AMENDED AND RESTATED BYLAWS
OF
AMERICAN FAMILY LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF COLUMBUS

ARTICLE ONE OFFICES

Section 1.1 Registered Office. The registered office shall be in the State of Nebraska, County of Douglas.

Section 1.2 Other Offices. The Corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Nebraska as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine and the business of the Corporation may require or make desirable.

ARTICLE TWO
SHAREHOLDERS' MEETINGS

Section 2.1 Place of Meetings. Meetings of shareholders may be held at any place within or without the State of Nebraska as set forth in the notice thereof or, in the event of a meeting held pursuant to waiver of notice, as set forth in the waiver, or if no place is so specified, at the principal office of the Corporation.

Section 2.2 Annual Meetings. The annual meeting of shareholders shall be held on the first Monday in May of each year unless that day is a legal holiday, and in that event on the next succeeding business day, for the purpose of electing directors and transacting any and all business that may properly come before the meeting. If the annual meeting of shareholders is not held on the day designated in this Section 2.2, any business, including the election of directors, that might properly have been acted upon at the meeting may be acted upon at a special meeting in lieu of the annual meeting held pursuant to these Bylaws or held pursuant to a court order.

Section 2.3 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders shall be held at the principal office of the Corporation or at such other place in the United States as may be designated in the notice of said meetings, upon call of the Chairman of the Board of Directors or the Chief Executive Officer and shall be called by the President or the Secretary when so directed by the Board of Directors or at the request in writing of the holders of shares representing at least 10% of all of the votes entitled to be cast on the issue or issues to be considered at the proposed special meeting. Any such request shall state the purpose for which the meeting is to be held. Special meetings shall be held at such place, either within or without the State of Nebraska, and at such times as shall be stated in the notice.

Section 2.4 Notice of Meetings. Unless waived, a notice of each meeting of shareholders stating the date, time and place of the meeting shall be given not less than ten (10) days nor more than sixty (60) days before the date thereof, by or at the direction of the Chief Executive Officer, the President, the Secretary, or the officer or persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder entitled to vote at that meeting. In the case of a special meeting, including a special meeting in lieu of an annual meeting, the notice of meeting shall state the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called.

Section 2.5 Closing of Transfer Books or Fixing of Record Date. For the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or shareholders entitled to receive payment of any dividend, or in order to make a determination of shareholders for any other proper purpose, the Board of Directors of the corporation may provide that the stock transfer books shall be closed for a stated period but not to exceed, in any case, sixty (60) days. If the stock transfer books shall be closed for the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders, such books shall be closed for at least ten (10) days immediately preceding such meeting.

In lieu of closing the stock transfer books, the Board of Directors may fix in advance a date as the record date for any such determination of shareholders, such date in any case to be not more than sixty (60) days and, in the case of a meeting of shareholders, not less than ten (10) days prior to the date on which the particular action, requiring such determination of shareholders, is to be taken. If the stock transfer books are not closed and no record date is fixed for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders, or shareholders entitled to receive payment of a dividend, the date on which notice of the meeting is mailed or the date on which the resolution of the Board of Directors declaring such dividend is adopted, as the case may be, shall be the record date for such determination of shareholders. When a determination of shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting of shareholders has been made as provided in this section, such determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof.

Section 2.6 Quorum. At a meeting of shareholders, the presence, in person or by proxy, of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on a matter shall constitute a quorum for action of that matter. The holders (or their representatives) of a majority of the shares present at a meeting, even though less than a majority of the shares outstanding, may adjourn the meeting from time to time without notice other than an announcement at the meeting, until such time as a quorum is present. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the original meeting. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the majority of the shares represented at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the shareholders, unless the vote of a greater number is required by law.

Section 2.7 Vote Required for Action. If a quorum exists, action on a matter (other than the election of directors) is approved if the votes cast favoring the action exceed the votes cast opposing the action, unless the Articles of Incorporation, provisions of these Bylaws validly adopted by the shareholders, or the Nebraska Model Business Corporation Act requires a greater number of affirmative votes. With regard to the election of directors, unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, if a quorum exists, action on the election of directors is taken by a plurality of the votes cast by the shares entitled to vote in the election.

Section 2.8 Proxies. At all meetings of the shareholders, a shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by a shareholder or his or her duly authorized attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of its execution, unless otherwise provided in the proxy.

