803.06 (“an application can be amended to correct an inadvertent error in the manner in which an applicant's name is set forth ”); Cass Logistics Inc. v. McKesson Corp., 27 USPQ2d 1075 (TTAB 1993) (holding that, in the context of an opposition, “[t]he term ‘mistake’, within the context of [Trademark Rule 2.102(b)], means a mistake in the form of the potential opposer’s name or its entity type”).

A situation similar to that present here was involved in In re Techsonic Industries, Inc., in which the applicant had filed its application under the name “Allied Sports Company”. However, during the application process, it was learned that the applicant had changed its name to “Techsonic Industries, Inc.”, and that such name change had occurred prior to the date on which the application was filed. The trademark examining attorney refused registration “on the ground that the application was not filed in the name of the owner of the mark and was therefore void, ab initio”.

On appeal, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board (the “Board”) reversed. The Board agreed with the applicant that “ownership of the mark has at all times relevant to this proceeding been in the same entity and that under these circumstances a mistake in identifying the applicant is correctable by amendment”. The Board stated:

The key to the prohibition against an amendment to change the applicant . . . is that the party who applied for registration had no basis for its claim of ownership of the mark at the time application was made. One of the prime requirements for registration is that the applicant must be the owner of the mark sought to be registered. An application filed by one who is not the owner is clearly a void application. However, that is not the situation in this case. Rather, we have here a case of misidentification of the applicant/owner which is resolved by Section 802.07 [now TMEP Section 803.06] wherein it is stated that

“If the party applying to register is in fact the owner of the mark but there is a mistake in the manner in which the name of the applicant is set out, the mistake may be corrected by amendment . . .”

216 USPQ at 620.

As the Board noted in In re Techsonic Industries, “[t]he key to the prohibition against an amendment to change the applicant [or the registrant]. . . is that the party who applied for registration [or to whom the registration was issued] had no basis for its claim of ownership of the mark at the time application was made”. 216 USPQ at 620. “Case law on this point has consistently been resolved on the basis of who, in fact, owns the mark”. Id.

The present situation is substantially similar to that described in TMEP Section 1201.02(c) and discussed in In re Techsonic Industries. The jurisdiction of the Registrant as filed in the Trademark Assignment Cover Sheet was incorrect. As in In re Techsonic Industries, “the party who applied for registration [or, in this case, made the filing] had [a] basis for its claim of ownership of the mark at the time application was made”. In such circumstances, because the Registrant has always been the owner of these marks, amendment is proper and should be permitted.

The Registrant respectfully submits that the error in this case was inadvertent and unintentional and was made in good faith. The change requested by the Registrant -- the change of its jurisdiction from “United States Chartered Bank” to “Pennsylvania corporation” -- would not require republication of any of these marks, would not materially alter any of these marks, and would not broaden the identification of services covered by any of these registrations.

Enclosed with this Petition is a Declaration under 37 C.F.R. §2.20, executed by the undersigned, confirming that the error in this case was inadvertent and unintentional and was made in good faith.

Accordingly, the Registrant respectfully requests that the requested correction be made to all 10 of the affected registrations and the records of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.

Respectfully submitted,

DECLARATION

The undersigned, Tristram R. Fall, III, declares that he is the Attorney-of-Record for Uninvest Bank and Trust Co. (the "Registrant"); that the Registrant is the owner of record of the 10 U.S. Trademark Registrations set forth on Exhibit A hereto (the "Registrations"); that, on or about July 29, 2016, the undersigned filed with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office evidence of the merger of Fox Chase Bank, a Pennsylvania banking corporation, with and into Uninvest Bank and Trust Co., also a Pennsylvania banking corporation; that the Trademark Assignment Cover Sheet for this filing incorrectly indicates that the "Receiving Party" -- Uninvest Bank and Trust Co. -- was a United States Chartered Bank; that the Registrant is, in fact, a Pennsylvania corporation; that this Declaration is being filed in connection with a Request for Correction of Registration with respect to the Registrations; that that such Request seeks to amend the Registrations so that the jurisdiction of the Registrant is changed from "United States Chartered Bank" to "Pennsylvania corporation"; that, in filing the Trademark Assignment Cover Sheet through the Trademark Office's online Electronic Trademark Assignment System, the undersigned mistakenly indicated that the Registrant was a United States Chartered Bank rather than a Pennsylvania corporation; that such error was only discovered recently; and that such error was inadvertent and unintentional and was made in good faith.

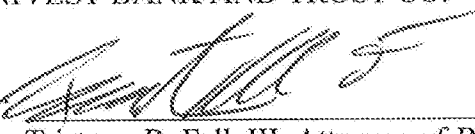

The undersigned, being hereby warned that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under 18 U.S.C. §1001, and that such willful false statement may jeopardize the validity of this document, declares that he is properly authorized to execute this document on behalf of the Registrant, and all statements made of his own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true.
