ARTICLE V
Consent to Avoid Dissolution

Upon the occurrence of any event described in Minnesota Statutes, Section 322B.80, Subd. 1, clause (5), that terminates the continued membership of a member in the limited liability company, the remaining members of the limited liability company shall have the power to avoid dissolution by giving dissolution avoidance consent in a manner consistent with any existing member control agreement and applicable law.

ARTICLE VI
Business Continuation Agreement

The members of this limited liability company shall have the power to enter into a business continuation agreement.

ARTICLE VII
Preemptive Rights Prohibition

Except as may be provided in any member control agreement governing the limited liability company, members of the limited liability company shall have none of the preemptive rights described in Minnesota Statutes Section 322B.33, or any successor thereto.

ARTICLE VIII
Cumulative Voting Prohibition

Except as may be provided in any member control agreement governing the limited liability company, members of the limited liability company shall have none of the rights of cumulative voting described in Minnesota Statutes Section 322B.63, or any successor thereto.

ARTICLE IX
Limitation of Liability of Governors

A governor of the limited liability company shall not be personally liable to the limited liability company or its members for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a governor, except for liability (i) based on a breach of the governor's duty of loyalty to the limited liability company or its members; (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (iii) under Section 322B.56 or Section SOA.23 of the Minnesota Statutes; or (iv) for any transaction from which such governor derived an improper personal benefit. If Chapter 322B of the Minnesota

Statutes is hereafter amended to authorize the further elimination or limitation of the liability of governors, then the liability of a governor of the limited liability company, in addition to the limitation on personal liability provided herein, shall be limited to the fullest extent permitted by Chapter 322B of the Minnesota Statutes, as amended. Any repeal or modification of this Article by the members of the limited liability company shall be prospective only and shall not adversely affect any limitation on the personal liability of a governor of the limited liability company existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE X
Action by Written Consent

10.1. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Governors, which does not require the approval of the members, may be taken by written action signed by the number of governors that would be required to take the same action at a meeting at which all governors were present. However, if the action is one which must be approved by the members, such action may be taken by written action signed by all of the governors then in office.

10.2. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the members may be taken by written action signed by the members who possess the voting power that would be required to take the same action at a meeting of the members at which all members were present.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has set his hand this 7th day of February, 2001.