Section 2.9 Voting of Shares. Each outstanding share having voting rights shall be entitled to one vote in person or by proxy on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders.

Section 2.10 Presiding Officer. The Chairman, or in his absence, the Chief Executive Officer, or in his absence, any designee of the Chairman, shall serve as the chairman of every meeting of shareholders. The Secretary or any Assistant Secretary of the Corporation shall act as the secretary at every meeting of shareholders. The Chairman shall appoint any other persons he deems required to assist with the meeting.

Section 2.11 Informal Action by Shareholders. Any action required to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, may be taken without a meeting if consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the shareholders entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of shareholders and may be stated as such in any articles or document filed with the Secretary of State under applicable state law.

ARTICLE THREE DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 Powers. The property, affairs and business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of its Board of Directors, which may exercise all powers of the Corporation and do all lawful acts and things which are not by law, by the Articles of Incorporation or by these Bylaws directed or required to be exercised or done by the shareholders.

Section 3.2 Number Election and Term. The number of directors which shall constitute the whole Board shall be not less than five (5) or more than twenty-five (25); at least one of which must be a resident of the State of Nebraska. The specific number of directors within such range shall be fixed or changed from time to time by the shareholders or by a majority of the Board of Directors then in office. Although the number and qualifications of the directors may be changed from time to time by amendment to these Bylaws, no change shall affect the incumbent directors during the terms for which they were elected.

Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, shareholders shall elect directors by a vote of not less than a plurality of the votes cast by the shares entitled to vote in the election at a meeting at which a quorum is present. Each director elected shall hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting of shareholders and thereafter until his successor is elected and qualified or until his earlier resignation, removal from office, disqualification, retirement or death. Directors need not be shareholders of the Corporation.

Section 3.3 Resignation. Any director who shall miss three or more regular meetings of the Board of Directors within any twelve month period, whether or not the meetings missed are consecutive, shall be deemed to have automatically resigned as a director, provided that the automatic resignation may be waived by resolution adopted by a majority vote of the remaining directors with the written consent of the resigned director, in which event said director shall remain on the Board.

Section 3.4 Removal of Directors. At any shareholders' meeting with respect to which notice of such purpose has been given, any director, or the entire Board of Directors, may be removed from office, with or without cause, by the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock having voting power and entitled to vote for the election of directors, and his successor may be elected at the same or any subsequent meeting of shareholders, or by the Board as permitted by law.

Section 3.5 Vacancies. Vacancies, including vacancies resulting from any increase in the number of directors (but not including vacancies resulting from removal from office by the shareholders as provided in Section 3.4 above, which vacancies shall be filled as set forth in Section 3.4), may be filled by the shareholders, by the Board of Directors, or by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors remaining in office, though less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, and a director so chosen shall hold office until the next annual election of directors and until his successor is duly elected and qualified or until his earlier resignation, removal from office, disqualification, retirement or death. If there are no directors in office, then vacancies shall be filled through election by the shareholders.

Section 3.6 Compensation of Directors. Directors shall be entitled to such reasonable compensation for their services as directors or members of any committee of the Board as shall be fixed from time to time by resolution adopted by the Board, and shall also be entitled to reimbursement for any reasonable expenses incurred in attending any meeting of the Board or any such committee. No such payment shall preclude any Director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 3.7 Meetings and Notice. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either within or without the State of Nebraska. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice other than this Bylaw immediately following adjournment of the annual meeting of shareholders and shall be held at the same place as the annual meeting of shareholders unless some other place is agreed upon by a majority vote of the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the Chairman of the Board or Chief Executive Officer or by any two directors on one day's oral, telephonic, facsimile or written notice duly given or served on each director personally, or five days' notice deposited, first class postage prepaid, in the United States mail. Such notice shall state a reasonable time, date and place of meeting, but the purpose need not be stated therein. Notice need not be given to any director who signs a waiver of notice either before or after the meeting. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting except when the director states, at the beginning of the meeting (or promptly upon his arrival), any such objection or objections to holding the meeting or the transaction of business at the meeting and does not subsequently vote for or assent to action taken at the meeting.

Section 3.8 Quorum. At all meetings of the Board, a majority of the number of directors prescribed pursuant to Section 3.2, or if no such number has been prescribed, a majority of directors in office immediately before the meeting begins shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board, except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these Bylaws. Whether or not a quorum shall be present at any meeting of the Board, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting.

