Dana-

Please see below. This will result in a remaining principal balance due of $78M which is secure by the last piece of property in the estate which has an interested buyer at $115M. The $46.6M purchase price is disappointing given our previous reliance of $152M tax assessed value but apparently the property is in pretty poor condition and there are environmental issues. The net to TD at $30M is less the below and we are getting a replacement lien for $8M on an unencumbered property for most of the stuff we wouldn't have to pay out in a foreclosure sale.

R/E Taxes- $5.1M

IRS lien- $7.8M (we obtained a mortgage on an unencumbered property in this exact amount)

Land Gains- $1.2M (estate is paying this amount to the Bank so that we do not have to wait for the State to approve the certificate as to no-gain)

Fire District- $1.3M

Commission- $2.8M

Though the sale of the remaining property we are counting on is complicated by subordinate liens and zoning issues we at least have some indication of value from the market that says we are covered.

Recommend your approval.

Thanks.

Kate,
For your and Dana's approval due to the release/ short sale of collateral.

The Estate of Dennis Smith has come to terms on the sale of one of the final two pieces of real estate, 27 North Main St, Wallingford, VT for a purchase price of $46.6M, net of $29,505.23 to come to the Bank. The Bank also picked up a $7,776.36 lien on an unencumbered property in order to recoup the value lost to the IRS lien being paid from proceeds of the proposed sale; mortgage is currently held in escrow.

The current valuation (TAV) is at $151,600 which is based on the town's last town-wide appraisal completed in 2007, there has never been a full appraisal completed. Further, the property is in poor condition with some environmental concern and this combined with the dated valuation used by the town explains the significant discrepancy in value. The property has been on the market for over 2 years with limited activity and my opinion is the approval of the short sale is a better option to foreclosure.

Additionally, the Estate is currently negotiating a sale of the final piece of real estate, 86 Strongs Ave, Rutland, VT, at a price of $115M. Currently the Estate is completing some due diligence to see if a private sale is feasible as junior liens may prevent a sale. Should a sale not occur, an auction will be sought for April 15th, redemption date is April 14th.

Let me know if you need any further information.
