4. This Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation amends and restates the Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation.
5. The Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation, upon the filing of this Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, shall read in its entirety as follows:
 - FIRST: The name of the Corporation is Clark Equipment Company (the “Corporation”).
 - SECOND: The address of the Corporation’s registered office in the State of Delaware is 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, Delaware 19801, County of New Castle. The name of the Corporation’s registered agent for service of process in the State of Delaware at such address is The Corporation Trust Company.
 - THIRD: The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (as from time to time amended, the “DGCL”).
 - FOURTH: (a) The total number of shares of stock which the Corporation shall have authority to issue is 150,000. All of such shares shall be designated as “Common Stock”, and the par value of each of such shares shall be $0.01.

(b) Each holder of Common Stock shall be entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock held of record by such holder on all matters on which stockholders generally are entitled to vote, including at all meetings of stockholders and in written actions in lieu of meetings.

(c) The holders of Common Stock shall be entitled to share, on a per share basis, in such dividends and other distributions of cash, property or shares of stock of the Corporation as may be declared by the board of directors of the Corporation (the “Board of Directors”) from time to time with respect to the Common Stock out of assets or funds of the Corporation legally available therefor.

(d) Upon the voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution, distribution of assets or winding up of the Corporation, the holders of Common Stock shall be entitled to share, on a per share basis, in all assets of the Corporation of whatever kind legally available for distribution to the holders of Common Stock.

FIFTH: The Bylaws of the Corporation may be adopted, amended or repealed by the Board of Directors, but any Bylaws adopted or amended by the Board of Directors may be amended or repealed by the stockholders entitled to vote thereon.

SIXTH: The number of directors of the Corporation shall be fixed from time to time by the Bylaws of the Corporation. Election of directors need not be by written ballot.

SEVENTH: (a) To the fullest extent that the DGCL or any other law of the State of Delaware (as they exist on the date hereof or as they may hereafter be amended) permits the limitation or elimination of the liability of directors, no director of the Corporation shall be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director.

(b) No amendment to or modification or repeal of this Article SEVENTH shall adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing hereunder with respect to any state of facts existing or act or omission occurring, or any cause of action, suit or claim that, but for this Article SEVENTH, would accrue or arise, prior to such amendment, modification or repeal.

(c) If, after this Certificate of Incorporation is filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, the DGCL or any such other law is amended to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL or such other law, as so amended.

(d) Whenever possible, each term and provision of this Article SEVENTH shall be interpreted in such a way as to be effective and valid under applicable law. If any term or provision of this Article SEVENTH is found to be illegal, or if the application thereof to any person or any circumstance shall to any extent be judicially determined to be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Article SEVENTH, or the application of such term or provision to persons or circumstances other than those to which its application is judicially determined to be invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby and shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

EIGHTH: (a) Each person who was or is made a party to, or is threatened to be made a party to, or was or is involved in any action, suit or alternative dispute resolution procedure, or any other threatened, pending or completed proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including any action by or in the right of the Corporation (any of the foregoing, a "Proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, whether the basis of such Proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as such director, officer, employee or agent, or in any other capacity while serving as such director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than said law permitted the Corporation to provide prior to such amendment), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, other expenses and losses, amounts paid or to be paid in settlement, and excise taxes or penalties arising under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974) incurred or suffered by such person in connection therewith, and such indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent, and shall inure to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors and administrators.

(b) The right to indemnification conferred in this Article EIGHTH shall be a contract right and shall include the right of a director or officer to be paid by the Corporation the expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in defending any Proceeding described in Paragraph (a) in advance of its final disposition; provided, however, that the payment of such expenses incurred by a director or officer in his or her capacity as a director or officer (and not in any other capacity in which service was or is rendered by such person while a director or officer, including, without limitation, service to an employee benefit plan) in advance of the final disposition of a Proceeding shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking, which undertaking shall itself be sufficient without the need for further evaluation of any credit aspects of the undertaking or with respect to such advancement, by or on behalf of such director or officer, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by a final, non-appealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction that such director or officer is not entitled to be indemnified under this Article or otherwise.

(c) If (i) a claim under Paragraph (a) is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty (60) days after a written claim, together with reasonable evidence as to the amount of such claim, has been received by the Corporation, or (ii) a claim under Paragraph (b) is not paid in full by the Corporation within twenty (20) days after a written claim, together with reasonable evidence as to the amount of such claim, has been received by the Corporation, the claimant may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim, and, if successful in whole or in part, the claimant shall also be entitled to be paid the expenses, including attorneys' fees, of prosecuting such suit. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors or a committee thereof, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the claimant is proper in the circumstances because such claimant has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the DGCL, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors or a committee thereof, independent legal counsel or its stockholders) that such claimant has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall be a defense to the suit or create a presumption that such claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct. In any suit to enforce a right to indemnification or to advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses, the burden of proving that the claimant is not entitled to such indemnification, or to such advancement of expenses, under this Article or otherwise shall be on the Corporation.

(d) The right to indemnification and the payment of expenses incurred in defending a Proceeding in advance of its final disposition conferred in this Article EIGHTH shall not be exclusive of any other right that any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaw, agreement or vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise.

(e) The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the DGCL.

(f) The right to indemnification and the payment of expenses incurred in defending a Proceeding in advance of its final disposition conferred in this Article EIGHTH shall not be eliminated or impaired by an amendment to this Certificate of Incorporation or the Bylaws of the Corporation after the occurrence of the act or omission that is the subject of the Proceeding for which indemnification or advancement of expenses is sought.

(g) Whenever possible, each term and provision of this Article EIGHTH shall be interpreted in such a way as to be effective and valid under applicable law. If any term or provision of this Article EIGHTH is found to be illegal, or if the application thereof to any person or any circumstance shall to any extent be judicially determined to be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Article EIGHTH, or the application of such term or provision to persons or circumstances other than those to which its application is judicially determined to be invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby and shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

NINTH: The Corporation expressly elects not to be governed by Section 203 of the DGCL.

TENTH: The Corporation reserves the right at any time, and from time to time, to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this Certificate of Incorporation in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by the DGCL; and all rights, preferences and privileges of whatsoever nature conferred upon the stockholders, directors or any other persons herein are granted subject to this reservation.