Section 3.9 Consent of Directors. Unless otherwise restricted by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Board or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, setting forth the action so taken, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board or committee. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the Board. The consent may be executed by the Directors in counterparts.

Section 3.10 Voting. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, each director shall have one vote irrespective of the number of shares he or she may hold.

Section 3.11 Committees. The Board of Directors may, by the greater of (a) a majority of all the directors in office when the action taken or (b) the number of directors required by the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws to take action under Neb.Rev.Stat. §21-2093, designate from among its members one or more committees, each committee to consist of two or more directors. The Board may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent member at any meeting of such committee. Any such committee, to the extent allowed by law and provided in the resolution establishing such committee, shall have and may exercise all of the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation, except that it shall have no authority to (1) authorize distributions; (2) approve or propose to the shareholders any action that Nebraska law requires to be approved by the shareholders; (3) fill vacancies on the Board of Directors or on any of its committees; (4) amend the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation; (5) adopt, amend or repeal the Bylaws of the Corporation; (6) approve a plan of merger not requiring shareholder approval; (7) authorize or approve reacquisition of shares, except according to a formula or method prescribed by the Board of Directors; or (8) authorize or approve the issuance or sale or contract for sale of shares or determine the designation and relative rights, preferences, and limitations of a class or series of shares, except that the Board of Directors may authorize a committee or the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation to do so within limits specifically prescribed by the Board of Directors. Such committee or committees shall have such name or names as may be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors. Each committee of the Board of Directors shall adopt its own procedures and rules for the conduct of its meetings; provided, however, that to the extent that such rules and procedures are not established or are not consistent with Nebraska law, the provisions of this Article Three as to the Board of Directors and its deliberations shall be applicable to any committee of the Board of Directors. Each committee shall keep regular minutes of its meetings and report the same to the Board of Directors when required.

Section 3.12 Telephonic Meetings. Members of the Board of Directors or any committee appointed by the Board of Directors may participate in a meeting of such Board or committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

ARTICLE FOUR OFFICERS

Section 4.1 Number and Qualifications. The officers of the Corporation, who shall be chosen by the Board of Directors, are as follows: Chief Executive Officer, Chairman of the Board of Directors; Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors, President, First Executive Vice President, Executive Vice President, Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Treasurer, and Assistant Treasurer. In addition to other dividends authorized by law, the Board of Directors, by resolution, may from time to time declare dividends to be paid out of the unreserved and unrestricted earned surplus of the corporation, but no dividend shall be paid when the Corporation is insolvent, when the payment thereof would render the corporation insolvent or when otherwise prohibited by law.

ARTICLE SIX SHARES

Section 6.1 Authorization and Issuance of Shares. In accordance with the Nebraska Model Business Corporation Act, the Board of Directors may authorize shares of any class or series provided for in the Articles of Incorporation to be issued for any consideration valid under the provisions of the Nebraska Model Business Corporation Act or other applicable law. Section 6.5 Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. Any person claiming a share certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed shall make an affidavit or affirmation of the fact in the manner required by the Board of Directors and, if the Board of Directors requires, shall give the corporation a bond of indemnity in form and amount, and with one or more sureties satisfactory to the Board of Directors, as the Board of Directors may require, whereupon an appropriate new certificate may be issued in lieu of the one alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

ARTICLE SEVEN
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 7.1 Indemnification and Insurance. To the extent permitted by law, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation as a trustee, director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture or other enterprise or as a trustee, officer, employee or agent of an employee benefit plan, against expenses, including attorney's fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

To the extent permitted by law, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, or employee of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of an employee benefit plan, against expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation.

To the extent permitted by law, the Corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred in such capacity or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability.

The indemnity provided for by this Article Seven shall not be deemed to be exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be otherwise entitled, nor shall the provisions of this Article Seven be deemed to prohibit the Corporation from extending its indemnification to cover other persons or activities to the extent permitted by law or pursuant to any provisions of the Bylaws.

ARTICLE EIGHT MISCELLANEOUS

Section 8.1 Fiscal Year. The Board of Directors is authorized to fix the fiscal year of the Corporation and to change the same from time to time as it deems appropriate.

may be altered, amended or repealed, and new bylaws adopted, by the shareholders. The shareholders may prescribe by expressing in the action they take in adopting or amending any Bylaw or Bylaws that the Bylaw or Bylaws so adopted or amended shall not be altered, amended or repealed by the Board of Directors.
