RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
TRANSTECTOR SYSTEMS, INC.

ARTICLE I

The name of this corporation is Transtector Systems, Inc.

ARTICLE II

The purpose of the corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which a corporation may be organized under the General Corporation Law of California other than the banking business or the trust company business or the practice of a profession permitted to be incorporated by the California Corporations Code.

ARTICLE III

The corporation is authorized to issue two classes of shares designated, respectively, "Preferred Stock" and "Common Stock". The number of shares of Preferred Stock authorized to be issued is Five Hundred Thousand (500,000) shares, and the number of shares of Common Stock authorized to be issued is fifteen Million (15,000,000) shares. B. Common Stock

1. Voting Rights. Each holder of shares of Common Stock of the corporation shall be entitled to one vote for each share of such stock outstanding in the name of such holder on the books of the corporation on the record date designated for the purpose of such vote.

At all elections of directors of the corporation, each holder of shares of Common Stock shall be entitled to as many votes as shall equal the number of votes which (except for this provision as to cumulative voting) he would be entitled to cast for the election of directors with respect to his shares of stock, multiplied by the number of directors to be elected by him, and he may cast all of such votes for a single director or may distribute them among the number to be voted for, or for any two or more of them as he may see fit.

2. Dividend Rights. The holders of outstanding shares of Common Stock shall be entitled to receive when and as declared by the Board of Directors, out of the assets of the corporation at the time legally available therefor, and subject to any prior rights of the holders of any then outstanding shares of Preferred Stock, such dividends as may be declared from time to time by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that dividends authorized by this paragraph 2 shall not be cumulative and no rights shall accrue to the holders of outstanding shares of Common Stock by reason of the fact that such dividends may not have been paid or declared and set aside for payment in any prior fiscal quarter or quarters of the corporation.
